Application for Clemency Hearing and Consideration

"Your mom and dad are supposed to protect you. They're supposed to feed you, and they're supposed to clothe you, and they're supposed to keep the monsters away from you. But the problem is, sometimes the parents are the monsters."

Angelinna ("Angie") Pizzuto, Jerry's sister. Exhibit (Ex.) 1.

Jerry Pizzuto was raised by a monster. A monster who raped him. In the shower. In his bed. In a shed in the woods. A monster who beat him. With a cattle prod. With a horse crop. With a 2x4 across the head. A monster who made him eat in the basement, sleep in a doghouse, and have sex with adult men. This monster never paid a price for inflicting all of this torture. Jerry did. Society did. Most of all, Berta Herndon and her nephew Delbert did.

Jerry Pizzuto is not making excuses for the 1986 deaths of Berta and Delbert Herndon. He accepts responsibility for his role in their murders and is remorseful for their deaths. He has carried those regrets for 34 years on death row.

Mr. Pizzuto asks the Commission to grant him a full hearing, to delve deeply into his ghastly childhood, history of brain damage since birth and brain injuries as a boy, as well as his current, terminal health condition. He recognizes the relief he requests is extraordinary, but he asks the Commission to consider the rare and unique constellation of factors in his application. After hearing the evidence, this Commission should commute his sentence to life without parole.

I. Knocking on Death's Door

At 64, Mr. Pizzuto is a frail shell of the man he once was. He has stage 4 cancer and is approaching natural death. He has begun experiencing memory loss and mild disorientation associated with the death process. Ex. 2. In hospice for over a year and confined to a wheelchair, he suffers from terminal bladder cancer, serious heart disease and a bevy of other illnesses that are expected to take his life soon. Ex. 3. His physicians estimated his life expectancy at less than 12 months, as of December 2019. Ex. 4. On March 3, 2021, Mr. Pizzuto's prison doctor noted that he "suspect[ed] . . . some level of metastasis . . . is occurring." Ex. 5. He will likely die very soon.

In addition to the terminal bladder cancer, Mr. Pizzuto has a number of other acute conditions, including chronic heart and coronary artery disease, coronary obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD), and Type 2 diabetes with related nerve damage to his legs and feet. Ex. 3. He has suffered two heart attacks and has four stents around his heart. Ex. 6.

The idea that such a sick, feeble man presents enough of a danger to society that he must be executed is far-fetched. And it is made even more implausible by Mr. Pizzuto's record in prison, which shows that he has not received a single disciplinary write-up in the last ten years. Ex. 7.

Mr. Pizzuto's terminal illness is reason enough for commutation. A number of religious leaders oppose this execution, and his illness is cited by many of them. Ex. 8. His looming death from natural causes makes going forward with his execution an unnecessary exercise, with significant operational and personnel costs for the State.

II. A Tap in the Middle of the Night

Bud Bartholomew often came for his young stepson Jerry in the middle of the night. He'd tap Jerry's head with a flashlight, put a hunting knife to his throat, and the abuse would begin. Ex. 9. Bud savagely beat and raped Jerry. He would string Jerry up in the garage with extension cords and boot laces, tie his hands over his head to a pole, and rape and beat him. Ex. 1.

Jerry was also raped by Bud in the woods, in Bud's car, Ex. 10, and by Bud's buddies. Sometimes Bud charged his friends $10 or $20 to have sex with Jerry and his siblings, depending on what kind of sex was requested. Exs. 11, 12, 13. Bud took nude photos of his step-kids too, sometimes alone, sometimes in sexual positions with each other. Exs. 12, 13.

Bud began physically and sexually assaulting Jerry when he was 5 or 6, not long after Bud and Jerry's mother were married. Jerry first reported the sexual abuse to his aunt. He was walking bowlegged and crying that he had been stung by a bee. Exs. 14, 11. When she asked him to show her, Jerry revealed his testicles, black and blue and swollen. The tip of his penis was bloody. Exs. 14, 11. Jerry's aunt pressed him on whether it was a bee sting and Jerry confided in her that his step-father had done this to him. Ex. 14. Jerry's mother put onion slices on his testicles to reduce the swelling, Ex. 1, but didn't protect her son from further abuse. Ex. 15 at 3, 19.

Bud abused all his step-children, but singled out Jerry for the worst of it. Exs. 12, 13. Jerry would be beaten until he was bleeding, Ex. 16, or unconscious, and many times to the point where he would have convulsions. Exs. 17, 11. Jerry was once "delivered" back to his sister, convulsing, having been beaten from head to toe. Ex. 15 at 4. She was ordered by her step-father to clean Jerry up, so she and another sibling put Jerry in the bathtub and washed him in cold water. Ex. 15 at 4. He had cuts, bruises, and skin missing from his back. They did not have enough band-aids, so they tore up an old sheet and wrapped Jerry like a mummy. Ex. 15 at 4.

Jerry's sister Elsie remembered that Bud seemed to get "big pleasure" from the abuse, "lining us all up ... he'd beat you with the horsewhip once. Whack. Then through the group twice ... fifteen ... sixteen ... twenty-five. You're dropping on the floor unconscious at that point." Ex. 15 at 18–19.

When Jerry was 6, Bud hit him on the back of the head with a 2 x 4 piece of lumber. Ex. 14. He got backhanded across the room once because he didn't know how to tie his shoelaces and let a sister do it for him. Ex. 15 at 2–3. One time Jerry was stabbed with a fork by his step-father for putting his elbows on the table. Ex. 18. Another time, Bud beat Jerry down with a tall metal milk can from the dairy barn. Ex. 15 at 17. Bud also had other tools he liked to use, a cattle prod, a horse crop, a broom, a belt buckle, sticks, or just kicking with his cowboy boots. Ex. 11.

Jerry was also beaten for things his siblings had done. Jerry's step-sister recalled him being beaten across the back with a horse whip until he bled. The infraction—she had played with Bud's fountain pens. Ex. 18. The horse whip was a metal bar with leather straps at the end. Exs. 11, 9. It lacerated their arms, legs and backs. Ex. 11.

I don't know that we make the right words to describe how bad it was. It was a horrific set of growing up years with physical and sexual and emotional abuse, particularly --- particularly taken out on Mr. Pizzuto.

But not only was there horrific abuse that was perpetrated, but just an incredible depersonalization of it. As I understand it, not being able to live in the house, depending on -- different folks indicating either at all or for extended periods, not being allowed to eat with Bartholomew children, just many different ways that not only was the abuse perpetrated, but a real depensionalization that went on.

The children feared or endured violence every day, and never lived long enough, anywhere, as Bud uprooted the family haphazardly, hopscotching from one place to the next to dodge abuse investigations. Ex. 15 at 8, 18, 25–26. The siblings would go to school with noticeable bruises after a night of pounding by Bud. Ex. 15 at 18. When they returned home from school they were told to get in the car, "[e]verything you knew was gone. All you had was the clothes on your back. And you were going off somewhere else, and the whole time you were being drilled on what your new last names were." Ex. 15 at 18.

Bud's emotional abuse added insult to the physical injuries, and he piled it on Jerry more than the others. After raping Jerry, Bud ordered him to go outside and get some chores done. Ex. 15 at 60. Jerry was angry and inconsolable, but managed to get a fire going in a barrel to burn garbage. Ex. 15 at 60. Bud approached holding the teddy bear Jerry had gotten for Christmas. It was Jerry's favorite gift, and a rare source of comfort in his horrible life. Bud taunted him and threw it into the fire, screaming "[y]ou son of a bitch. You like this? You love your Teddy bear? Watch it burn." Ex. 15 at 60.

Angie and Toni, another Pizzuto sister, recalled that the Pizzuto kids were forced to eat in the basement by themselves because they weren't Bud's kids. Exs. 1, 11. Sometimes, they had to sleep outside with the dogs in the dog house, and eat Gravy Train dog food. Ex. 1.

Violence was the rule, not the exception. "Just a day in the life," as Elsie described it. "I don't know that people can really understand that, you know, the daily, daily emotional torture, physical abuse, sexual abuse. [Bud] was just a horrible predator and a really evil man." Ex. 15 at 4. Elsie continued:

"I just wish that I could convey how really terrible it was. We're not talking about, oh, my dad spanked me last night and maybe hit me once too many times. ... It just was an onslaught. ... Day after day, night after night. You could be asleep in your bed and be yanked out by your hair in the middle of the night and drug off and raped. ... And maybe he had a friend there, okay? So then you have to get up the next day and go to school and act like everything is fine. ... And you're just a kid trying to get a life, you know. Trying to live. ... In particular, he [Jerry] and [our sister] Angelin[n]a." Ex. 15 at 67–68.

The tragedy of Jerry's life is that nobody was able to intervene and save him from the brutality that tortured and broke him as a child, not even his own mother. Ex. 15 at 3, 19. His step-father's ability to avoid punishment, by disappearing to a new town when he sensed trouble from the law, prevented the children from getting the help they desperately needed. As Elsie said, "somebody should have believed and somebody should have stepped up and helped us. … It's not like we didn't ask for it, because we did. … It's just nobody believed you when you were a child, you know." Ex. 15 at 52.

Elsie described the extent and effects of the abuse in her family as comparable to the trauma of war:

You know, I watched this movie with Marlon Brando, and it was, you know, Vietnam. And they're going off this river, and he goes crazy. ... in the end they find him, and he's just babbling to himself, and all he can say is, "The horror. The horror." ... And so I look at my brothers and sisters, and I feel like they've been through horror that most people couldn't survive. Ex. 15 at 22.

Unlike veterans of war though, Elsie, Jerry, and their siblings were children. "You hear about veterans that go off to war. Well, we were veterans when we were ten years old." Ex. 15 at 28. While veterans now get help for their PTSD, Jerry received no help and was left to suffer alone with a monster.

III. Behind From The Start

Jerry was the odd kid a lot of adults remember from their own childhood. The one who soiled his pants and didn't seem to notice, or care. The kid who ate dirt, and bugs, was left to play by himself, and got left back in school more than once. He was born five weeks prematurely, Exs. 14, 20, 21, and a series of brain injuries on top of all the child abuse and trauma helped to further stunt his development. And it stole his ability to fit in, make good decisions, interact with others, and control his behavior.

When Jerry was two and a half years old, he fell down a double flight of stairs into the basement, fractured his skull, and was hospitalized in a coma. Exs. 22, 20, 21. At 14, he was in a serious motorcycle accident. Exs. 21, 23. Paramedics found him unconscious and bleeding from his mouth, lips and nose. Ex. 23. His right frontal sinus region was fractured. Ex. 23. He was hospitalized for three days. Ex. 23.

That accident changed him. Exs. 22, 21. He became more prone to aggressive and violent outbursts, "it was like they took off the stoppers" and "the inhibitions were gone." Ex. 1.

Mr. Pizzuto's brain is damaged. It is smaller than normal, with a higher than usual amount of damaged tissue. Ex. 24. He has deficits in impulse control, language skills, verbal fluency, memory, reasoning and problem solving, and poor decision-making skills. Exs. 22, 25. Jerry has a long history of seizures and organic brain damage that significantly affected his mental capacity and ability to function in everyday life. Ex. 25.

My kids were smart enough to wipe their nose. He wasn't. At six, my kids always wiped their nose. And my kids didn't eat dirt and they didn't eat bugs.

Because -- because -- it stands out in my mind so clearly because he would sit and watch, and with the runny nose, stare at the hole. The ants would come out. And he would eat the dirt and it would stick to the snot on his face.

Kismet Winslow – Jerry's Aunt. Ex. 14.

He was slow to learn. He had very basic vocabulary and took a long time to get words out. He preferred to use gestures to get what he wanted and to indicate his needs. Exs. 26, 14. Jerry had difficulty listening, understanding others, and could not follow directions. Ex. 26. Jerry did poorly in school. He repeated several grades, which was further isolating because he was maturing faster physically than his younger classmates. Ex. 26. In sixth grade, for example, he was growing a mustache. Ex. 27.

At the time, special education was not available. Exs. 26, 27, 28. Despite being older than other students, Jerry performed at the bottom of his class. Exs. 26, 27. Despite failing grades, Jerry was promoted from one grade to the next. Ex. 29. His siblings often had to do his homework for him. Exs. 26, 13.

Socially, Jerry was a quiet kid who had trouble bonding with other kids. Ex. 26. Jerry kept to himself and played by himself – always an outsider to the kids he grew up with, who often didn't want to play with him due to his strangeness. Exs. 26, 16. Jerry's aunt recalled that Jerry's level of play was much lower than that of her children - "[m]y children could not relate to Jerry, and he could not keep up with them. When the other children shunned him, Jerry would either sit alone or come crawl into my lap." Ex. 30.

Jerry could be easily tricked too. Ex. 26. For example, his sister Angie would goad Jerry into grabbing the electric fence on the farm, telling him it was off. Jerry would grab the wire, and get shocked. Then a day or two later, she would repeat the trick and Jerry would fall for it again. Ex. 17.

I remember vividly coming into a room and Jerry was standing on a chair in the middle of the room. We had a dangling light socket that came down, kind of on a cord. And I came into the room and he was standing on a chair. And he licked his thumb and stuck his finger in the light socket. It blew him clear across the room.

~Elsie Pizzuto Rado, Jerry's sister. Ex. 17.

Jerry also had problems taking care of his basic needs. Exs. 12, 13, 30. He relied on his younger sisters to groom and feed him. He wore his clothes inside out or backward, and he put his shoes on the wrong feet. Exs. 26, 17. He was always dirty, and he would not bathe unless he was told.

Exs. 26, 14, 16, 31, 17, 13. Sometimes he would forget to put on his shirt, a sock, or a shoe. Ex.

30. When his nose ran, "he did not even appear to be aware of the mucus that ran and caked down his face." Ex. 30. Jerry wet his pants at school and ate dog biscuits. Exs. 26, 14.

I just thought he was slow. He was -- he was slow to grasp things. He was dirty, no matter. I gave him a bath, but he -- if he was engaged in something outside, he would mess his pants and not say a word, and just walk around that way. And then I would catch him and see him, or one of the other kids would tattle that he has messed his pants. So he was just unkempt. He was not a child that you would want to hug a lot.

~Ruth A. Roath, Jerry's aunt. Ex. 31.

Conclusion

Mr. Pizzuto never had a chance in life. He was tortured in unimaginable ways throughout his childhood. Merciless beatings and savage rapes battered and scarred that little boy. No one was there to save Jerry from the unrelenting attacks of his own step-father, a man who should have loved and protected Jerry.

Mr. Pizzuto has been punished substantially for his own crimes, spending every day of the past 34 years —more than half his life— isolated in a tiny cell on death row. The ravages of terminal cancer and heart disease punish him more every day, binding him to a wheelchair, a prisoner of his own failing body. Once a battered and wounded little boy, Jerry is now a dying and broken old man.

While it is too late to save that little boy, it is not too late to show Jerry Pizzuto mercy. He asks that you please grant him a hearing, so he may have the chance to show why mercy and commutation of his death sentence to life without parole is warranted. Let his imminent death from natural causes take him, without going through an unnecessary, expensive, resourceconsuming and trauma-inducing execution.

Transcript of "Angie video 1" Selections from Interview of Angelinna Pizzuto on October 16, 2019 in Boise, Idaho Interviewed, videotaped, and edited by Linda Mroz and Greg Worthen, Capital Habeas Unit Investigators Transcribed by L. Hollis Ruggieri, Capital Habeas Unit Paralegal

A. Jerry and I have an uncanny connection between us. When he's sick I'm sick, when he has a heart attack I have a heart attack. It sounds crazy but we feel each other. We just - we always have. We always have. It's like we're twins. It's, it's crazy. But it just, just how it is with us. This is, this is really hard.

[video cuts]

A. Jerry and I did so much as kids. Uh, you know, we used to get thrown outside a lot together. I was telling Emil about that. We never starved, Jerry and I. They used to throw us outside together and we'd sleep in the doghouse together. And throw Jerry out first and then they'd throw me out. Jerry'd ask me, "you got peanut butter?" And I'd say, "yeah, you got gravy train?" "Yeah." Cause they'd, we'd throw us out in the yard and we had Elkhound dogs. So, we'd get in the doghouse together and we'd be between the dogs, Grettle'd be there and Hansel'd be there. And we'd snuggle between us, between them, and Jerry'd say, "got peanut butter?" "Yeah, you got the gravy train?" We'd take the gravy train and dunk it in the peanut butter. Return to Petition Page 6

[video cuts]

A. And if Jerry tried to protect us girls then he'd get a beating. He'd not only hit Jerry with a belt. He'd, he'd punch him, beat him up, take him out to the garage, and tie him like this (raises hands above head with wrists crossed), tie him up, to the pole, face first this way, and rape him, beat him. Like I said, there were times that Jerry would be so bad, his testicles were swollen so big my mom would have to put onions on 'em to bring the swelling down.

Return to Petition Page 4 [video cuts]

A. And I hated Bud, I hated him with a passion.

[video cuts]

A. Because, he was raping us kids and beating with a horsewhip. You know? I hated him. Flat out hated him.

[video cuts]

A. I hated him. Oh, we all did, but you know, he beat us a lot, was raping us kids. And I told and nobody believed me.

[video cuts]

A. We were Pizzutos. They made uh, uh what can I use as an example? (Looking around room). Like a pig trough, it was about this long, but about that high. (Indicating size on cabinets). Down in the basement. And us Pizzutos had to eat down there and Rene too, she wasn't a Pizzuto she was a Paris, we had to eat down there, in the basement, because we weren't Bud's kids. Return to Petition Page 6

[video cuts]

A. Elsie just was put in a position where she was the biggest, uh, she was a lot taller than me, heavier than me, and she was like the "hero," "the leader" of the kids. She had to cook, clean, and, you know, take care of us. So, Elsie wasn't really, uh, I don't know how to put this, abused as much as the rest of us kids because, uh, she was in control of cooking and cleaning and taking care of the babies. So, Elsie wasn't put in that position as much as the rest of us.

[video cuts]

A. He hated Jerry. He beat Jerry and me a lot. He used to tie Jerry to the post out in the garage, and beat him. I can remember times he beat Jerry so bad that his testicles would swell so big mom would have to take onions and cut 'em in half and put them on Jerry. Yeah.

[video cuts]

A. Bud was crazy. He'd ask you to get him a towel while he was in the shower and then drag you in there and then rape you. He was crazy, I don't know how else to put it. Just nuts.

[video cuts]

A. Jerry had a massive head injury when he was like eleven. Eleven years old.

Q. Can you describe that, please?

A. We were living in Spokane, Washington, and um, Jerry had a ten-speed bike and he built a ramp, like this (indicating with her hand that it was at an incline). And uh, I was babysitting down the street, cuz I'd been working since I was about nine. And he went round and round and round and round it like this (indicating a circular motion with her hand), and then he came off the ramp on that bike and he went off of it and it collapsed, the front of the bike collapsed and he hit right here (indicating right in the middle of her forehead with her index finger). And it opened the top of his head open here (indicating lengthwise on the top of her head from the hairline back). Really bad. I'll never forget it.

[video cuts]

A. After that Jerry was more violent, more outbursts.

[video cuts]

A. He never hurt me before that. Never hurt me, but he was more, I guess aggressive is the word, after that. But he was very protective of with me until then, up, in that way, but he got more aggressive, or you know, he was really protective. I don't know how to explain it. But he wouldn't take it to such limits before that. Where it was like they took off the stoppers. Jerry would get in your face and push you, but, after that, he wasn't afraid to hit ya. You know, like the inhibitions were gone, you know? Return to Petition Page 8

[video cuts]

A. Yeah, he, like two years later, that he was out of control and mom put him in the Boys Ranch, and then he went and lived with dad.

[video cuts]

A. As a kid, I mean, we were all pretty much knocked around as a kid. Bud used to love to backhand us, you know? All the time. I got hit a lot. That was one of his favorite things. He either backhanded you or fisted you on top of your head so it was kind of hard to tell.

[video cuts]

A. Jerry didn't write very well, so Elsie and I always did his homework and we did Rene's. Rene wasn't good at it either. Catholic school was different back then. So, cause they flunked Jerry back to be in school with me, he was, we was always in the same grade since about the third grade.

[video cuts]

A. So he was always in the same class with me from about third grade forward. And it was easier, mom was, you know, told us to do his work. She was embarrassed that he flunked a year. He was with Elsie, Elsie was put out with it so he just stayed in class with me and we carried him, the whole way. That's what we did. It was easier for us to do his homework, cause mom was embarrassed.

[video cuts]

A. Jerry can't hardly write so, you know, they didn't care so long as it all got done. It was our responsibility. "Take care of your brother." The nuns were the same way about that.

[video cuts]

A. All we have is each other. Been that way for a long goddamned time. Family ain't supposed to be like that but I've learned it. Nothing in life is the way it's supposed to be. Your parents are supposed to protect you and they don't. No. You grow up thinking life's a fairy tale, you know? Your mom and dad are supposed to protect you. They're supposed to feed you and they're supposed to clothe you and they're supposed to keep the monsters away from you. But the problem is sometimes your parents are the monsters. You know? So what do you do? You try to survive and, you know, you grow tough skin. Return to Petition Page 2

[video cuts]

A. I'm just glad that some of them guards take care of him. He's got friends in there. I just feel so helpless, to do anything for him. I do what I can and it's not enough, you know, I can't send him enough money and I can't tell him it's gonna be ok because it's not ok.

Subjective Notes

Here to follow up after being placed on hospice care 11/1/19. Wanted to assure patient had not changed his mind about being on hospice and check on response to multiple medication changes. Patient states he feels great today. Does report that he has fallen in his cell. Has hard time getting dressed sometimes. Reports he urinated well today with only a little blood. Agrees to stop his cholesterol medication and the iron tablet. Reports stool is soft and "explosive" when passes, no constipation

Subjective Notes

Here for CDP. Patient is now being treated as comfort care given his cancer diagnosis and life expectancy of less than 12 month. He is on oxycodone with good pain relief until last few days. Patient states he has already gotten used to it and has pain again. Describes pain in pelvic area that is burning and like "ants crawling". Has urinary urgency but difficulty urinating when he tries. Passes clumps of material in urine and the urine is usually "pink" from blood. Wants to know why he is still on a heart medicine. He states he feels so much better without all the medications he was taking. Wants to stop the carvedilol. States he uses his Albuterol about 3-4 times per week. States he is satisfied with how he is breathing at present. Reports some constipation but does not want to try any other bowel medication. He feels the Colace works good enough.

Here to clarify POST Form. Current POST form shows DNR and aggressive care. When I explained to him what aggressive care would mean he stated that he did not want that. He would not want dialysis or to be on a ventilator. We review the POST form and he signs a new one selecting comfort care only. He is aware that this means we will not send him to the hospital but will "let nature take its course" which is what he states he wants.

30 day follow up

 Patient evaluated in J Block clinic for his 30 day evaluation. There was a medication mixup and his 5 mg morning dose of OxyContin was actually administered 3 times a day. The patient states that he felt that this provided him much better pain control as his pain is continuing to progress. He feels that it is kind of migrating up his abdomen. He still taking in food and having bowel and bladder function. With specific regard to his urination he feels that the Lasix medication is causing him to pee too much and he does not want to take it anymore. He is requesting to discontinue it. Long discussion was made with the patient with regard to his medical care. He has in the past refused different levels of care. We have reviewed his adjustment is not adversely affecting other aspects of his care. He is aware that a reduction in Lasix can result in fluid overload and exacerbations of shortness of breath and difficulties with breathing. He has acknowledged this. We also had a discussion with regard to his abdominal pain. At this time it appears that the patient is experiencing increases the pain most likely due to his Malignant bladder cancer. However, as Additional intra-abdominal processes can occur We discussed for further workup if it may arise. The patient agreed that if he has an acute worsening pain that he will notify staff either through HSR process or 1 of the security guards so that he can be reevaluated and we can determine if further workup is necessary. We mentioned the possibility of radiographic evaluation and additional studies. The patient Would like to continue with comfort measures at this time. Any changes are noted we can discuss it at that time whether further workup will be performed.

HOSPITAL COURSE: The interested reader is directed to the previously dictated notes. Briefly Mr. Pizzuto is a 50-year-old gentleman incarcerated at the state penitentiary who presented to the infirmary with sudden onset of substernal chest discomfort. An AED was placed and apparently he had two syncopal events witnessed with AED discharged, required to convert from VF to sinus. On presentation to the emergency room he was in atrial fibrillation with rapid ventricular response, still complaining of substernal chest discomfort and had nondiagnostic ECG changes consisting of ST segment depression diffusely. He was hemodynamically stable but with ongoing chest discomfort. This examination was otherwise unremarkable with no evidence of congestive heart failure and he was normotensive. At this point because of persistent discomfort and nondiagnostic EKG changes he was taken directly to the cardiac catheterization lab. Catheterization was performed in an uncomplicated fashion revealing a total occlusion of the circumflex marginal branch and so this was successfully stented with a 2.0 x 18 mm MINI VISION. At this point he spontaneously converted to sinus rhythm and was maintained in sinus rhythm throughout his hospitalization.

Post interventional course in the CCU was uncomplicated. He did have chronic recurring chest wall discomfort from the cardioversion but no recurrent angina. His EDP was markedly elevated at the time of catheterization but resolved but he did not develop overt congestive heart failure. Because of persistent chest discomfort and mild tachycardia, on the day of discharge we did perform a bedside echocardiogram, which revealed normal LV function, no pericardial effusion, and no significant mitral insufficiency. It was felt that ongoing chest discomfort was chest wall in origin from his defibrillation and there was no evidence of CHF, recurrent ischemia or pre-wall eruption.

DISCHARGE MEDICATIONS: Were to be aspirin 81 daily; Plavix 75 daily; metoprolol 50 mg b.i.d.; lisinopril 10 mg daily; Zocor 80 mg daily; Neurontin 600 mg b.i.d.; Ultram 100 mg t.i.d.; nitroglycerin p.r.n.; Glucophage 500 mg daily; glipizide 2.5 mg b.i.d.

Commission of Pardons & Paroles 3056 Elder Street Boise, Idaho 83705

Dear Commissioners, Ladies and Gentlemen,

I am the Rt. Rev. Brian Thom, Bishop of the Episcopal Church in Idaho. I write to implore you to grant clemency to Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr.

Since 1958, The Episcopal Church has opposed the purpose and decried the spiritual cost of the death penalty on all parties. The Church is clear that the taking of a "human life falls within the providence of God and not within the right of man.." I join with my predecessors in calling for abolishing capital punishment in all cases.

While the death penalty remains a legal consequence in Idaho and other states, I know these points to be true:

-The death penalty is not a deterrent to crime

-The appeal process is vastly more expensive to taxpayers than lifelong incarceration

-The appeal process prolongs the agony of victim's families as they await adjudication

Life without parole satisfies the need to protect society, is sufficient punishment of any crime, and provides the conclusion necessary to promote healing.

Capital punishment serves only as a vehicle for vengeance. When we, either as individuals or as a society, participate in capital vengeance, the convicted are denied any possibility of redemption as a child of God. Those who avenge are emotionally and spiritually stained by the truth that killing people, to prove that killing people is wrong, is morally bankrupt and repugnant to God.

Mr. Pizzuto's medical condition guarantees that he will die in prison. This reality provides an opportunity for all involved to manifest the basic human quality that Mr. Pizzuto did not possess in 1986: mercy. Given that his death is approaching, granting Mr. Pizzuto clemency at this time would be a testimony of prudent adjudicatory oversight and a witness to the soul-affirming gift of mercy.

For everyone's sake, I pray you will approve Mr. Pizzuto's Petition for Clemency.

Faithfully,

The

The Rt. Rev. Brian Thom XIII Bishop of Idaho

Re: Please stay the scheduled execution of Mr. Gerald Pizzuto (IDOC#23721)

Dear Governor Little,

It is my hope that you will consider our request and stop the execution of Mr. Pizzuto due to his imminent death. As you may be aware, he has been diagnosed as terminal due to advanced cancer and is already receiving hospice care within the IDOC.

We respectfully ask that you grant a stay of execution for Mr. Pizzuto and allow him to live out the remainder of his natural life within the Idaho Corrections System. My staff and I are always available upon Mr. Pizzuto's request to minister to his spiritual needs.

I remain sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Peter F. Christensen Bishop of the Diocese of Boise

CATHEDRAL OF THE ROCKIES boise first united methodist church

Idaho Commission of Pardons and Parole,

Grace and peace. I am writing to support clemency for Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr.

The United Methodist Church says, "The death penalty denies the power of Christ to redeem, restore, and transform all human beings." (Social Principles ¶164.G)

As Wesleyans, we believe that God's grace is ever reaching out to restore our relationship with God and with each other. The death penalty denies the possibility of new life and reconciliation. "We oppose the death penalty (capital punishment) and urge its elimination from all criminal codes." (Social Principles ¶164.G)

Mr. Pizzuto was sentenced to death by a judge. After his trial, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that it is unconstitutional for a judge to sentence a defendant to death and that only a jury can do so. If Mr. Pizzuto were prosecuted today, twelve people would have to unanimously agree on a death sentence for one to be handed down.

Mr. Pizzuto was placed in hospice care in November 2019 due to bladder cancer. He also has Type 2 diabetes and coronary artery disease, which has led to two heart attacks and the insertion of five stents. Clemency would only allow him to pass away of natural causes in prison, to avoid the spectacle of the State pushing his wheelchair into the death house.

I write to support clemency for Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr.

Facilities Coordinator Lawrence Shapiro To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to express my support for clemency for Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr.

I appeal to you as a clergy person, as a rabbi speaking out of the deep values of my Jewish tradition—and as a concerned Idahoan.

In Jewish law, capital punishment effectively ended almost two thousand years ago. And even then, in the Talmud, Rabbi Eleazar ben Azariah taught that a court that executes one person in seventy years is considered bloodthirsty. This general wariness over capital punishment is even more warranted given the imperfect history of any human court system. While I recognize the severity of Mr. Pizzuto's offense, his case remains problematic for several reasons. Neither of the two convicted accomplices was given the death penalty, including the man who shot and killed one of the victims. There is reason to believe that Mr. Pizzuto's lawyers were denied access to significant evidence about those accomplices in this case. And the terms of the issuance of the sentence—by a judge alone—would now be unconstitutional according to American law.

For all of these reasons, I believe it would be both unwise and unjust to execute Mr. Pizzuto.

On top of all this, Mr. Pizzuto is dying of bladder cancer, coronary artery disease and diabetes. Why would the state waste time and resources to execute a man who is terminally ill? This is pure vengeance rather than justice. It makes no sense, at any level, for Idaho to execute a dying man, almost thirty-five years after the crime. It costs us nothing to show Mr. Pizzuto the mercy of a natural death. This man has spent almost his entirely adult life in prison, with no history of violence under incarceration. Let him die there.

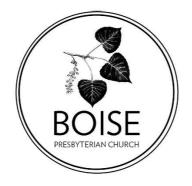

I urge you to grant clemency.

In Peace-

Rabbi Daniel Fink

March 11, 2021

To the members of the Idaho Commission of Pardons and Parole, and whomever it may concern:

I am writing to you today with strong support of the petition for clemency for Mr. Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr, and the request to commute Mr. Pizzuto's sentence to life without the possibility of parole.

As I trust you have been made aware, Mr. Pizzuto is currently enduring terminal cancer of the bladder, and has been placed under hospice care. He is already in the final days of his natural life, and it seems abundantly clear that it would be a grave and morally reprehensible course of action to take were the state to go ahead with his execution in light of his current health.

It would even seem to be in the state's own self-interest to avoid the spectacle and publicity involved in executing a man who is already under hospice care and in the final days of his life.

So, I ask you: What does the state stand to lose by granting this commutation? To execute this man, under these circumstances, appears to be a clear disregard for the dignity of human life, and an abdication of the moral responsibility with which you have been entrusted.

Thank you for your consideration. I trust that this request will be taken seriously, and I welcome any further discussion on the subject that you may deem necessary.

Sincerely,

Rev. Brian G. Frey Pastor Boise Presbyterian Church brian.frey@boisepres.org 208-272-0229

February 27, 2020

To the members of the Idaho Commission of Pardons and Parole:

My name is Marc Schlegel-Preheim, pastor of Hyde Park Mennonite Fellowship in Boise. I am writing to add my voice to those seeking clemency for Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr.

As Mr. Pizzuto is terminally ill, it seems that, despite the original sentence, this would be a time to allow the natural process of death to have its way. Granting Mr. Pizzuto clemency would not take away the reality of an imminent death, only the process of how it would come.

Mr. Pizzuto is facing death - a prospect he has been living with since his conviction and sentencing. And now, that death is coming, but it need not be by the hands of the state - that same reality looms for him as he endures the terrible realities of cancer. While granting clemency would remove an execution, living under the impending reality of a death sentence since 1986 has not left him to go under punished for the lives he has taken.

Each state execution exists as such an emotionally-charged situation for our community; this is a time when such a reality can be avoided without changing the outcome. As a citizen of Idaho, I hate the thought of us spending the time, energy, and resources to kill a dying man. As a leader of a faith community, I hate idea that we would execute someone who is already at death's door. I would hope we could find the collective will for a small bit of mercy in Mr. Pizzuto's situation.

I know that those on this commission have a difficult job, with much to consider and weigh in a variety of situations. Again, I would ask for you to consider a moment of temporary mercy in the case of Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr.

Sincerely,

Rev. Marcus Schlegel-Preheim

To Whom This May Concern,

My name is Rev. John S. Hergert and I have spent the past 39 years as a pastor in the Lutheran Church in congregations in several states including Idaho where I am continuing to live as a retired pastor. I have also served in elected leadership as a school board member in Washington State for over 13 years. So I think it is safe to say that I know a bit about the workings of government and have sympathy for the task in front of you as you decide the fate of an inmate in our prison system.

I write today on behalf of Gerald Pizzuto and ask that you in the spirit of compassion for an already dying man grant clemency for him so that the state does not execute an inmate in hospice care. I have been made aware of the nature of his crimes and they were terrible and he has spent many years in prison in payment of those crimes. Now as he is dying the state seems to be moving towards executing him. Of all the powers we grant the state the power to take a life is the most severe and should, if administered at all, be done rarely and to make sure, as it is delineated in our US Constitution, it isn't "cruel or unusual." As a person of faith I have to say to kill an already dying man seems very cruel indeed.

Mr. Pizzuto was raised under terrible circumstances. He was even raped by his step father. I cannot imagine the damage that must have done to him. I do not excuse his actions, but I believe it should be taken into account. Our system of government is wonderful, but at times flawed. I believe to kill an already dying man goes against everything I have been taught as a practicing Lutheran pastor, it goes against the very teaching of Jesus that so many of us affirm. Yes, I know there is a separation of church and state, yet still from a moral perspective I believe it is not in the best interests of the state to execute Mr. Pizzuto. I believe we should let him die peacefully under the care of the hospice being provided for him in prison. I do not ask that he be released, but that the state act with the compassion that I suspect Mr. Pizzuto never received in life.

I thank you for the work you do for all of the state of Idaho to keep it a just place for us all.

Sincerely,

Rev. Jah S Heyrot

Regarding Clemency for Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr.

On behalf of Mr. Pizzuto, I offer my request for clemency, that justice might be restored and served for him, his family, and society.

As a Christian pastor and believer, my understanding of the Holy Scriptures compels me to suggest that the taking of a life, any life, is against what our supreme being, God, desires for his Creation. This would negate the use of capital punishment by any society or government that holds itself to be responsible to the higher power.

In reviewing Mr. Pizzuto's case history, there are substantive reasons that his punishment has been long and consistent during incarceration, that his current health prognosis is very poor, and that imposing death upon him is inconsistent with mercy shown to others in the last stages of their life.

There is no purpose in imposing the artificial and premature death of Mr. Pizzuto that will serve society, victims, or the State of Idaho. This is not a statement of practicality; there will be no benefit and no completion of duty. Justice is no longer being served.

For these reasons, I request that mercy and clemency be provided to Mr. Pizzuto, that he be allowed palliative care until his natural death, and that he be allowed the dignity of a death afforded to all of God's creatures. May God, who alone has jurisdiction over life and Life Eternal, have mercy upon Mr. Pizzuto.

Respectfully,

Dear Members of the Parole Commission,

I write you today to ask you, please grant clemency to Mr. Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr. You have it in your power, and more than this you are blessed with choice: to choose grace and mercy, to err on the side of life, and to allow Mr. Pizzuto to live out his days to their natural end.

The inescapable truth of murder is that a human life has ended in violence by the actions of another. My denomination, Unitarian Universalism, has formally opposed the Death Penalty since 1961. And as an individual, I believe we humans—and all living beings—share a Common Source, and by this we all are connected. It is from this certainty of deep interconnection that another certainty emerges: Life is precious. My own, and yours, and every person's. Murder is the most heinous crime in that it ends precious life. No subsequent death—no execution—restores the life lost, but instead adds to the senseless list of suffering humans sometimes choose to inflict upon others.

Instead of adding to that hollow and false justice of sanctioned killing, you now may choose to honor the connection of life. Please exercise your power, guided by conscience and grounded in loving respect for all creation. Grant this man clemency.

With deepest regards and in peace,

Dear Commissioners,

I am writing in support of clemency for Mr. Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr. As a Minister and community leader, my faith compels me to advocate for basic human dignity, justice, and compassion. In the final stages of terminal cancer, Mr. Pizzuto's life is already nearing its end. To execute him now feels extreme and inhumane. The Death Penalty on the whole is one of the most shameful aspects of our current criminal justice system. The government-sanctioned execution of human beings is an inappropriate, inequitable, intolerable penalty. The state should never be the arbiter of death of another human being, regardless of their actions. This kind of punishment flies in the face of a consistent ethic of life and allows an imperfect system to condemn a human being to death.

A system of any kind, as we witness across government, is fallible and makes mistakes. An execution of human life should never be a mistake of the system. In Mr. Pizzuto's case, it appears as though many mistakes occurred during his trial, including the state hiding evidence. Mr. Pizzuto's own abusive childhood and diminished cognitive capacity as a result raise deep concerns about the fairness of his trail and the sentence. The state should not be executing anyone, let alone those who are mentally impaired. Furthermore, the accomplices in the crime, one of whom was the identified shooter, did not receive the death penalty because they assisted the state in its case against Mr. Pizzutto. Explain to me how that shows justice being implemented fairly. Learning that a judge imposed this sentence rather than a 12-person jury raises even more concerns. Were Mr. Pizzuto tried today, a jury would have to unanimously agree upon a death sentence. All of these concerns raise problematic questions and point to an outcome like that is wholly unjust and inequitable.

While I do not condone Mr. Pizzuto's violent actions and do support holding him accountable; execution means we, the system and the people, are choosing the basest most evil form of punishment available. Justice has never been about an "eye for an eye" but about accountability and even about opportunity for restoration. When we can practice compassion, even in the most challenging circumstances, we grow our empathy and our commitment to our collective interdependence. My faith reminds me that we are more than the worst thing that we have ever done. I endeavor to apply that to all people in the world. I hope the State will avoid the tragic spectacle of pushing a dying man in a wheelchair into the death house. Allowing Mr. Pizzuto to die of natural causes while remaining in custody offers both a just and compassionate alternative.

To: The Commission or Pardons and Parole:

My name is Henry Krewer and I am an 86 year old former science teacher at Bishop Kelly High School in Boise Idaho. After retiring in 1996 I helped out at the El Ada soup kitchen, the agency for New Americans, the language Lab and St Al's hospital. In 2002 I was one of the founders of Corpus Christi, a day shelter for the homeless of Boise. I continue to be a board member and a volunteer at Corpus to the present day.

I would like to include my name along with other Idahoans in asking for clemency for Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr, IDOC #23721. To be honest, I want you to know that for most of my adult life I have been against giving the state the right to take a human life. I also believe that having a human being locked up for what in Gerald's case is 34 years in a 12 by 7 ft. cell for 23 hours a day is cruel and unusual punishment.

But these are not the reasons that I am asking for clemency for Gerald. As you know he has been diagnosed with a terminal disease. This death sentence has no appeals, like the one issued by the state. This disease will kill him. I know that you would describe what you do at the Commission as doing justice. With that in mind, rolling a terminally ill man into the death chamber to execute him for a crime committed 34 years ago is more like revenge than justice, and so unnecessary. So, please grant him the clemency that he needs to die in prison of natural causes rather than subject him and the prison staff to the trauma and stress of an execution. We are better than that.

Respectfully,

Henry Krewer 208 853 9593

Dear Idaho Commission of Pardons and Parole

We want to add our names to the list of those requesting clemency for Mr. Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr. Idaho Department of Corrections # 23721.

Our Catholic Catechism states that the death penalty is "inadmissible because it is an attack on the inviolability and dignity of the person" (2267). The death penalty violates both the Church's pro-life teaching and the teaching on the inherent dignity of the human person as created in the image and likeness of God.

It has been documented that the death penalty does not deter people, and frequently does not bring closure for murder victims' families but rather interferes with their healing process. As a self-proclaimed "civilized nation", all of us citizens are culpable in dispensing revenge and not true justice.

Mr. Pizzuto has been diagnosed with a terminal disease. Please grant him clemency allowing him to die in prison on his own terms rather than being executed. We pray for you and the prison staff for grace and guidance in all matters related to prisoner executions in Idaho.

Thank you for considering our request.

DECLARATION OF TONI PIZZUTO

DECLARATION OF TONI PIZZUTO -1

Toni Pizzuto, a person over the age of eighteen (18), competent to testify and mindful of the penalties of perjury, being first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

- I am the younger sister of Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr., hereafter referred to as Jerry. Jerry 1. was born on January 11, 1956 and I was born on May 19, 1959. Our parents were Pam Pizzuto and Gerald R. Pizzuto, Sr.;
- 2. I was too young when we lived with my biological father to remember what that was like, but I do remember the years we lived with our stepfather, Bud Bartholomew;
- 3. My stepfather hated his Pizzuto stepchildren and he hated Jerry most of all because he had the same name as our biological dad and Jerry looked like our dad too;
- Bud Bartholomew abused all of his Pizzuto stepchildren. He abused us physically and 4. sexually. He started abusing me sexually when I was five years old. He would come into my bed at night (or Elsie's or Angie's or Jerry's) and tap me on the forehead with his flashlight. Sometimes he would have his hunting knife with him that he had sharpened earlier that day and would hold it to my throat to keep me quiet. He would force me to Return to Petition have intercourse with him, or oral sex, and sometimes anal sex. I can remember when I would go to bed at night I would pray that it wasn't going to be me he abused that night; 5. Bud Bartholomew beat all of us, except for his own children, Richard and Carrie
 - Bartholomew. They were always sent upstairs before we were beaten. He beat us with a horsewhip that was made out of leather but had a metal bar in the middle of it. We would have to pull down our pants and bend over and he would beat all of us on our butts and the backs of our legs until they would bleed; Return to Petition Page 5

- 6. After we were beaten we would bandage each other up so no one would see our scars. Then when we went to school the next day we wouldn't dress down for PE and we would get in trouble for not dressing down. Once when we were at St. Ann's School in Spokane, Washington someone from the school called a few times to try to talk to my mom about why we wouldn't dress for PE but soon after they started calling we moved to Chewelah, Washington;
- 7. Jerry didn't move with us to Chewelah. He had left home by then. The next time I saw Jerry was in Normal, Illinois. I ran away from home when I was fifteen and went to stay with my dad and stepmom in Normal. I'd been there for about six months when Jerry showed up. He had hitchhiked to Illinois. He and my dad fought a lot so he wasn't allowed to come over to the house but he would stop by my school when it got out and bum cigarettes and visit with me. He stayed in a shelter while he was in Normal and after a couple of months he left Normal and hitchhiked to Seattle, Washington;
- 8. I didn't see Jerry again until he got out of prison in Michigan. I was living in Choteau, Montana. My parents, Pam and Jerry Pizzuto, had married and were living there. He stayed with them some of the time but they treated him like he was just in the way so some of the time he stayed with me and my daughter. After three months or so he left Montana and hitchhiked to Washington;
- 9. Whenever Jerry traveled from place to place, he would hitchhike. I never saw him drive a car or a motorcycle and I don't think he knew how. As far as I know he never had a driver's license;

DECLARATION OF TONI PIZZUTO - 3

- 10. When Jerry wasn't in prison he usually stayed with a family member or in a shelter. He never had his own place. When he got married at age seventeen to Pam Merckley he lived in her house until they broke up. He never had the money to get a place of his own;
- 11. When Jerry was around ten my stepfather Bud forced him to deliver newspapers on his bicycle for a while but that is the only time I know of when Jerry had any kind of job;
- 12. To my knowledge, Jerry has never had a bank account;
- 13. There were a lot of things that Jerry couldn't do very well and he would constantly get in trouble from Bud for these things. He couldn't use a hammer; he would miss the nail or bend it but couldn't ever hammer a nail into the wood. He couldn't use a screwdriver or any other household tools. When we were young our stepfather Bud made us all chop wood. Even though all but Renee were younger than Jerry, all of us girls could chop wood just fine but Jerry couldn't do it. The ax would go sideways or he would miss the piece of wood or just nick it and pieces would fly out;
- Jerry has had a hard life and I think this is why he ended up in prison. But Jerry was a good brother and I will always be there for him.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

County of Alameda

AFFIDAVIT OF RENE RODEWALD

I, Rene Rodewald, a person over eighteen years of age and competent to testify, being duly sworn upon oath, deposes and states as follows:

 I am a sister of Gerald R. Pizzuto, Jr, [hereafter "Jerry"], formerly known as Rene Pizzuto.

2. During our childhood, I and my siblings suffered from frequent abuse, both physical and sexual, at the hands of our stepfather Bud Bartholomew.

3. My personal experiences of being molested by my stepfather include: being undressed and fondled at the age of seven, having my breasts sucked, having him insert his finger into my vagina and being forced to touch his penis; being taken out to the woods on a regular basis and forced to have vaginal and anal intercourse at the age of eight to nine and being given menstrual pads by my father so the blood resulting from his sexual abuse would not show; having my Return to Petition Page 4 stepfather come into my bedroom at night where he would molest me while my sisters were in the same room; being taken on rides alone with my stepfather and being molested in the car and forced to perform oral sex on him; being forced to take showers involving molestation with my stepfather on many occasions; being taken to the houses of several of my stepfather's friends, grown single men, and being left there for purposes of molestation or rape. This happened once in Reno, once with a grown man who was supposed to "babysit" us and once when my sister and I were left by our stepfather at a strange man's house overnight and were raped by him.

4. My siblings were also molested by my stepfather. Angle and Elsie were also made to take showers with him or go in the woods with him where they were also forced to have vaginal and anal intercourse with him.

5. My brother Jerry, the sibling who received the most physical abuse out of all of use, was also sexually abused. He would have to go on rides with Bud and would come home with his face all red from crying. He was also taken into the woods by Bud. Jerry told me that Bud would put his penis in Jerry's butt and squeeze his balls and suck on his penis really hard. One time I walked in on Jerry and Bud in the bathroom. Jerry was sitting in the tub crying and Bud was doing something to Jerry's penis.

6. Jerry would always try to keep our stepfather from taking us out of the house. He tried on many occasions to hit Bud, but Bud would backhand him or knock him down with one slap. Bud would frequently hit Jerry in the head with his fist. Jerry couldn't walk past him without getting kicked or hit in the head. I remember one occasion when Bud was outraged because one of the kids had eaten a piece of pie and no one would fess up to it. So Jerry got taken out to the garage and was beaten for it. He was beaten for a very long time and when it was over, he was unable to walk back into the house from the garage.

7. When we lived in Eureka, CA, I went to the police station and I tried to tell the cops about the abuse that was going on but they still made us go back home. I also remember having to go to court once with my sister Angie, and telling the court about the abuse, but they didn't do anything about it either. I don't remember where we went to court but I believe it was in Spokane or Seattle.

8. Our stepfather would not let us play outside the house with friends, or let us go to anyone else's house. He didn't want us to have friends at all. We also weren't allowed to do any sports or other extra-curricular activities at school. 9. When Jerry was six or seven he flipped off his bike and fell head first into a pile of rocks. He couldn't move and I had to run back to the house and get my mom. I don't remember what town we were living in at that time.

9. During the time of Jerry's trial I lived in Seattle, Washington. At that time I worked at a hospital as a cook. For part of my time there I worked as a prostitute. I was arrested for prostitution many times. I have now been clean for many years. I did take antidepressants for a few years but I no longer take them.

10. No one ever contacted me to see what information I had about Jerry or our childhood. I was never asked to testify at his trial.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed at Livermore, California, on April 28, 2006.

Describe what you observed In Jerry?

A Well, there was a point when I was about five 3 that I kind of went into what you would call shock, he tried 4 to come and get me to take me to the store and I wouldn't go, 5 I just did not want to be touched anymore, and he accused 6 Jerry of doing it and Jerry never touched us because that it 7 had gotten out and he had accused Jerry, Jerry wouldn't admit 8 to it so he started in on Jerry. He said that he could do 9 those things to him, too. Jerry, sometimes he would beat him 10 so bad that cometimes the sexual abuse that he received, Mon 11 used to tell us because he had infections, that's why he would 12 bleed down there, that's why he was bruised down there. Little 13 boys aren't supposed to wet the bed, you're not supposed to 14 15 do those things, that's why Bud was touching him there, to 16 help him stop wetting the bed. You can't imagine some of the 17 things that man did to us, I don't think anyone could.

18 Q Well, we can't imagine them unless you tell us;19 can you tell us?

30 Some of it. He used to force us into the shower Α 2) with him, he used to force us to take pides in the car with bim. 22 He tried when I was very young to physically have sex 23 with me, they threw that out of Court, they said there was no 24 way. I know I don't have children today because of it. I 25 fought concer nine years because of it.

SECOND DISTRICT COURT

The purpose of your being here today is to add 0 1 what you might know to that scenario; do you know the step-father 2 of these children? 3 A Yes, I do. 1 Nr. Barcholomew is his name? 0 õ Yes, I do know Bud Bartholomew. À 6 Have you had contact over the years, as these Q 7 children grew up with the family, that being your sister Pam 8 and her husband, Bud Bartholomew? 9 A Yes, I have. 10 Have you had occasions to spend time with that 11 0 family? 12 A Yes, I have; I've stayed with them and visited 13 with the family. 14 Q And your contact with the family, have you seen 15 cases where you felt the children of the Pizzuto family were 16 17 abused in any manner? A Yes, I've seen it, I saw Jerry physically. When 18 Jerry, I think he was five, wasn't in school, but we were out 19 I was visiting my sister and we were out in the yard and he 30 was welking really bowlegged and I said: "Jerry, what happened 21 to you, what's the matter with your legs?" And he couldn't 22 23 talk very well, but he might have been younger and he goes: 21 "bee sting, bee sting." And I said: "what bee sting?" And I 25 took his shorts down and I looked at him and his testicles were black and blue and they were swollen, and the end of his penis l 3 was bloody. Return to Petition Page 4 3 Q Did you question him about it further? 1 Α Yes, and I said: "what do you mean bee sting, 5 Jerry?" And he said: "bee did it, bee did it." And I said: ธ "a bee can't do that to you, Jerry; who did it?" And he said: 7 "no, no don't tell, don't tell, don't tell, Aunt Kibby, don't 8 tell." And I did, I told my sister and she said: "oh, that's 9 impossible, he got stung by a bee." And I said: "no, he 10 didn't, look at him." And we looked, and she said: "vell, j 11 maybe it was from the belt wrapping around his testicles when 12 Bud gave him a beating." And I said: "it looks like he was 13 molested." 14 Q Did your sister Pam, seem to show any sorrow 15 at this event? 16 A She did, mainly she showed fear and shame and 17 she kind of got angry at me for even mentioning it. 18 Q Did you see any other evidence or incidence that 19 would be abusive to the children? 20 A Yes; the incident I'm talking about, the first 21 one was when Jerry was small and I was visiting, if you for-22 give me, I need to tell about this. I was visiting them, my 23husband was looking for work and I had no money and my sister 24 had invited me to stay there. Well, that incidence had 25 occurred and I knew it was time for me to go, but I couldn't get ahold of my husband. And it was during the night, and Bud ł was just like an animal, just raging, and so I was in the room 2 and I heard all of the little kids in there, they were spending 3 the night and they were giggling and I could hear them giggle 4 and Bud came in and he said: "if you make another noise I will 5 beat you, I will beat all of you." And I had four children, n' but I had only three then, my two girls and my son were in 7 there. Well, immediately the Pizzuto kids were dead silent, В but my son kept giggling and the hair just stood up on end when 9 I heard it and he went in there and he started to beet all of 10 the kids, especially my son and the little ones were screaming. 11 And I went in there and I grabbed the belt out of Bud's hand 12 and I took it and I began to hit him with the belt, and I saids 13 Bud, don't you ever touch my kids again." And I grabbed my 34 kids and I had a Labrador, a beautiful dog and I had forgotten 15 it, I grabbed my kids and I left and I went down to the police 16 station and I told them what had happened and that I needed to 17 18 get a way home. They offered me money to help me get home because I left everything I had there in fear of myself. But 19 20 I remembered, I had forgotten my dog and I went back after the 21 dog and Bud had shot it. And so I left and I went home and 22 I called the authorities and they moved and I never heard of 23 those kids for years and we tried to find them and we couldn't. 24 And then we found them again in Spokane. When I went up there 25 the kids hed been cold that we hated them, that my mother hated

Angelinna Pizzuto, a person over the age of eighteen (18), competent to testify and mindful of the penalties of perjury, being first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

- I am the younger sister of Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr., hereafter referred to as Jerry. Jerry was born on January 11, 1956 and I was born on February 22, 1958. Our parents were Pam Pizzuto and Gerald R. Pizzuto, Sr.;
- We were really poor when we were children. When we lived with our mom and dad we didn't have very much money because my dad couldn't keep the same job for very long. My mom left my dad in 1960 and married our stepfather, Bud Bartholomew in 1961. We were still poor then because Bud never had a job. Sometimes my mother worked but she didn't make very much money;
- 3. Jerry and I grew up in a household where abuse was common. Our stepfather, Bud Bartholomew, abused us physically and sexually. Jerry and I got abused more than the other kids and Jerry had it the worst of all. Our stepfather would whip us with a Return to Petition Page 4 horsewhip on a regular basis. He would also hit us with his fists. He would hit Jerry around the head all the time, even if Jerry hadn't done anything wrong;
- 4. Bud Bartholomew abused us sexually by forcing us to have intercourse, anal sex and oral sex with him. He also had men over and would let them have sex with us for ten or twenty dollars, depending on what they wanted to do. Bud would take nude photos of us sometimes alone, sometimes in sexual positions with each other; Return to Petition Page 4
- 5. I can remember Jerry having seizures when we were little. Sometimes he would just stare into space and drool. Sometimes he would shake and I would hold him still while my sister Elsie would put a spoon into his mouth to hold his tongue down;

- 6. Jerry didn't play games as a child. We would sometimes play battleship on paper but Jerry never played that with us because he couldn't comprehend how the game worked, even though we tried to teach him how to play many times. He also had trouble with games at school. He couldn't play football or even tetherball because he didn't understand how to play;
- 7. Jerry was always the most immature of all our siblings even though he was the second oldest among us. When Jerry was eleven years old he acted like our stepbrother Richard Bartholomew who was six years younger than Jerry. My mother told me that Jerry didn't start talking until he was around twenty-nine months old. He couldn't talk very well and for many years he had a really bad stutter. He couldn't pronounce words correctly. He also couldn't read very well. Jerry and our sister Renee were both slow;
- 8. Jerry had trouble with potty training. He wet the bed as late as age nine and according to my mom, he wasn't potty trained until he was five years old; Return to Petition Page 9
- 9. Jerry was flunked at least once in grade school. He was in the sixth grade for the 1968-69 school year at St. Ann's School in Spokane and also in sixth grade at Spokane's Hamblen Elementary School during the 1969-70 school year. Elsie and I did almost all of his schoolwork for him but he still did really bad in school;
- 10. When Jerry was around thirteen years old he had a bicycle accident where he hit his head on a rock and cracked it open. He had to go to the hospital in Spokane and he was in the hospital for a few days;

11. Jerry dropped out of school after finishing ninth grade at age sixteen at a continuation school in Eureka, California. He went out to Illinois to live with our dad, Gerald Pizzuto, Senior, in Normal, Illinois. My dad tried to teach him how to do bodywork on cars, like pulling out bent fenders but Jerry couldn't learn how to do it. He enlisted in the army and never came back home.

DECLARATION OF ELSIE PIZZUTO-RADO	-1

Elsie Pizzuto-Rado, a person over the age of eighteen (18), competent to testify and mindful of the penalties of perjury, being first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

- I am the sister of Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr., hereafter referred to as Jerry. Jerry was born on January 11, 1956 and I was born eleven months later on December 16, 1956. Our parents were Pam Pizzuto and Gerald R. Pizzuto, Sr.;
- Our other siblings include Renee Parris, our half-sister from our mother's first marriage to David Parris, born on November 21, 1954, Angelinna "Angie" Pizzuto, born on February 22, 1958, and Toni Pizzuto, born on May 18, 1959. We also had two halfsiblings from my mother's marriage to Bud Bartholomew in 1961: Richard Bartholomew, born on November 27, 1961 and Carrie Bartholomew, born on December 17, 1965;
- 3. During my childhood we were very poor. From 1956 through 1960 we lived with our mother and father. Our father, Gerald, Sr. worked a lot. He sometimes had two or three jobs at a time and would frequently go out of town for jobs. He never made much money though;
- 4. In 1961 my mother married Bud Bartholomew. Our family was still very poor. Bud didn't work at all. My mother worked at diners and restaurants but she made even less than my father had. We were poor the whole time I lived with my family;
- 5. Bud Bartholomew abused me and my siblings throughout our childhood. He abused us both physically and sexually. He would sometimes use his fists, but more often he would line us up and hit us with a horsewhip. He would go down the line taking turns slapping us with the whip;

DECLARATION OF ELSIE PIZZUTO-RADO - 2

- 6. Jerry and Angie were abused the most out of all the Pizzuto siblings. Bud would beat Jerry until he was unconscious and then tell me to take care of Jerry. If Bud was looking for someone to beat, Jerry would put himself in Bud's path so he would get beaten instead of his sisters. Jerry was beaten the most out of all of us. Angle was beaten a lot too. I Return to Petition remember once Angie fell out of a second story window and Bud and my mom wouldn't Page 4 take her to the hospital because she had bruises on her face from a recent beating by Bud; 7. Bud Bartholomew also abused us sexually. He forced each of us to have sexual relations with him including intercourse, oral sex and anal sex. He would invite men over and let them have sex with us too - intercourse, oral and anal sex. He also took nude photos and videos of us, positioning us in sexual poses. He did this when he had people over and would take the photos and videos in front of his friends; Return to Petition Page 4
- When Jerry was in fifth grade, Bud threw him out of the house and told him he couldn't come back. Jerry stayed across the street in a field for days. He slept there on the ground. Eventually he was able to come back to the house;
- 9. My mother and Bud would go out of town a lot and I was the one who was left in charge of the other kids. Even though Renee and Jerry were older than I was, neither of them were capable of taking care of anything. My mother and Bud would leave for weeks at a time. We would have to go to the little convenience store close to our house and buy food with food stamps. When we would walk anywhere, I would hold Jerry's hand and Angie would hold Renee's hand and we would be in charge of them because they couldn't be trusted to walk on their own. They didn't know how to walk safely in the street and avoid cars or how to look both ways before crossing the street;

DECLARATION OF ELSIE PIZZUTO-RADO - 3

- 10. I often did things for Jerry that he just couldn't learn how to do. It took him a long time to learn to tie his shoes so I did that for him. When we were in grade school I often did his homework for him. Most of the time we were in the same class because Jerry had been held back. I'd do my homework first and then I would do Jerry's. Jerry couldn't even look things up in the dictionary and copy meanings when we had vocabulary homework. Either Angie or I would do that for him; Return to Petition Page 9
- 11. Even when he got older there were many thing Jerry couldn't do. He never got the concept of money. Anytime we went to the store Angie or I would have to pay and get change because Jerry didn't know how to handle money. He didn't bathe or clean his nails or things like that unless we told him too; Return to Petition Page 10
- 12. Jerry didn't know how to take care of himself very well. There were small things like not knowing to test your food to see if it was too hot or not, and not blowing on it to cool it down. And there were bigger things like being really careless on a bike. Jerry wasn't careful at all when riding a bike. Sometimes he would just fall off but once he hit his head on a rock and was hurt pretty badly. He had to go to Deaconess Hospital in Spokane and he was in the hospital for a few days;
 - 13. When we lived in Spokane we lived in a really bad part of town. This is the only time I can remember Jerry ever having a friend. There was a boy who lived across the street and Jerry and he would play together if Bud and my mom were out of town:

- 14. Jerry didn't have this friend for very long because we moved away. We moved around a lot during our childhoods. We lived in different residences in lots of different towns including: Mount Vernon, Colville, Maple Falls, Snohomish, Mead, Chewelah, and Spokane in Washington and Reno, Nevada;
- 15. When I was fifteen I went to the police station in Chewelah, Washington and told them I wasn't going back home. I was in foster care for awhile and then ran away. I never went back there.

TRANSCRIPTION OF EXAMINATION

OROFINO, IDAHO

1	(Beginning of audio file 3.)
2	BY MR. WORTHEN:
3	Qabout that. And so you're a year about
4	a year or
5	A. Eleven months younger than Jerry.
6	Q. Okay. You were talking about knowing at an
7	early age that you had to protect your siblings and
8	yourself, I assume.
9	A. Yes.
10	Q. Yeah. Tell me about what was happening
11	with especially with Jerry, but anything with Jerry
12	and
13	A. Well, there were many of us, and my parents
14	considered me the most capable, so I was generally put
15	in charge of anything and everything from cooking for
16	the family to cleaning to babysitting the children to
17	watching them to all kinds of tasks, and it never ended
18	until the day I left. My job was to take care of them.
19	And so my first reason that at four years old
20	I felt I have to protect them was my stepfather was new
21	to the household and had asked all of us to learn to tie
22	our shoes.
23	Q. Uh-huh.
24	A. And so my sister Renee, who's a year older
25	than Jerry, couldn't do it. She just was not capable.

39 107399

Γ

1	So I tied her shoes and was going to tie Jerry's shoes,
2	and he saw me do it and pretty much backhanded Jerry
3	across the room in front of my mother, and my mother
4	just didn't do anything about it. Return to Petition Page 4
5	And at four I thought I just remember that
6	very vivid memory. So my job was to protect them and to
7	do that. I felt like I was raised on alert all the
8	time. Return to Petition Page 5
9	Q. Okay. Return to Petition Page 7
10	A. And it didn't matter what time day or night,
11	so
12	Q. So you always had to be ready to protect
13	A. Yes.
14	Q yourself or them?
15	A. Ready to protect myself and them. And, again,
16	I felt my job was to protect them
17	Q. Okay.
18	A you know.
19	Q. They still got hurt?
20	A. Yeah, they did. Yes, they did.
21	Q. What was that like for you?
22	A. I bore a lot of guilt from that, because at
23	such a young age I took it so serious that I thought I
24	did something wrong, maybe something I shouldn't have
25	done, maybe something I should have done, and therefore

1 I couldn't keep all of them safe at the same time. 2 There were too many chickens in the nest, you know. Lucky if you keep somebody safe. 3 ο. And so he would preoccupy the main part of the 4 Α. group and drag one or two off and then bring them back 5 in various stages of abuse, even to the point that when 6 I was in sixth grade he delivered Jerry to me, and he 7 8 had been beaten basically from head to toe, and he was 9 convulsing, and told me to clean him up. 10 So my sister and I put him in the bathtub and 11 put cold water on him. And we didn't have enough 12 bandaids, so we tore an old sheet and wrapped him like a 13 mummy. That's just one. That's just a day in the life. 14 So, you know... Return to Petition Page 4 Return to Petition Page 5 15 And that was not unusual? 0. 16 Α. Not at all. 17 I mean, maybe the extent. Q. Okay. I don't know that people can really 18 Α. No. 19 understand that, you know, the daily, daily emotional torture, physical abuse, sexual abuse. He was just a 20 horrible predator and a really evil man, I feel, you 21 22 know. Return to Petition Page 6 23 Uh-huh. 0. 24 I saw it with clarity then just as much as I Α. 25 do now.

1	Q. Uh-huh.
2	A. But I'm okay from it, you know. Not of it,
3	but from it.
4	Q. What do you mean?
5	A. I mean, like it was it was just really,
6	really horrible to even be able to sleep and go to
7	school. I felt school was the only escape for me where
8	I could go be somebody, just be me and not have all that
9	responsibility.
10	Q. Uh-huh.
11	A. Yeah.
12	Q. Did you do well at school?
13	A. I did. I did fairly well.
14	Q. Okay.
15	A. You know. I did better in high school than I
16	did grade school. But my parents, a lot of times, kept
17	me home to manage the kids, the babies, that weren't in
18	school.
19	Q. Uh-huh.
20	A. So
21	Q. Okay. How did Jerry do in school?
22	A. He didn't he didn't do well at all. He
23	didn't do well at all. He always had poor grades and
24	had real serious attention problems. You know, he was
25	always acting up and acting out and fighting, you know.

1	I think that at a certain age Jerry thought
2	perhaps our father was because he was Italian might
3	have been somehow glorified as mafia in Jerry's mind,
4	even though it's not true. Jerry would be in the state
5	of mind that he had at that time, and even before, that
6	he didn't see things right in the first place. And so
7	Jerry, I believe, was sort of emulating that stigma,
8	that image, that he thought he had to be a tough guy,
9	you know.
10	So there's a lot of conflict for him. He
11	when I would have to task him or any of the other kids
12	out, you always paired him with someone else. For a
13	long time I paired him with Angelina. But Angelina is
14	pretty sneaky and just as deviant as Jerry. So
15	unfortunately that backfired a couple of times, and it
16	meant just more management on my part. Because if
17	anything under my guidance, anything was broken,
18	missing, whatever, not only did they get hell, but I got
19	double hell because of it.
20	So when I say I'm better now for it, maybe not
21	for it or maybe not of it, but I just know that that was
22	just a pure living hell that most people cannot even
23	imagine.
24	Q. Uh-huh.

25

A. If you've ever read or seen the movie Sybil,

39 107403

1	that was nothing compared to what we saw every day, day
2	in and day out, day in and day out, day in and day out,
3	day in and day out for years.
4	Q. Uh-huh.
5	A. And each one of us just reached a point of
6	maximum breakage and walked out the door, so
7	Q. Uh-huh.
8	A. You know.
9	Q. Uh-huh. It's interesting. Certainly one of
10	the concepts I have is that when you grow up in that
11	environment, for a while, anyway, it seems normal
12	A. Oh, it never did to me.
13	Q because you don't know okay.
14	A. I realize that most kids that I went to school
15	with didn't have bruises and weren't afraid. And, you
16	know, we had a different relationship where I really was
17	like the mother, you know.
18	Q. Uh-huh.
19	A. And so we learned and were told to keep our
20	mouths shut, you know.
21	Q. Uh-huh.
22	A. So you didn't you didn't integrate really
23	well, because you knew you weren't going to be staying
24	for one thing.
25	Q. Uh-huh.

Г

1	A. My parents moved and moved and moved and moved
2	and moved and used different last names. So yes,
3	Q. Why were they doing that; do you know? Petition Page 6
4	A. You know, in hindsight I believe they were
5	either in trouble with the law or maybe the
6	stepfather, he was he was a shyster kind of guy, and
7	he probably owed people money or that's the only
8	thing I can assume now, is, why would you do that, you
9	know? Unless you're hiding, you're running, you know.
10	And that was pretty frequent. And so we'd go
11	from one school to the next. My job was to register
12	everyone. We were all had to memorize the last
13	names.
14	"We didn't go to that last school. No. No.
15	We came from somewhere else."
16	Of course, they never had records, never had
17	records. Would send home notes, you know, notes to my
18	mom. And never respond, never respond. So, you know
19	Then we'd move. Then we'd go somewhere again,
20	you know, so
21	Q. From an early
22	A. It was just a real panicky situation that
23	wouldn't go away.
24	Q. And from an early age, I'm guessing. I'm just
25	looking.
23

Γ

1	A. Yeah, for as long as I can remember.
2	Q. Okay. What on earth was wrong with Bud?
3	A. Everything. He was a pedophile. He was a
4	very, very demented man. And he was brilliant,
5	brilliant. Like I'm not going to guess his I.Q., but he
6	was like a master manipulator. All different types of
7	people believed him. All he was just that kind of
8	guy. But we were terrified of him.
9	Q. So what was that like? I mean, you're growing
10	up in a house with a monster.
11	A. Yeah. You dreaded coming home.
12	Q. And people liked the monster.
13	A. Yeah.
14	Q. Including
15	A. It was a betrayal. It was a big betrayal, for
16	real, when you're a child, because you have nowhere to
17	go with that, you know, especially in those days. You
18	didn't talk about things like that then, you know.
19	Q. Uh-huh.
20	A. They didn't have open discussion for kids.
21	They didn't you know, none of that was there; none of
22	the internet, none of the you know, I've often
23	well, not often, but I've wondered how did he never get
24	caught.
25	Q. Yeah.

1	A. How did he never get caught?
2	Q. Wow.
3	A. You know.
4	Q. And that's got to go towards your feeling of
5	self worth. I mean, that
6	A. Yeah, it did for many years.
7	Q. Okay.
8	A. It really did. And
9	Q. I mean, for all of you.
10	A. Oh, yeah. In fact, for me, because I was like
11	the mother, it was really hard for me, because I I
12	I feel like it was easier for me to understand that that
13	was him and that was "hurt mom" being unable. Okay. I
14	felt that she was mentally ill just as bad as he was.
15	Q. Uh-huh.
16	A. They didn't understand that. None of them got
17	it. None of them got to that part.
18	Q. Uh-huh.
19	A. So, for me, from the time I was 15 and I left
20	home, I was like, okay, I'm done. You know, this is
21	never going to change.
22	And my biggest pain after that was worrying
23	about them and then starting to realize that I needed
24	help. And so I went to a lot of counseling, read a lot
25	of self-help.

1	Q. Uh-huh.
2	A. And I've always believed in God. And so in
3	retrospect, I think that God put me in that household,
4	you know. It made me very young and very aware, because
5	that's where I was needed most.
6	Q. Huh.
7	A. And I believe that the Lord knew that I was
8	going to get that I'd be okay, that I'd get through
9	it. You know, I'd be rewarded later in my life.
10	Q. Okay.
11	A. And so I felt like when I left home that I was
12	never going to let that ruin the rest of my life. That
13	was my first thing I thought, that I'm tough enough I
14	can do this. But it's not like that. It's very, very
15	difficult to overcome, you know, so many decades of
16	stuff, you know.
17	Q. Uh-huh.
18	A. And just the torture for me is watching my
19	siblings being abused, you know, just being the one to
20	have to bandaid them, to there was never anybody for
21	me, ever. I didn't cry in front of my brothers and
22	sisters. I didn't let them see that. I read them
23	stories. I sang to them. I did anything I could to try
24	and love them.
25	Q. Okay.

1	A. You know, I've stayed out of jail. That's a
2	conscious effort on my part, you know. And I'm lucky
3	that I have the intellect to understand those kind of
4	things.
5	Q. Uh-huh.
6	A. I don't believe my sister Angelina does. I
7	don't believe my brother Jerry does. I don't believe my
8	sister Tony does.
9	Q. Uh-huh.
10	A. They're not bad people. They don't have that
11	ability. That's I think it's a physiological thing.
12	Q. Okay.
13	A. I really do. I liken it to a dozen eggs. You
14	can go to the grocery store, and you can look at those
15	eggs, and they're perfect, every one of them, and
16	sometimes you get them home and one or two are cracked.
17	They might have even come from the same chicken, but you
18	don't know, you know. I think it's just a weakness in
19	the shell, genetics, something.
20	Q. Uh-huh.
21	A. I tend to believe it has more to do with that.
22	Q. Okay.
23	A. That I was lucky enough to have a couple of
24	good eggs in my head to get me through, you know.
25	Yeah, for real.

1	Q. Do you think also if I'm hearing you right,
2	and correct me obviously if I'm wrong you were
3	recognized by your parent, by Bud and by your mom, as
4	somebody they would give a little bit of a pass to
5	because you were taking
6	A. Right.
7	Q. You were
8	A. Right.
9	Q the designated one
10	A. The only pass, right, is because I was busy
11	covering for them doing everything that they should have
12	been doing.
13	Q. Uh-huh.
14	A. You know.
15	Q. Uh-huh.
16	A. So, yeah.
17	Q. Okay. So that insulated you a little bit?
18	A. Somewhat but not not completely. No.
19	Q. No. And
20	A. I went through everything they went through
21	and the beatings and the abuse, the sex abuse.
22	Q. Uh-huh.
23	A. You know, he was so manipulative and cunning
24	and so just deviant, his words. You know, people like
25	that, I believe they hone that over their life.

1	Q. Uh-huh.
2	A. And they they already must have some type
3	of ability for that, because he was just so manipulative
4	of everyone.
5	Q. Jerry you mentioned something about, you
6	know, Jerry. You didn't use the word "invented" but
7	this whole thing about the mafia
8	A. Yes, I believe that.
9	Q and being a tough guy.
10	A. Yeah, because when he was young he used to
11	think he was like, "When I grow up I'm going to be a
12	Don. Do you know what a Don is?"
13	Q. Uh-huh.
14	A. "Do you know what they do? Or maybe you're
15	going to be the guy that does the shooting. You're the
16	bad guy. You go out there, and you take care of
17	business."
18	You know, we're like, "No, this is not how it
19	is." He's not mafia. Yes, our lineage is somewhat
20	Italian.
21	But, you know, again, when you're speaking to
22	somebody that isn't going to be swayed because they
23	can't see the path before them, then okay.
24	Q. Uh-huh.
25	A. You know, but he did fantasize that. And he

1	wanted to be a boxer to impress our dad. Having not
2	grown up with him, he wanted to he built like this
3	imaginary thing of what he thought his father was.
4	Q. Huh.
5	A. First time I met him, and was pretty much sure
6	the same day that Jerry met him, he knocked on the door,
7	and I answered the door and didn't I he asked if
8	Pamela was there, my mother. And I said, "Yes. What's
9	your name?" And he said, "Jerry." And I said, "Okay.
10	Just a minute."
11	Shut the door in his face and said, "Mom,
12	somebody's here to see you." I didn't know who he was.
13	None of us knew who he was.
14	Q. Uh-huh.
15	A. And two days later she sent us with him to
16	move to Iowa. Perfect stranger, I mean, and he was not
17	anywhere capable of performing father duties in any way.
18	Q. Huh.
19	A. He just wasn't. And I saw that, too.
20	Q. Wow.
21	A. And even now he told you know, I stood up
22	to him a couple of different times and just had to
23	you know, I was in fifth grade. And I'm like, "You and
24	I need to go to the store. And you need to give me your
25	money. And I've got a list this big. And nobody else

1	can go. And guess what, buddy. You're going to do this
2	every week."
3	Q. Wow.
4	A. He didn't know how to cook. The wife didn't
5	know how to cook.
6	Q. Uh-huh.
7	A. And then you've got four kids all of a sudden,
8	so, you know
9	There, because I was the responsible one, I
10	knew what needed to be done. Did the same thing there.
11	Q. And you were in the fifth grade?
12	A. Yep.
13	Q. Wow.
14	A. I remember cooking and, honestly, literally,
15	standing in a chair with my mother doing remote-control
16	orders from the living room and being afraid that I was
17	going to fall and get hurt, you know, and get burned.
18	But that was one of my jobs; chief cook,
19	bottle washer, babysitter. You name it. "You're
20	staying home. We're going to go do something today.
21	You're going to stay with the babies."
22	Q. Wow.
23	A. I mean, I didn't go to kindergarten. You
24	know, I was lucky because my stepfather made us read
25	before we went to school, as much as he could. He

1	couldn't teach Jerry. Angie couldn't learn but a few
2	words. He taught me. He tried to teach Renee, and that
3	didn't work.
4	Q. Uh-huh.
5	A. So mostly he honed in on teaching me
6	Q. Okay.
7	A reading everything. And that's how I was
8	able to read to them, you know
9	Q. Okay.
10	A for comfort. But, yeah, he was just a
11	psycho-crazy man.
12	Q. Do you have any idea how that may have
13	affected Jerry and his future?
14	A. Oh, I know how it would have, because that man
15	would hit you for nothing. And I mean nothing. Drag us
16	all out to the barn, going to go hook up the milk
17	machines on the cows. We gotta help.
18	We'd go out there with him, and the next thing
19	you know, he grabs one of those tall metal milk cans
20	from back in the day and swung it around and dropped
21	Jerry until he was unconscious and then turned around Return to Petition Page 5
22	and was swinging it at my sisters and I. So we they
23	take off running. I try and get Jerry. He grabs me,
24	ties me up, and then takes and drags Jerry off.
25	Daily stuff. So it affected you. It affected

1	your sleep. It affected your attitude. I mean, holy
2	crap.
3	We would leave school, come home, and from a
4	night of beating, him beating us, and bruises in our
5	faces and things like this, we'd go to school the next
6	morning, and you'd come home from school, "Get in the
7	car. We're leaving."
8	Everything you knew was gone. All you had was
9	the clothes on your back. And you were going off
10	somewhere else, and the whole time you were being
11	drilled on what your new last names were.
12	Q. Wow. Return to Petition Page 6
13	A. Yeah.
14	Q. How often would something like that happen?
15	A. Oh, Jesus.
16	Q. And would it always be new last names, or
17	sometimes it would
18	A. Sometimes it was the same.
19	Q. Okay.
20	A. But a lot of last names. But just the
21	physical assault, abuse, was basically every day.
22	Q. Right.
23	A. Every day. He seemed to get big pleasure
24	lining us all up. And starting, he'd beat you with the
25	horsewhip once. Whack. Then through the group twice,

1	15, 16, 25. You're dropping on the floor unconscious at
2	that point. Return to Petition Page 5
3	Q. Huh.
4	A. Those are the kind of things that we lived
5	through.
6	Q. Okay. On a daily
7	A. Honest to God, I don't know how I'm able to
8	sit and just talk about it and not be so you know,
9	but because I pray, I really truly believe that I've
10	been some of that is just gone, you know. I mean, I
11	remember every bit of it.
12	Q. Uh-huh.
13	A. But I don't have to live with it.
14	Q. It's an interesting thing, because we know
15	like in posttraumatic stress disorder what happens is
16	you relive it.
17	A. Yeah.
18	Q. And that's part of
19	A. That's you know, it's odd, because my
20	siblings are there. They still, still want to speak
21	about it every single day. And Mr. Bartholomew did hit
22	us in the head a lot with a two-by-four, with whatever
23	he could grab, slap you, pull over the car and backhand
24	everybody, you know. And, I mean, Mom is sitting right

1	So you didn't argue with him. You didn't
2	you know, all I could do was try and outsmart him, you
3	know.
4	Q. Did it work?
5	A. Not always.
6	Q. No?
7	A. No.
8	Q. No.
9	A. But for my life and my choices I'm you
10	know, I'm not I'm not happy that that happened. And
11	you just you accept that that was your life. And it
12	doesn't mean that that has to be your future.
13	Q. Okay.
14	A. You know.
15	Q. Okay.
16	A. I mean, and that was really it for me, is like
17	can I am I going to carry these rocks around with me
18	forever? Am I going to have nightmares forever?
19	Q. Right.
20	A. You know, am I just going to just find peace?
21	And I found peace, and I'm lucky that I did.
22	Q. Okay. And I do want to talk to you about
23	that.
24	I worry about this, because I have a battery
25	in there right now.

1	А.	Okay.
2	Q.	Is there a place I can
3	А.	We can take a break, if you'd like.
4	Q.	plug it in?
5	A.	Because I can bring that yappy dog in, but
6	she's go	ing to be all over you.
7		(End of audio file 3.)
8		(Beginning of audio file 4.)
9	Q.	Obviously we're talking about Jerry.
10		When's the last time you saw him?
11	А.	2010 at the evidentiary hearing.
12	Q.	Okay. So you saw him in court?
13	А.	Yeah.
14	Q.	Okay.
15	A.	I didn't get a chance to visit with him then,
16	but
17	Q.	Did you get
18	A.	Some.
19	Q.	any kind of a hug or
20	A.	No.
21	Q.	So just you saw him
22	A.	No, he was in chains and the dogs, so
23	Q.	And you testified.
24	Α.	Yes.
25	Q.	And you had mentioned before, you know, you've

1 gone over a lot of this stuff. 2 Α. Yes. Clearly that was directed at the mental 3 ο. 4 retardation stuff and some of the things that -- what he was like as a child. 5 He didn't have a chance. Α. 6 Why do you think that? 7 ο. Α. Because it was just torture every day. 8 9 0. Okay. 10 You know, I watched this movie with Marlon Α. 11 Brando, and it was, you know, Vietnam. And they're 12 going off this river, and he goes crazy. And I can't 13 remember what it was called. But in the end they find 14 him, and he's just babbling to himself, and all he can 15 say is, "The horror. The horror." 16 ο. Uh-huh. 17 You know, and so I look at my brothers and Α. sisters, and I feel like they've been through horror 18 19 that most people couldn't survive. 20 0. Okay. Return to Petition Page 7 21 In everything I've read, you can be abused Α. 22 once and be traumatized for the rest of your life. 23 Of course. 0. 24 Well, how about you pile that up about a Α. thousandfold, you know. 25

1	Q. Okay.
2	A. 365 days a year. I'm thankful it only lasted
3	that long, because there's been thousands of days since
4	then that are good.
5	Q. Okay. So how long was that that you guys were
6	stuck with Bartholomew?
7	A. Probably from the time that I was three or
8	four to the time that I left home at 15.
9	Q. You left home at 15?
10	A. Uh-huh.
11	Q. That must have taken a lot.
12	A. Well, it was just a threshold thing, you know.
13	I couldn't do it anymore. And at the time I was working
14	and supporting myself anyway, so it was and had a
15	not a family friend but a friend who had a family that
16	sort of took me in and helped.
17	Q. Was Jerry still at home?
18	A. No.
19	Q. Okay.
20	A. Not back then.
21	Q. Okay.
22	A. Jerry left when he was in sixth grade.
23	Q. Do you know where he went? Or
24	A. He went, first, to Morning Star Boy's Ranch in
25	Spokane. And then from there he went with my dad. And

1 that was, I'm going to say, '68 or '69. Maybe a little 2 bit after that. But yeah. Do you know what it was like for him 3 ο. Okay. 4 with your dad? No, I don't, because I didn't know my dad 5 Α. really at all. And Jerry was the only one that went, 6 and so the rest of us were still at home. 7 8 You mentioned this thing about the whole mafia 0. thing and, you know, the --9 10 Yeah, how he fantasized in his mind about Α. 11 that, I believe. 12 Going to be a tough guy. 0. 13 Uh-huh. Α. 14 Do you think that a lot of that had to do with 0. the fact that he was so abused? 15 16 Α. Yes, I do. 17 Q. Okay. 18 Α. I absolutely do. 19 Okay. So he's creating something in his mind Q. about --20 21 I believe, yes. Α. 22 ο. -- who he's going to be? 23 Yes, who he's going to be and then the Α. 24 And because he's not able to discern, you fantasy. know, it's just -- his view of our dad before he really 25

1 knew him was that he was this Italian tough guy that, 2 you know, was an awesome kind of thing, so... Was he ever able to fight back against 3 ο. Okay. 4 Bud? I'm sure physically he would have tried, yeah. 5 Α. Did you ever see it? Q. 6 He sequestered. 7 Α. 8 0. Okay. 9 Α. He sequestered the victim basically and then came back with pretty much a lifeless body that was 10 11 alive but not moving, and so... 12 Uh-huh. So you guys would be one place, for 0. 13 example, and then he takes Jerry? 14 Α. Something would happen. Not just Jerry. He would do things between -- you know, we'd move to a new 15 16 place, and then maybe one night he would abuse Angelina, 17 and she'd be all beat up. And the next day we'd go to school, and that would start people talking, you know. 18 19 And then a couple of days later they'd notice it was Jerry. And then a couple days later, you know -- - or 20 21 however much time. That's not completely accurate, but 22 that's the idea. 23 Then they'd pull one of us aside. And then, 24 of course, we were so terrified of him that, of course, we told Mom. And then, boom, we'd be gone. 25

Ι
1	Q. Okay.
2	A. We'd be gone.
3	Q. Because questions were being raised
4	A. Sure.
5	Q about your
6	A. Yeah, at school.
7	Q. Okay.
8	A. And that was it, you know.
9	Q. Okay.
10	A. And so, again, you didn't make close friends.
11	You didn't do that because you knew you were going to be
12	gone. Return to Petition Page 6
13	Q. Okay. I also assume that you were afraid that
14	people would find out?
15	A. Well, you know, people didn't believe it. My
16	mother one time
17	(Speaking to the dog:)
18	Daisy.
19	(Examination continues.)
20	My mother one time took us to a doctor. I was
21	in the second grade. It was a male, and he examined all
22	of us girls and said, "Nothing's wrong with them." And
23	my mother was standing there, "But they're saying this."
24	And he turned to me and Renee and said, "You are just
25	nasty little girls to be saying those kind of things."

1	So you don't say anything, and you hope nobody
2	knows, but you grow up thinking that everybody knows.
3	Q. Uh-huh. Uh-huh.
4	A. But you have a stigma because of it, you know.
5	Q. Uh-huh.
6	A. So you don't tell a lot of people.
7	Q. Right. Okay. What I was getting at, I think,
8	with like with Bartholomew is, Jerry never carried
9	his lifeless Bartholomew's lifeless body
10	A. No.
11	Q back?
12	A. No.
13	Q. Okay. So you never saw any indication that he
14	wasn't able
15	A. Angie. I saw Angie stabbing at him. I saw
16	Angie put rat poison in a cup of coffee and give it to
17	him.
18	Q. Huh.
19	A. Angie tried.
20	Q. Uh-huh. Okay.
21	A. She was very defiant. If he was lining us up
22	for beatings, she'd say, "I did it. You're not going to
23	hurt me. You're not going to make me cry."
24	Q. Huh.
25	A. Beat the snot out of her until she was

1	unconscious, and not one tear would roll off. Not one.
2	Q. Wow.
3	A. But Angie went away in her mind, and that's
4	the way I feel about Jerry and my sister Tony.
5	Q. That they were
6	A. And right away
7	Q. Okay.
8	A they were gone. They snapped a long time
9	ago. And I used to think that. I used to think more
10	that it was the environment and everything that we went
11	through and all that for so long.
12	You hear about veterans that go off to war.
13	Well, we were veterans when we were ten years old.
14	Q. Uh-huh. Return to Petition Page 7
15	A. You know.
16	Q. Uh-huh.
17	A. So it kept happening until you really
18	physically get to leave. So I I thought about that
19	for years, you know, and how that impacts each one of
20	them now 20, 30 years later, 40 years later still.
21	(Speaking to the dog:)
22	Daisy, no. Come here. Get over here.
23	Q. Go over there. No, I'm not going to help you
24	out. No.
25	(Examination continues.)

1	Yeah. No, you had a rough life, obviously.
2	(Speaking to the dog:)
3	A. Get over here.
4	(Examination continues.)
5	Q. A very rough life.
6	(Speaking to the dog:)
7	A. Sit down.
8	(Examination continues.)
9	Bud liked to pick on Angie and Jerry. Bud
10	liked to sequester them and harm them the most.
11	Q. Do you know why?
12	A. I always thought for Angie because and he
13	would say it, that Angie and Jerry looked more like our
14	dad. And he hated our dad.
15	(Speaking to the dog:)
16	Stop.
17	(Examination continues.)
18	We were not allowed to say his name. You were
19	not allowed to acknowledge the last name or anything
20	like that.
21	Q. Wow.
22	A. So
23	Q. And I would imagine Jerry being named after
24	his dad, that can't help.
25	A. After him, yeah. Again, he didn't have a

1	chance.
2	(Speaking to the dog:)
3	Stop. No. You go to your spot. Go on. No.
4	Q. I'm not your spot.
5	A. Daisy, get over here.
6	Q. Go there you go.
7	A. Lay down. Stay. I'm going to have to get a
8	squirt bottle.
9	(Examination continues.)
10	Q. You mentioned he would let's keep it on
11	let's talk about Jerry.
12	So he brings Jerry's lifeless body back one of
13	these times?
14	A. Yeah.
15	Q. The time that you guys had to bandage him up?
16	Is there any talk going on about what's going on there?
17	Or was it
18	A. It was between us kids, because my mom's gone.
19	She worked two jobs most of the time and was gone.
20	Q. Okay.
21	A. And so Bud would abuse, and then he would
22	bring the kid back. Or they kept running in by
23	themselves, if they were able. They'd be pretty beat
24	up.

Г

1	A. And he'd leave.
2	Q. Okay.
3	A. And then he'd go to get her, take her to
4	dinner, and they'd be gone for hours.
5	Q. Uh-huh. How would I mean, would you talk
6	to Jerry about what had happened? Or was it just
7	something that you guys
8	A. We knew what it was.
9	Q. Okay.
10	A. We knew what it was.
11	Q. So you're not talking to him. You're not
12	A. No. We're just telling him it's okay.
13	Q. Okay.
14	A. "You're going to be okay. It's going to be
15	okay."
16	Q. Okay.
17	A. You know. I don't know the only thing I
18	knew to do, and I don't even know how I knew it, was
19	we'd put like all we could find was like Vaseline to
20	put over open wounds and across your back and the back
21	of your legs.
22	Q. Uh-huh.
23	A. And put that on there and then hold the sheet,
24	tear it up, and try to wrap it, because it's you
25	know, it's all I don't know where that came from,

1	but, you know, "We're going to mummy you, Jerry. It's
2	going to be all right. Really."
3	Q. Okay. Would he be crying?
4	A. Yeah.
5	Q. Okay.
6	A. Yeah. We all you know, we'd just hold him.
7	I'd hold him.
8	Q. The Evel Knievel stunt.
9	A. Yeah.
10	Q. What do you remember about that?
11	A. I remember we may have done it in Spokane, but
12	not on the east side, on south hill. And I just
13	remember him and commotion going on and the neighbor
14	coming to the door or something and going out. And he's
15	like kind of sitting down. And this guy was a doctor.
16	Q. Uh-huh.
17	A. And he was like, "Get ahold of your parents."
18	So I got ahold of Mom, and she came home. And Jerry
19	I don't I don't recall taking him to the hospital. I
20	just remember her like, you know, kind of looking at him
21	and saying, "Well, he's going to be all right."
22	But then he had a real problem seeing. He
23	couldn't see well. I mean, he was fine before that.
24	But it seems like afterwards, at some point she did take
25	him in.

1	And I just know that when Bud would go too far
2	like that, he'd stay gone. You know, he'd come home at
3	night, but he'd stay gone. He'd check out basically.
4	Q. Uh-huh.
5	A. And so
6	Q. What do you mean Bud would go
7	A. I mean, if he if he were to hurt one of us
8	or something bad would happen, if it had anything to do
9	with him or he thought it would draw attention, then he
10	would just be gone for hours and hours.
11	Q. So even though Jerry had like crashed his
12	bike
13	A. Yeah. Yeah.
14	Q he would stay gone?
15	A. They didn't take us to the hospital when we
16	got hurt. One time Angie fell off a second floor
17	outside the window. Dropped.
18	They came home. She was crying. I had to
19	call them. You know, "Come get her. There's something
20	wrong. She fell."
21	They didn't take her to the hospital that day,
22	but they did the next day, because she couldn't get out
23	of bed.
24	Q. Wow.
25	A. Yeah.

1	Q. Okay. Jerry crashing his bike
2	A. He used cardboard and what do you call
3	them? A sawhorse.
4	Q. Really?
5	A. Yeah.
6	Q. Okay. How injured was he; do you recall?
7	A. I just remember he had a big goose egg on the
8	front of his head.
9	Q. Okay.
10	A. I remember him crying. And it's really it
11	was really big, you know.
12	Q. Okay.
13	A. And just the doctor scared me more than
14	anything, you know. Because he was bleeding. "Call
15	your parents. Call your parents."
16	Q. Okay. So the doctor was worried?
17	A. Yeah, it was the doctor. I thought it was, I
18	want to say, Nishimura (phonetic) or something.
19	Nakamarra (phonetic), something like that.
20	Q. Uh-huh.
21	A. Ishimura (phonetic). Something.
22	Q. Okay.
23	A. But he I don't know if he was next door or
24	maybe two houses away.
25	Q. On that same block?

1	A. Yeah, on the same street.
2	Q. Okay. Uh-huh.
3	A. Yeah.
4	Q. Yeah.
5	A. Jerry was always doing daredevil stuff like
6	that, even when he was younger.
7	Prior to that, we lived in Eureka, California,
8	and we had like the forest behind where we lived.
9	Q. Uh-huh.
10	A. And so we'd go back there and be swinging off
11	of ropes on the redwoods and crashing and rolling. I
12	mean, we all did it. We all did stupid stuff like that.
13	But Jerry was like he's going to be the one, you
14	know. He's going to be the one to go so far he's going
15	to hit that tree, you know.
16	Q. Oh, wow.
17	A. Yeah.
18	Q. Okay. You said the goose egg. And Jerry was
19	bleeding?
20	A. Bleeding, yeah.
21	Q. Okay. Did he change after that? Was he
22	different?
23	A. You know, it wasn't too long after that where
24	he was gone. But I know this. One of my cousins came
25	to stay with us a little bit after that, and he was into

1	drugs.
2	Q. Uh-huh.
3	A. And I remember shortly after that Jerry told
4	me that this guy, our cousin, had shot him up with a
5	needle with crystal methedrine. We didn't know what
6	that was. And I was like, "What?"
7	Jerry started going and he was like in 7th
8	grade. He started just leaving and going downtown and
9	not coming back and, you know, just being gone.
10	Q. Uh-huh.
11	A. And so there were changes, but I don't know if
12	it was attributable to that or if it was just the age.
13	The scenery that was going on at that time, everything
14	was love, peace, and, you know, that kind of stuff, and
15	psychedelic drugs.
16	Q. Uh-huh.
17	A. And yeah. No, my mom had thought he had gone
18	evil because he was listening to Cream in his room, you
19	know, and Iron Butterfly kind of stuff.
20	Q. Right.
21	A. So okay. Yeah. And she also thought he
22	hallucinated with marijuana. So, you know
23	Q. Uh-huh.
24	A. But, yeah, Jerry started acting out after
25	that. Then again, I can't be sure.

1	Q. Okay.
2	A. But not of what it was attributed to. He did
3	be gone a lot after that and was getting in trouble.
4	Q. Okay.
5	A. And my mom and stepdad were going to find him.
6	Q. Uh-huh.
7	A. And issues were happening, you know.
8	Q. Was he different around you?
9	A. You know, he he was always pretty quiet
10	around me.
11	Q. Uh-huh.
12	A. He knew that I was in charge. And one word
13	from me and he was going to be in big trouble kind of
14	stuff, you know. So he pretty much would just not say a
15	lot, you know. He was racist.
16	Q. Uh-huh.
17	A. Even like in fifth grade, fourth grade, we
18	moved to a place where it was black and white, you know,
19	east of Spocompton, okay. For real. And that's what it
20	was like back in that day.
21	Q. Uh-huh.
22	A. I remember him being real aggressive. But I
23	remember the first day we went to school, us girls got
24	shoved around on the playground by black girls.
25	Q. Uh-huh.

1	A. So it was on for everybody, you know. But
2	Jerry seemed to like to fight. And we lived on a street
3	where our neighbors were gypsies.
4	Q. Uh-huh.
5	A. And then on the street going towards
6	Saint Ann's, the school, there were blacks like two
7	blocks away.
8	Q. Uh-huh.
9	A. So our neighborhood was from here to here.
10	Jerry would often be waiting on the fringe, on the edge,
11	trying to start shit. Yeah.
12	Q. Wow.
13	A. He and another neighbor boy that lived across
14	the street would do that kind of stuff.
15	Q. Okay.
16	A. I remember him being sneaky and having to
17	watch him and having to watch Angie, and they would get
18	in trouble and do stuff. And I'd be like, "Really?"
19	you know. Because, again, I would be in trouble for it.
20	Q. Uh-huh.
21	A. So whatever it was.
22	Q. Uh-huh. I always wonder about something like
23	that where somebody is being abused so severely at home
24	and needs to take it out on somebody else. I mean,
25	there's a pecking order.

1	A. Oh, yeah. There was. In fact, I used to hit
2	my brothers and sisters.
3	Q. Uh-huh.
4	A. I'm not proud of that.
5	Q. Uh-huh.
6	A. But I did to get them to do what I wanted them
7	to do. Because if they didn't do it, then I was going
8	to get the shit beat out of me, you know.
9	Q. Uh-huh.
10	A. And my husband and I were talking about this a
11	couple of years ago. And I said, you know, you'd learn
12	to hit. You learn to hit if you're hit. You learn to
13	kick if, you know, you're kicked.
14	And so I told him my it was a hard
15	realization for me. It made moments in my life to just
16	turn a page and be over it, you know, and those kind of
17	things, and realizing, you know, and accepting that
18	you're not bad, you know.
19	Q. Uh-huh.
20	A. But times were really extraordinary.
21	Q. Well, I only do know that abusive people
22	who were abused because
23	A. Intent. Yeah, it's intent.
24	Q. They can, yeah.
25	Did you see Jerry when he went to prison in

1 Michigan? 2 Α. No. Did you -- because I know he got in 3 ο. Okav. some trouble in Washington. 4 You know, he got in trouble in Washington, but 5 Α. I was living in Alaska by then. 6 7 Q. Okay. I mean, he got in trouble in Michigan. It was 8 Α. 9 shortly after he had stayed with my dad and then left 10 there with his girlfriend, and off he went. And I'm in 11 Alaska. And the next thing I hear, he's in prison, you 12 know. Wow. 13 Q. Okay. 14 Then I -- it's peculiar, because I was in Α. 15 Seattle. I had a surgery, and I was going to fly home 16 to Juneau, and I got stopped at the airport with the FBI 17 holding me up me and not letting me get on my flight yet 18 because they were looking for Jerry. 19 Q. Oh, wow. And I was like, "I have no -- I haven't seen 20 Α. 21 him since 1974." And they -- you know, at first they 22 didn't believe me. And I was like, "Hey, I'm not here 23 for him." 24 And apparently he was in Seattle, and I was at Swedish Hospital or Virginia Mason, one of the two. 25

1	Q. Uh-huh.
2	A. Yeah. And, honestly, I'm like, "What? I
3	haven't seen him. And I really don't know where he is.
4	Honestly, you know."
5	Q. Okay.
6	A. He has my address, because I had written to
7	him when he was in prison. And, you know
8	Q. Uh-huh.
9	A. But, no, never saw any of that. Luckily I was
10	away from way away from the fool by then.
11	(Speaking to the dog:)
12	No. Hey, no. Go. Go to your spot.
13	She's like, "I'm going to get in that chair."
14	Yeah.
15	(Examination continues.)
16	Q. What about after he went to prison here in
17	Idaho?
18	A. I didn't see him until 2008.
19	Q. Really?
20	A. Yeah, from '74 to 2008.
21	Q. Okay.
22	A. I mean, when I moved to Alaska, I pretty much
23	got the hell away from my family.
24	Q. As far as you could.
25	A. Because I thought they was all crazy.

1	Q. Right.
2	A. The only chance I was ever going to get was
3	try and work it out with myself, you know.
4	Q. Uh-huh.
5	A. And I had been married and left my husband and
6	took my four-year-old and went to Alaska. Never
7	regretted it.
8	Q. You saw him in 2008?
9	A. Yep.
10	Q. Okay. What was that like? That was
11	A. It was really difficult for me.
12	Q. Court was far more recent than that.
13	A. Pardon me?
14	Q. Court was more recent.
15	A. Court? No, court was in 2010.
16	Q. Right.
17	A. That was an evidentiary hearing, because
18	that's when we had moved up here. Just barely.
19	Q. Okay. So 2008.
20	A. Was the first time since 1974.
21	Q. Okay. What was that like?
22	A. Really difficult.
23	Q. Why?
24	A. Oh, man, it just brings it brought
25	everything back.

1	Q. Uh-huh.
2	A. You know, I look when I first saw him I
3	thought, I would not recognize him if he knocked on my
4	door. It took me a long time to I just kept looking
5	at him thinking, is this Jerry, really? It sounds like
6	him. But, you know, then I think he took his glasses
7	off or something and then gave me looked at me, and
8	then it hit me, you know. And I had a really difficult
9	time.
10	Q. Huh.
11	A. It was very hard. And I had maintained my
12	composure while I was there. But the minute I got
13	outside I just went bananas.
14	Q. Oh, wow.
15	A. And my husband didn't he's not he's a
16	corrections officer himself, and he just can't grasp
17	that. I mean, he wasn't then and never had been, you
18	know, prior to that. So we wound getting into a little
19	pissing match ourselves, a little discussion, where I
20	got out of the car and decided I was going to walk a
21	little bit and have a few cigarettes whether he liked it
22	or not. Because he doesn't smoke.
23	Q. Uh-huh.
24	A. And so it was very, very, very torturous.
25	Q. Wow.

1	A. Because of the questions that were asked.
2	And, you know, you have to they just ask such
3	intimately personal stuff. But I felt it was important,
4	you know. And I've never lied about my past. I just
5	feel it's
6	Q. Uh-huh.
7	A. It's really private, you know. Most people
8	think that, oh, well, if you were abused you must be a
9	child abuser yourself, you know.
10	I mean, they really do think that. There's
11	always a stigma between
12	Q. Uh-huh.
13	A behind things like that.
14	And so it was just the first time seeing
15	Jerry in that many years was really difficult.
16	Q. Okay.
17	A. Because the time prior to that when I had seen
18	him was in Illinois. Normal Bloomington-Normal,
19	Illinois in 1974. And he was packing a .38 special and
20	hanging out with some ex-convicts.
21	Q. Huh.
22	A. And it was like, "Jerry, what are you doing?
23	What are you doing?"
24	Well, here he was a perpetual tough guy, okay?
25	So when I left Illinois, shortly after that he

1	wound up in Michigan.
2	Q. Okay. Okay.
3	A. I was never party to any of the proceedings
4	that went on in Idaho, as far as his court, his trial,
5	any of that kind of stuff.
6	Q. Uh-huh.
7	A. I was out of it.
8	Q. Nobody ever talked to you about what your
9	childhood was like?
10	A. Not until before the evidentiary hearing.
11	Q. Probably
12	A. I mean, other than in personal counseling,
13	that sort of thing, no.
14	Q. Uh-huh. Okay. So nobody like none of his
15	trial people talked to you about what it was like for
16	him?
17	A. They told me what I would expect. And we
18	talked a little bit about this was with what were
19	their names? The two. Weinstein and I want to say
20	Sitton or Sutton. Dr. Joseph, I want to say, Sitton.
21	They interviewed me down there for a couple of
22	days at different times.
23	Q. For the evidentiary hearing?
24	A. Right.
25	Q. Right. Not for trial.

1	A. No.
2	Q. Okay.
3	A. No, none of that.
4	Q. Okay.
5	A. No.
6	Q. Okay.
7	A. He had long been sentenced.
8	Q. Right.
9	A. In fact, I really I just was out of it.
10	Q. Uh-huh.
11	A. I was in Alaska.
12	Q. Uh-huh.
13	A. And I wasn't interested in coming down to see
14	the spectacle. And I'm not the
15	Q. Right.
16	A. I don't want to be a part of it. Thank you
17	very much.
18	Q. No.
19	A. I had enough harassment just being in Alaska
20	with people that knew.
21	Q. Wow.
22	A. You know, the state troopers there, for
23	example. My ex-husband and I went in there. And this
24	was jeez, it had to be almost 30 years ago. He had a
25	boat, and we had to get new tags for his boat. And we

1	went in there. And, you know, we were married. And the
2	one state trooper said, in front of me and him, "Do you
3	know who you are married to? Do you know that her
4	brother is a death row murderer?" in front of everyone,
5	you know. And I'm like, wow, that's nice.
6	So my husband said, "Well, absolutely I know
7	her, and I know her brother. Mainly if you're as smart
8	as you think you are, you probably shouldn't say that
9	kind of stuff around her."
10	Q. Uh-huh.
11	A. You know.
12	Q. Huh, nuts.
13	A. And the guy was like, "Oh, no. Is that a
14	threat?" You know, and it was like, oh, yeah, really.
15	And then when I worked at the Department of
16	Labor up there, a gentleman that worked in
17	cybersecurity I came down the hallway one time or
18	came down the stairway, and he cornered me and told me,
19	"I know who your F'ing brother is. And you know what?
20	You'd better watch your shit, bitch." And I was like,
21	"And who are you?"
22	Q. Right.
23	A. You know, really.
24	Q. Man.
25	A. You know, I've never said I'm not my brother's

1 keeper, okay? 2 Q. Right. 3 A. Because I was. 4 Q. Uh-huh. Yeah. When you saw Jerry in 2008, 5 you remember what you talked about, or 6 A. You know, Jerry, he likes to talk about thin 7 like he's a tough guy. Like, he brags. Like, it's 8 always the same kind of banter. He did say something 9 me that I thought was peculiar, because I on a 10 personal level, for a long time I couldn't understand 11 how we could be raised in the same egg carton and he'd 12 be that way and I'm not. 13 Q. Uh-huh. 14 A. I knew he didn't have the smarts that I do, 15 but I didn't think that he had that, you know. The red 16 of my family didn't believe he did it, but I just knew

18 Q. Uh-huh.
19 A. He's the kind of man that if something
20 happened there, he just went (makes sound). Gone, you
21 know.
22 Q. Yeah.
23 A. And so that's hard to try and justify that.
24 But I pray for him. And, you know, there's nothing I
25 can do.

1	Q. Okay.
2	A. Nothing.
3	Q. Uh-huh. You said there was something that he
4	said that
5	A. He said that in fact, when I had seen him
6	in 2008 on the first day, my husband said something
7	something along the line, and I don't know, like a claim
8	like, Are you sorry? Or something. Or he didn't say
9	those words.
10	But he said, "Well, what are you thinking?
11	You know, how long have you been here? And, wow, what
12	do you think of that?"
13	And when we were getting ready to leave, sort
14	of had a little bit of a conversation like that, and
15	then he said, "You don't know how bad I wish I could go
16	out that door with you."
17	He said, "I have regrets in my life." And I
18	said, "We all do, Jerry. You know, we all do."
19	Q. Uh-huh.
20	A. And I kept it together, you know, until we
21	went outside.
22	Q. Okay. So he was
23	A. I wanted to scream. I mean, I just wanted to
24	just explode for a minute or two, you know, but you
25	don't.

Q. How so? What do you mean? 1 2 Just the hurt. Seeing Jerry like that. So it Α. made me feel like -- again, he did not have a chance. 3 No matter what he did, it wasn't right. 4 Mr. Bartholomew was on him. No matter rank, 5 no matter how hard, no matter what, he never had a 6 chance to ever just even learn to believe in himself or 7 8 to find out who he was, you know. 9 0. Uh-huh. And so seeing him, I just felt all this 10 Α. 11 terrible anger, because he never got help. We never got 12 help. Okay, you know, I survived. He didn't. 13 I don't -- and, honestly, he's probably the 14 worst affected. And Angelina, too, you know. Angelina 15 has been a hair away from being in prison herself. 16 ο. Uh-huh. 17 And her behaviors and her understandings, and Α. I don't -- I really don't communicate with her. 18 19 Q. Uh-huh. 20 Α. You know, he said he has regrets, and I 21 thought that's pretty profound. And I thought, okay. 22 And, you know, I told my husband at the time it bothered 23 me for so long for so many years when I was a young 24 woman that they all turned out all screwed up, and I thought it was my fault, part of it, you know. 25

1	Q. Right.
2	A. Because I didn't do something right.
3	Q. Uh-huh.
4	A. So, well
5	Q. Uh-huh.
6	A. And then seeing Jerry brought back all those
7	years. I didn't write. I didn't call. I didn't want
8	to go see him. I didn't want to you know, I just
9	don't want to be part of the drama in the family.
10	Q. Uh-huh.
11	A. I disagree with almost every family member; my
12	father, my mother, all of it, you know. I never
13	attacked my mother over it. I confronted her and asked
14	her to say two words, "I'm sorry."
15	Q. Uh-huh.
16	A. Couldn't do that. Swore me off 30 years ago.
17	Whatever, you know.
18	Q. Wow.
19	A. And because she did, he did.
20	Q. Uh-huh.
21	A. So she died two or three years ago, three
22	years ago, and now we're getting to know each other.
23	Q. Uh-huh.
24	A. You know. And, again, I didn't like him when
25	I was a kid. You know, I feel that's none of my duty, because I don't owe him anything, you know. 1 But it's a 2 decent thing to do --3 0. Right. Α. -- to try and help him, so... 4 5 0. Right. Jerry I couldn't help. Α. 6 7 Right. Q. 8 Α. Seeing Jerry like that made me feel rage 9 against Bud, rage against all those times when somebody 10 should have believed and somebody should have stepped up 11 and helped us. 12 0. Uh-huh. 13 It's not like we didn't ask for it, because we Α. 14 did. 15 Uh-huh. Q. 16 It's just nobody believed you when you were a Α. 17 child, you know. Return to Petition Page 7 18 0. Right. 19 You just --Α. 20 0. Wow. 21 You're stigmatized. Α. Back in the day, especially. 22 Q. Yeah. Yeah. 23 Can we take a little break? Α. 24 Of course. Q. Can we take a little break? I'd love to have 25 Α.

1	a cigarette.
2	Q. Okay.
3	A. I'm sorry. You know
4	(End of audio file 4.)
5	(Beginning of audio file 5.)
6	Q. When we took that break and it always
7	happens. I turn the camera off, and then you start
8	talking about
9	A. And something else will come up.
10	Q something I want to hear.
11	So you mentioned when you saw Jerry you
12	noticed that he had not grown.
13	A. He hadn't grown emotionally at all.
14	Q. Okay.
15	A. To me, he was like a sixth-grader. He
16	frequently talks about writing things, you know, or he's
17	a tough guy, he's a leader, he's
18	Q. Uh-huh.
19	A. You know, it's the same kind of thing that
20	he's been saying all along. And I haven't seen him in
21	so many years that it struck me.
22	Q. Really?
23	A. Yeah. Yeah. And, again, I would not have
24	recognized him he looked so very different to me, you
25	know.

Physically aged? 1 Q. How so? 2 Α. His --3 0. Or... 4 His -- well, he never -- he used to be really Α. 5 thin. 6 Q. Yeah. 7 Really thin. And he was quite a bit heavier. Α. 8 0. Uh-huh. 9 His face was real puffy. He didn't look puffy Α. 10 Had big square glasses on. And just, honestly, at all. 11 if he would have knocked on my door I wouldn't have 12 known who he was. 13 Q. Okay. 14 The last time I saw him I believe he was maybe Α. 15 Maybe 19 even. 18. 16 ο. Uh-huh. 17 Α. You know. Okay. And then when you saw him --18 0. 19 When I saw him, the last time I saw him, I was Α. moving from Illinois --20 Uh-huh. 21 Q. 22 Α. -- to Idaho. And the last time I saw him he 23 had a .38 special tucked in right here, a pistol. 24 Okay. Q. And I said, "What are you doing?" 25 Α.

1	Q. Uh-huh.
2	A. You know, he was hanging out with these guys,
3	a couple of guys he wanted me to date. And I was like,
4	"I don't date inmates, okay? Or people who just got out
5	of prison, Jerry. You shouldn't even be around them."
6	Q. Right.
7	A. But in that time, in Illinois, if you were 18,
8	there were bars that went all night long until 5:00 in
9	the morning.
10	Q. Uh-huh.
11	A. So he was hanging out with these guys.
12	Q. Okay.
13	A. You know, I don't know what he was using. I
14	suspect he was high, because most of the time he was
15	slow speech, you know.
16	Q. Okay.
17	A. But always bragging, always being the tough
18	guy, always being that guy, you know.
19	Q. Uh-huh.
20	A. And then to not see him for so many years
21	Q. Right.
22	A and then to see him, he was still kind of
23	doing that.
24	Q. Uh-huh.
25	A. You know, the tough guy in prison, you know.

1	Q. Right.
2	A. "I've been here a really long time. I know my
3	way around here better than everybody else."
4	Q. Uh-huh.
5	A. And, you know, even my husband said, "Elsie,
6	what happened to him that he you know, that he sounds
7	like a child?"
8	He does. He does for us, you know.
9	Q. Uh-huh. Okay.
10	A. It was really hard to see him, hard to see
11	that that's what happened to him over all those years.
12	Q. Uh-huh.
13	A. I felt guilt because I hadn't seen him, you
14	know. I almost didn't go because it was just I knew
15	it was going to be a cascade of pain for me, you know.
16	Q. Sure.
17	A. But I thought how many more chances am I going
18	to get, you know.
19	Q. Uh-huh.
20	A. Something could happen tomorrow. I could die.
21	He could die, you know.
22	Q. Right.
23	A. So I saw him.
24	Q. Okay. Do you talk to him much?
25	A. Not a lot. Probably once every three or four

39 107453

1 months he'll call. 2 Q. Okay. But it's the same kind of banter from him, you 3 Α. 4 know. He -- he told me once -- he was the most serious I've heard him be in the last year or so. He said, "I 5 might get a date." 6 7 And I thought, well, maybe. "Are you sure 8 about that?" And he's like, "Well, I think it's coming 9 up." 10 An execution? Q. 11 Α. You know, yeah, a date. 12 Okay. Q. 13 And then he told me how he's been in pain, Α. 14 physical pain, that he has cancer and that it burns. 15 Uh-huh. 0. But he cycles. He'll speak about something 16 Α. 17 and kind of touch on everything he wants to say maybe, and then it sort of starts over again. And then maybe 18 19 it's a little more expounded than it was before. 20 Uh-huh. 0. 21 So, you know, I hear -- I hear the same Jerry. Α. 22 ο. Okay. So he may talk about things that are 23 going on at that moment? 24 Α. Right. But then he's right back into --25 Q.

Γ

1	A. He's right back into saying, "You know, one of
2	my cell guys down here," so and so, you know, "we made
3	tacos" or whatever, you know, and things like that.
4	And he tells me that he's diabetic, but it
5	doesn't sound like he's eating right. I've tried to
6	talk to him about diabetes, and I don't think he gets
7	it.
8	(Dog whining.)
9	Is she interrupting you or your sound?
10	(Speaking to the dog:)
11	Q. You're going to knock it over.
12	A. Daisy.
13	Q. No. And you're definitely messing with the
14	sound.
15	A. Daisy, come here. Sit down. You stop.
16	You're being bad. Bad girl.
17	(Examination continues.)
18	I notice that Angie, you know, is very much
19	the same way.
20	Q. Yeah.
21	A. When she left home she was probably in eighth
22	grade. And she right away started doing drugs, right
23	away ran away, right away started hanging out with, you
24	know, men that were 20 years older than her.
25	And with Angie it was all about being the

39 107455

Г

1	pretty princess, you know, and "I can get any man I
2	want" and all this kind of bologna. You know, no no
3	talk about let's get a job, let's have a life, let's buy
4	a house, let's none of that. None of that.
5	Q. Uh-huh.
6	A. You know, I just can't tolerate dealing with
7	Angie because she's just full of crap.
8	Q. Uh-huh.
9	A. When I talk to her it's just you never know,
10	you know.
11	Q. Right. Okay.
12	A. And that's just where I'll leave that.
13	Q. Okay. What do you think so we don't know
14	if eventually we'll have to try talking to or pleading
15	for Jerry's life, literally.
16	What do you think people who are going to make
17	that final decision about whether or not to show him
18	some mercy?
19	A. What do I think about that?
20	Q. What do you think they should know?
21	A. They should know that he he never, ever had
22	a chance, most of his childhood feeling beat down,
23	emotionally abused, called names.
24	(Speaking to the dog:)
25	Get over here

1	(Examination continues.)
2	Jerry had a Teddy bear that he got for
3	Christmas. And one of his jobs was to burn garbage in
4	the burn barrel.
5	And so my dad raped him. And Jerry was angry
6	and crying, and Bud told him, "Go burn the garbage."
7	And he started he went out to get it going and lit
8	the barrel. And Bud came out and had his Teddy bear in
9	his hand, his big Teddy bear, and was screaming at Jerry
10	and threw it in the fire. "You son of a bitch. You
11	like this? You love your Teddy bear? (Makes sound).
12	Watch it burn." You know. Return to Petition Page 6
13	Jerry never had a chance in any way.
14	Q. Uh-huh.
15	A. He wasn't able. And if there was ever a
16	glimmer there was never a glimmer, because it was
17	extinguished.
18	Q. Uh-huh.
19	A. You know, it's torturous to live like that.
20	And I don't know. I wasn't there when he did
21	what he did. Do I believe it? Yeah. Yeah.
22	I think that you go if you are not right
23	and you're pushed hard enough, you can short out.
24	I'm not going to make an excuse for him,
25	because, clearly, I don't feel he should be out in

1	public.
2	Q.	Uh-huh.
3	Α.	He's not he's not the kind of guy I'd want
4	staying a	t my house.
5	Q.	Uh-huh.
6	Α.	If he knocked on my door and I didn't know
7	him, I wo	uldn't let him in, you know.
8	Q.	Uh-huh.
9	Α.	He's always, always, always, from every day of
10	his life,	from the time my mom left my dad, his dad,
11	he's alwa	ys been just tortured and abused by him
12	Q.	Wow.
13	А.	until he could literally he got in
14	trouble e	nough that he got taken out, you know.
15	Q.	Uh-huh.
16	Α.	Then that turned out to be worse.
17	Q.	Uh-huh.
18	А.	Just as bad, if not worse, you know.
19	Q.	Right.
20	А.	I just don't think he was ever able to get it.
21	I don't t	hink it would ever connect.
22	Q.	Uh-huh.
23	А.	You know.
24	Q.	Uh-huh. Okay.
25	Α.	I'm not going to go into the God thing,

Ī
1	because not everyone believes in that, you know.
2	Q. Uh-huh.
3	A. Prior to meeting Dr. Weinstein and the other
4	pathologist, whatever they were, they used to think that
5	it was the environment, that everything that he went
6	through made him snap, made it that had to be.
7	But in speaking with them and reading about it
8	in the last ten years
9	Q. Uh-huh.
10	A I really think that Jerry's brain he was
11	born with a problem.
12	Q. Uh-huh.
13	A. And certainly environment can impact that.
14	Q. Uh-huh.
15	A. But I don't think he ever had a chance.
16	And we they all fell through the cracks. They didn't
17	test kids then like they do now.
18	Q. Right.
19	A. I've had my own children and grandchildren
20	that we adopted, they do all kind of emotional
21	evaluations and things.
22	Q. Uh-huh.
23	A. And they see stuff that nobody else does, you
24	know.
25	Q. Right.

Г

1	A. I just don't think that he ever had a chance.
2	Q. Okay.
3	A. You know, we didn't have parents, per se.
4	For years, my brothers and sisters would send
5	me Mother's Day cards.
6	Q. Wow.
7	A. Uh-huh.
8	Q. Wow.
9	A. You know. I've had to look at them as my
10	children for many years.
11	Q. Uh-huh.
12	A. One of the reasons that I stayed in Alaska and
13	stayed out of all of it
14	Q. Uh-huh.
15	A I realized that once I got away from it all
16	that that gave me a chance. I wasn't having to have it
17	all around me all the time. I didn't want to live like
18	that. You know, I didn't want to feel all that pain.
19	Q. Right.
20	A. I was able to get counseling. I realized that
21	I had all this crap that I had to get through, you know.
22	Q. Uh-huh.
23	A. I don't think anybody I think maybe some
24	people might have noticed something's not right here.
25	You know.
25	You know.

1	Q. Uh-huh.
2	A. But nobody stepped up.
3	Q. Right.
4	A. And people didn't then. It's the elephant in
5	the room, you know.
6	Q. Uh-huh.
7	A. It's just and, you know, my my I know
8	that my mother, the guilt just killed her.
9	Q. Yeah.
10	A. My father, he he doesn't deal with it well
11	either.
12	Q. Sure.
13	A. You know, because he was the absent parent.
14	Q. Right. Okay.
15	A. You know. This is why we have to stay
16	families and take care of our children and do the right
17	thing, because when you don't then you're left to your
18	own devices.
19	And if you've been raised by a crazy man, what
20	are you going to know if you're already cracked? What
21	are you going to know?
22	He's an old I mean
23	Q. Uh-huh.
24	A. I couldn't help them.
25	Q. Right. Right. This is going to sound perhaps

1	like an odd question. But if they do execute Jerry, can
2	you imagine that? Or what kind of impact do you think
3	that might have on you?
4	A. I'm going to take it as a blessing when his
5	life ends.
6	Q. Sure.
7	A. I'd much rather it be natural causes. I'm
8	hoping that out of all that bad something good can come
9	to his soul.
10	Q. Okay.
11	A. I've had a lot of years to think about it, you
12	know. For many years I was a proponent of the death
13	penalty because I felt an eye for an eye.
14	Q. Uh-huh.
15	A. You know. And I always thought it would be a
16	sign just to be like my stepdad, you know, for being so
17	evil. But then it turns out it's my brother.
18	In fact, in Alaska I was asked on film one
19	time by a reporter when Alaska was considering the death
20	penalty.
21	Q. Uh-huh.
22	A. And I was like, absolutely, an eye for an eye.
23	Q. Huh.
24	A. Okay?
25	Q. Uh-huh.

Г

1	A. Then we roll forward 20 years, and I've had a
2	lot of time to think about it. I'm not sorry I said
3	that.
4	Q. Right.
5	A. But I have a deeper understanding of it now,
6	more of an emotional I really, again, believe he
7	has I think it's going to be shown that he has
8	physiological problems in the makeup of his brain.
9	Q. Uh-huh.
10	A. I did a lot of housing, public housing for
11	rent management and management, seeing all kind of bad
12	behavior, you know.
13	Q. Uh-huh.
14	A. And all kind of good behavior. And it's just
15	been witnessed to me that either they're capable, or
16	you're not. And you get and even the most incapable
17	person can do pretty well with lots of guidance, lots of
18	interaction and a community around them, okay? But if
19	you don't get that ever, then you're like a void, you
20	know.
21	Q. Right.
22	A. I mean, unfortunately my sister Angie, she
23	lives in a world of pain, emotional pain, and may reason
24	suffering. My sister Tonya, she does, too. I'm pretty
25	sure Jerry probably does, too, that he remembers, you

1	know.
2	Q. Uh-huh.
3	A. If four kids, if it matters, if kids had to be
4	tortured like that, if that would give him a chance,
5	then save his life.
6	Q. Yeah.
7	A. I just wish that I could convey how really
8	terrible it was. We're not talking about, oh, my dad
9	spanked me last night and maybe hit me once too many
10	times.
11	Q. Uh-huh.
12	A. It just was an onslaught.
13	Q. Day after day.
14	A. Day after day, night after night. You could
15	be asleep in your bed and be yanked out by your hair in
16	the middle of the night and drug off and raped.
17	Q. Wow.
18	A. And maybe he had a friend there, okay?
19	So then you have to get up the next day and go
20	to school and act like everything is fine.
21	Q. Right.
22	A. And you're just a kid trying to get a life,
23	you know. Trying to live.
24	Q. Right. And this was happening to Jerry, as
25	well?

1	А.	Yes, it was. In particular, he and Angelina.
2	Q.	Okay. Have you talked to Jerry?
3	Α.	(No verbal response.) Return to Petition Page 7
4	Q.	I talked do you know Amal?
5	Α.	No, I've never met Amal.
6	Q.	You heard the
7	Α.	I've heard of Amal before.
8	Q.	What have you heard?
9	Α.	I've heard that he's his spiritual advisor
10	person.
11	Q.	Uh-huh.
12	Α.	So I don't know much about him
13	Q.	Okay.
14	Α.	other than that.
15	Q.	So have you talked to Jerry about the
16	spiritual	side, about
17	Α.	No. No.
18	Q.	Okay.
19	Α.	I don't know that I could explain to him how I
20	feel. For	r me, when I was around, it was like I felt
21	like I was	s holding my breath.
22	Q.	Uh-huh.
23	Α.	You know, it was affecting me that way.
24	Q.	Uh-huh.
25	Α.	It was really hard.

1	Q. Uh-huh.
2	A. And for days after that it was very my
3	husband even said, "Maybe we should go talk to somebody,
4	because you're (unintelligible)."
5	Q. Wow.
6	A. But it brings it back, you know.
7	Q. Uh-huh.
8	A. And you can push it away, and you can live
9	with it or you know, you don't have to be in it.
10	Just seeing them, you know, my siblings, does that to
11	me. I'm almost like I have to be on guard a little bit.
12	Q. Right.
13	A. Because it's it was so very bad that it
14	just even a glimmer of it, I don't want it anymore,
15	you know.
16	Q. Uh-huh.
17	A. I'm just not going to I'm not going to let
18	it hurt me anymore than it needs to.
19	Q. So seeing them can put you back into that?
20	You're the four-year-old mother.
21	A. It doesn't you know, it's kind of like
22	you know, I have a friend that's a military officer, and
23	he thinks that the only people in the world and yet
24	this man has a master's in psychology, and I think he's
25	an idiot. But he says, "The only people in the world that can have PTSD are soldiers." I said, "Well, you a 1 2 dumb ass." 3 0. Yeah. Posttraumatic stress. 4 Α. Same room. You know what I did? 5 I said, "You don't think being raped can give 6 7 you that?" 8 "Absolutely not. You're a soldier, or you're 9 not a soldier. You'll only"... 10 And so I became infuriated with him, shoved 11 him up against the wall and grabbed him in the groin, and said, "How does it feel?" 12 13 Q. Wow. 14 I thought he was going to freak out. Α. 15 But I said, "Okay, you've just been minorly assaulted." 16 17 0. Uh-huh. "I bet you won't forget that. 18 Α. Now try 19 something 100,000 times more severe every day. Every day. And you tell me that's not PTSD. You're an 20 idiot." 21 22 That was my opinion. 23 Yeah. 0. 24 Yeah. You know, so that's the -- that's a Α. really difficult thing to overcome. But I really 25

1	believe in talk therapy.
2	Q. Uh-huh.
3	A. Because the more you say it, the more you get
4	it out. And it like every time I'd feel, when I
5	started talking about it, that I was giving it back. So
6	that just took that burden off of me so that I could be
7	who I needed to be, you know.
8	Q. Uh-huh.
9	A. And there's times when it takes me right back.
10	You know, I'll wake up after like after seeing Jerry
11	this last time, I dreamed things that I forgot that were
12	terrible.
13	Q. Uh-huh.
14	A. You know, horrible things that
15	Q. Uh-huh.
16	A. Wake up in the middle of the night screaming,
17	and my husband is trying to calm me down, and I can't
18	tell him what I dreamed about.
19	Q. Uh-huh.
20	A. Because I don't want him to think of me that
21	way, you know.
22	Q. Uh-huh.
23	A. I don't want him to have to even hear that.
24	Q. Yeah.
25	A. So if it does that to me, I can't imagine.

1	When he does die, I'm going to just believe
2	that. And I truly believe that we're all part of a
3	plan. Good, bad, or indifferent.
4	Q. Yeah.
5	A. And I think that being everything that we
6	do ripples into other people's lives.
7	Q. Uh-huh.
8	A. And so we have a huge responsibility of those
9	that can be aware of that, you know, to try and have
10	kindness and forgiveness and those kind of things for
11	other people.
12	Q. Uh-huh.
13	A. And for yourself, which is even harder, I
14	think.
15	Q. Yeah.
16	A. You know.
17	Q. Yeah.
18	A. I often wondered the person that he killed, I
19	guess, did he look like Mr. Bartholomew?
20	Q. I don't know.
21	A. Was that a trigger?
22	I never wanted to look, and I never wanted to
23	read about it, and I never wanted to know. I still
24	don't even read the papers with it now.
25	Q. Sure.

1	A. My husband knows, because he works for Idaho
2	Corrections.
3	Q. Okay.
4	A. Yeah. So, yeah, and he was all concerned
5	about me going to Boise. And I just said, "You know
6	what? I don't even know why you would have to tell
7	them, because you're not going. It's intimately
8	private."
9	Q. Right.
10	A. "And I don't see how it can affect your job."
11	Q. Right.
12	A. When he first started there, you have to admit
13	that you have a family member. You know, it asks you
14	those kind of questions.
15	Q. Of course.
16	A. It's procedure. So okay.
17	Q. Yeah.
18	A. I don't know. But even he is a little
19	feels shame about it, you know. And it's not him, of
20	course.
21	Q. Right.
22	A. Not me either. But there it is.
23	Q. Yeah.
24	A. One day I hope that the story can be told for
25	kids, because I think a lot of kids go through that kind

1	of stuff. Probably more than we realize.
2	Q. Yeah, a lot more.
3	A. Part of what helped me was when I was in high
4	school I met a couple of schoolmates and found out that
5	they were going through stuff similar.
6	Q. Uh-huh.
7	A. That really helped me realize that I had to
8	talk about it.
9	Q. Okay.
10	A. You know, that I had to find help, because if
11	I didn't, at any time I could have turned into a drug
12	addict, alcoholic.
13	Q. Uh-huh.
14	A. I could have killed myself. And when I was 16
15	I tried to kill myself. I seriously you know,
16	because of living there and all that crap. And it
17	just each one of us at different times, you know. So
18	I thank God I didn't.
19	Q. Yeah.
20	A. I'll tell you what. It gives you insight into
21	other people in some respects maybe. Maybe that's
22	taking credit where I shouldn't. But I can I feel
23	like because I've been through all that kind of stuff I
24	have a lot of compassion for other people.
25	Q. Uh-huh.

1	A. And I understand situations very quickly where
2	feelings and those kind of things are involved. And
3	it's fine. Because over the years, my kids' friends
4	have all come to me, you know. I'm like their counselor
5	mom, you know.
6	Q. Yeah.
7	A. And my grandkids' friends, too. And now the
8	neighbor kids, you know. So it's good, because I'm
9	giving back some of that healing, you know.
10	Q. Uh-huh.
11	A. And it helps me to, so
12	Q. That's great.
13	A. Yeah.
14	Q. Good. I can't think of anything else to press
15	you on and drag you through.
16	A. You took it easy on me.
17	Q. It's an interesting part of the job.
18	Let me turn this off.

RE: Carrie Pellegrino (Pizzuto)

Carrie Pellegrino nee Bartholomew 727-267-7196

On Monday, Dec 14, I spoke with Carrie Pellegrino on the telephone and she related the following information:

Carrie will be 44 years old this Thursday. She is nine years younger than her brother Jerry. She has few memories of Jerry from her childhood other than that he was frequently beaten by her father Bud Bartholomew.

One incident in particular that she remembers was an episode when Jerry was beaten due to something she had done. Her father had a small collection of fountain pens that the children were not allowed to touch. Carrie took them and was playing with them around a base of a lamp in the living room. She left them all there and her father found them and was outraged at Jerry. Carrie told her father that she had done it but he didn't believe her. He whipped Jerry on the back with a leather horsewhip until he bled. Carrie was about four or five years old at the time.

Jerry was frequently abused by Bud. Bud would punish Jerry even when he didn't deserve it, such as the example given above. Carrie remembers Jerry also being punished for not doing well in school, getting bad grades and not doing his homework. She remembers once that Jerry was punished because a teacher had called their home about something. She does not remember which teacher, what grade or why the teacher called. She said whenever Jerry started to get in trouble she would go in her room or somewhere else because she was afraid. In addition to Jerry being whipped on the back and buttocks, Carrie recalls that Bud frequently hit Jerry in the head, both slapping and backhanding, and just hitting him on the side of his head.

Carrie also remembered Jerry getting punished for his table manners. For example, if he put his elbows on the table, Bud would stab Jerry in the arm with a fork. She remembered several instances of seeing Jerry at the table with a fork sticking straight up out of his arm.

All of the Pizzuto children suffered physical abuse from Bud, with Jerry receiving the most of all. Neither Carrie nor Richard were abused by Bud physically. Bud sexually abused all the children, Pizzutos and Bartholomews alike. Carrie believes that Richard was sexually abused even though they have never spoken about it.

Carrie doesn't remember much else about Jerry from when she was a child. She has a vague memory of Jerry sticking up for her at school. He and Elsie and Angie would threaten to beat up other kids if they hurt or were mean to Carrie.

She thinks Jerry was kicked out of the home a couple of times before the age of 14, or maybe he would run away. She knows that at least a couple of times Jerry ran away after being beaten. She knows now that he left their home to go to the Boys' Ranch but at the time she didn't really understand what was going on. Elsie tried to shield her and her siblings from all the bad things that happened. She was everyone's protector and really raised all of them. Note: Carrie is not currently in touch with Elsie or Richard because the three of them had a falling out over a "stupid family thing".

When Carrie was about 17 and living in Chocteau, Montana, Jerry came and stayed with the Pizzutos after he got out of prison in Michigan. Pam and Gerry Senior were running a restaurant and Jerry lived on the back porch of their place that summer. That summer was the most time she ever spent with Jerry but even then, it wasn't much time because she mostly hung out with her friends. Jerry told her about prison and talked a lot about how hard it was to make it on the outside and that since he had been out, he'd been having a lot of trouble adapting.

In the fall, Carrie went to college at Montana State. Once someone came to her dorm room and told her her brother was waiting for her outside. She thought it was Richard but when she went out, she was surprised to see Jerry.

He told her he had come to tell her good bye, that he loved her, and that he wouldn't be seeing her again. When she asked why, he said "You'll understand later". She asked Jerry if he was going to hurt himself and he said "No, no - not that". He mentioned that her father's treatment of him had a lot to do with how Jerry turned out. She wondered if maybe Jerry was going to go and kill her father. She said she didn't call her father to warn him because she wouldn't have cared if Jerry had killed him. Jerry only stayed about 5 minutes. That was the last time she ever spoke with Jerry.

Carrie said that she and Jerry loved each other but they weren't close. Carrie's daughter is a "special needs" child and she says now she can see some of that in Jerry, though she couldn't give any specifics, only that he was always struggling with school and could never understand his homework. Jerry seemed more like Renee than the other children. Jerry and Renee were always together. Renee was definitely slow and Jerry seemed slow too - not on the level of everyone else.

CASE NO. CV-05-516

DECLARATION OF PAM PIZZUTO

I, Pam Pizzuto, a person over eighteen years of age and competent to testify, mindful of the penalties of perjury, depose and say as follows:

1. I am the mother of Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr., hereafter referred to as "Jerry";

When Jerry was born on January 11, 1956, I was eighteen years old. Jerry was my second child. Jerry's half-sister, Renee, was born fourteen months before on November 21, 1954;

3. I dropped out of high school during my junior year because I became pregnant;

4. I started smoking at age sixteen. I smoked about a pack a day for many years. I smoked during the first trimester of my pregnancy with Jerry but not after the first trimester because smoking started to make me really nauseous;

5. I did not eat a very healthy diet during my pregnancy with Jerry. I wasn't aware of the importance of nutrition to the baby and I ate mostly junk food. Even if I had known about the importance of good nutrition I didn't have the money to buy healthy food;

6. I was under a lot of mental and emotional stress during my pregnancy with Jerry.My family was very angry with me. My mother wanted to put me in a home for unwed mothers.I even tried to commit suicide with a gun but the gun misfired. I had no support from my family and no money;

7. I didn't know it at the time of my pregnancy, but I have had epilepsy since I was a child. I've had seizures for my whole life, even when I was little. Several of my sisters also had seizures. We would all watch over each other whenever one of us had a seizure. I was finally diagnosed at the age of twenty-nine. I called my mom when I was diagnosed and she told me that epilepsy ran in our family. My mother, aunt, grandmother and five of my sisters all had epilepsy. We weren't diagnosed as children because my family very rarely went to the doctor for anything;

8. I did not receive any pre-natal care when I was pregnant with Jerry. I didn't have any health insurance and could not afford to go to the doctor. I just went to the hospital when it was time to deliver him;

Jerry was three weeks premature when he was born. He weighed five pounds.
 (Jerry was my second child to be born premature. His sister Renee was born at seven weeks early). Jerry also had pretty bad jaundice as a baby;

10. When I left the hospital with Jerry I was not given any referrals to a pediatrician or referrals for any kind of social service assistance. Jerry didn't receive any post-natal care; no regular visits to a doctor or well-baby clinic like they do these days; and

11. For most of Jerry's childhood, he didn't receive medical care. He would only go to the doctor if there was an emergency. Jerry had two emergency medical visits during his childhood. One was for when he fell down a flight of stairs into the basement when he was two and a half years old; the other was when he was involved in a bicycle accident at the age of twelve and hit his head on a rock. He had to be hospitalized for a head fracture but even then, we took him out of the hospital early against medical advice. Our family just wasn't ever big on doctors; Return to Petition Page 8

GERALD ROSS PIZZUTO, JR.

Petitioner.

STATE OF IDAHO,

Respondent.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA .))ss. County of Mendocina

I, PAM PIZZUTO, being first duly sworn, depose on oath and say the following:

That your affiant is a citizen of the United States; that I am over the age of 21; and I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein and am therefore competent to make this affidavit.

That I am the mother of Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr, the petitioner above named.

That there was, to my recollection, nothing abnormal about the birth of Gerald R. Pizzuto except that his birth was five weeks earlier than expected. Return to Petition Page 8

That when Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr. was approximately two and one half years old, he fell down a double flight of stairs into the basement of the dwelling which our family resided. He was hospitalized, and he received a fractured skull and a fractured leg. This occurred in Everett, Washington, but I cannot remember. the name of the hospital.

That in 1970, while the family was living in the vicinity of Spokane, Washington, Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr. was involved in a motorcycle accident which resulted in serious injuries to his face and his head. Although I did not witness the accident, it is my understanding that he was thrown from the motorcycle and landed on cement, face and head first. He was hospitalized for his injuries. Return to Petition Page 8

That following the motorcycle accident, I noticed definite changes in Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr.'s behavior. He became rebellious. He engaged in fantasizing, a behavior he did exhibit prior to the accident. He imagined things. He ran away from home for no reason and without telling me. While at home, he became something akin to a packrat by removing odd items, for example, a kitchen utensil, and hiding it with no explanation for taking or hiding the item.

That as a child, Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr. engaged in what I believed to be sleepwalking. He would appear to be fully conscious, but he would not remember anything concerning the sleepwalking incidents. For example, while our family was living in Chewelah, Washington I remember that Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr. fell down a flight of stairs while sleepwalking. Afterwards, Gerald R. Pizzuto had no memory of walking in his sleep or falling down the stairs. In another incident, I found him sitting in an automobile in his bedclothes, in the cold. Again, Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr. did not recall this incident.

That I believe that Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr. was initially. diagnosed as suffering from epilepsy while he was incarcerated in the Michigan State Penitentiary. My family has a long history of epilepsy. I have a mild form of it. Gerald R. Pizzuto's sister, Elsee has serious problems with epilepsy which, if not controlled by medication, results in uncontrolled violence which in one instance caused the destruction of property. Gerald R. Pizzuto's sister Renee has also been treated for epilepsy and has suffered from grand mal seizures.

That when Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr. was a child, he received severe beatings from his stepfather, Bud Bartholomew.

That when Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr. was released from the Michigan prison, he went to live with my husband and I in Montana. When he arrived, he had his epilepsy medication with him. At that time, he stated to me that he had to have medication for his epilepsy.

Ċ

That when Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr. was a teenager, he received a serious beating at the hands of law enforcement authorities in Colville, Washington. He was bloodied and bruised when I saw him at the Sheriff's department. He could barely speak, and when he spoke he was incoherent. He appeared to be seriously injured. Shortly after this incident Gerald R. Pizzuto Jr., without notice to me or giving any explanation whatsoever, left home for good.

That I have personal knowledge of facts herein and would be able to testify about these matters at a hearing of this matter.

FURTHER your affiant sayeth not.

Respectfully submitted,

RE: Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr.

I, Craig W. Beaver, Ph.D., being first duly sworn, disposes and states as follows:

1. Currently, I am licensed as a psychologist in the State of Idaho. I was authorized to complete a neuropsychological evaluation of Gerald R. Pizzuto, Jr.

I currently hold a Ph.D. in clinical psychology from Miami University of Ohio. This is an accredited clinical psychology training program approved by the American Psychological Association. I completed clinical internship, with an emphasis in clinical neuropsychology, at the Ft. Miley VA Medical Center in San Francisco, California, and I also completed four years of additional supervised practice under Dr. Lloyd Cripe, Diplomate in Clinical Neuropsychology. In my formal training and experience, I have been educated and trained to evaluate patients with neurological disorders, specifically epilepsy and those patients who have history of brain injury.

I am a diplomate in clinical neuropsychology, recognized by the American Board of Professional Psychology and the American Board of Clinical Neuropsychology. This designation requires you have completed course work and supervision in the area of neuropsychology. It also requires that you submit credentials to verify your course work but also verify supervision and training specifically in neuropsychology. Diplomate status also requires formal oral and written examination as well as submission of work product. It is the highest level of certification that can be obtained in the practice of clinical neuropsychology. Currently, there are only approximately 300 boarded neuropsychologists practicing in the United States. At this time, I am one of them. In addition to being a diplomate in clinical neuropsychology, I am also recognized as an individual who is qualified to review work samples of applicants for boards in neuropsychology.

I have specialized training and experience in the area of seizure disorder and how it affects behavior. I have been on the professional advisory board for Epilepsy League of Idaho for many years. I also was the consulting neuropsychologist for the Epilepsy Evaluation Unit at St. Luke's Regional Medical Center located in Boise, Idaho. I have presented numerous talks and workshops to professionals and lay audiences on the cognitive, behavioral and emotional consequences of seizure disorders and the medications used to treat those disorders. Also, in the course of my clinical practice, I have been involved in several clinical field trial studies in which we have examined how new medications affect seizure disorder patients with regard to their affect, cognition and behavior. I have cared for and treated numerous patients who have seizure disorders.

I also have many years of formal training and experience in treating and evaluating patients who have significant brain injury. Currently, I am the director of Neuropsychological Services at Idaho Elk's Rehabilitation Hospital. My duties include providing neuropsychological services and team leadership to the inpatient and outpatient Brain Injury Rehabilitation Treatment Programs. The Brain Injury Treatment Program at Idaho Elk's Rehabilitation Hospital is one of only a few accredited brain injury treatment programs in the Intermountain West. I helped found that program. I have also given multiple workshops and lectures to both professional and lay audiences on the effects of brain injury with regard to behavior, affect and cognition. I have also given multiple workshops and lectures on behavioral management and other treatment modalities with brain injury patients.

I have training and experience in drug and alcohol use and abuse and its effects on behavior, cognition and affect. I have served as a consulting psychologist and neuropsychologist for the inpatient drug/alcohol treatment at the VA Medical Center in San Francisco in the past and have been a consultant to outpatient drug/alcohol treatment programs in the Boise area over the past several years. I have also given numerous workshops and lectures on the neuropsychological effects of drug and alcohol abuse. I have also specifically talked about the interaction between drug/alcohol abuse and brain injury and its overall effect on behavior, cognition and emotion. I have also served on the Idaho Governor's Committee to review drug/alcohol treatment evaluations and to revise standards related to those evaluations.

During the course of my clinical experience, I have been qualified as an expertwitness in multiple judicial districts around the State of Idaho and also in the Intermountain West. I have been specifically qualified to discuss issues related to brain injury and its effect on behavior. I have also been involved in testifying in the effects of seizure disorder on behaviors as well. I have been qualified in judicial districts to discuss issues of aggravation versus mitigating circumstances in capital sentencing cases.

During the course of my examination of Gerald R. Pizzuto, I did have the opportunity to review a number of records related to Mr. Pizzuto's current circumstances. This included review of a presentence investigative report filed in April of 1986 on the original sentencing of Mr. Pizzuto on his conviction of murder. I also reviewed the prior presentence report when he was sentenced in 1975 in Michigan. I also reviewed various records from his incarceration in the Michigan Correctional System and Idaho Correctional Systems. I had the opportunity to review the sentencing transcripts from Mr. Pizzuto's trial in which multiple individuals testified. I have also had the opportunity to review prior reports by Drs. White and Emery who examined Mr. Pizzuto for psychological factors in the original 1986 sentencing. I have also reviewed affidavits from various family members and physicians who have reviewed or been involved in the care and treatment or evaluation of Mr. Pizzuto. 39 21759

Affidavit of Craig W. Beaver, Ph.D.

- 9. During the course of my evaluation of Mr. Pizzuto, I have had the opportunity interview him now on multiple occasions. Specifically, I have conducted diagnostic interviewing with Mr. Pizzuto on 1/12/96, 2/9/96, 2/16/96 and 3/7/96. In total, I have had an opportunity to interview Mr. Pizzuto for approximately 8 ½ hours. During the course of those interviews, we have reviewed his current status, reviewed his psychosocial history, particularly in this matter as it relates to his history of head injury and seizure disorder as well as polysubstance abuse.
- 10. On 2/12/96, Mr. Pizzuto underwent a comprehensive neuropsychometric examination under my supervision. Specifically, Mr. Pizzuto underwent approximately 9 hours of neuropsychological and psychological tests under my direction. Formal neuropsychometric testing was conducted at that time to evaluate Mr. Pizzuto's neurocognitive functioning and to assist in evaluating his mental status. The tests used and administered are commonly accepted as instruments to evaluate neurocognitive status in patients who are suspected of having possible neurological impairment secondary to brain injury, seizure disorder or drug/alcohol problems.
- 11. In reviewing prior records relating to Mr. Pizzuto, I note that he was examined by Dr. Michael Emery, psychologist, as described in reports from January 23, 1986 and April 24, 1986. Of particular importance is that Dr. Emery noted in those reports that he had conducted some intellectual and limited cognitive testing of Mr. Pizzuto. He described him as having "cognitive limitations." No formal neuropsychological testing or history related to neuropsychological status was obtained or reported in those reports. Dr. Emery went on to indicate in an affidavit apparently filed in February 1987 that, in fact, he had not conducted a neurological or neuropsychological evaluation of Mr. Pizzuto. He noted, in light of Mr. Pizzuto's history, in which Dr. Emery indicated he had an apparent history of seizure disorder, child abuse, and possible organic brain damage, neuropsychological examination could be helpful in detecting whether or not there were problems in those areas with Mr. Pizzuto. Further, Dr. Emery only evaluated Mr. Pizzuto for a total of 2.75 hours between the two evaluations conducted in January and April 1986.
- 12. At the time Mr. Pizzuto was originally evaluated for sentencing in January and April of 1986, neuropsychological services were available in the State of Idaho. These services were also available in Eastern Washington, close to the Lewiston area. A comprehensive neuropsychological evaluation of Mr. Pizzuto, at the time of his original sentencing, would have most likely revealed the same issues that are being discussed in the current Affidavit.
- 13. I also reviewed an affidavit from Dr. Michael Koerner. He is a physician who is board certified in neurology who examined Mr. Pizzuto in September 1987. He indicated that as a result of his examination it was reasonable to make a working diagnosis of epilepsy with Mr. Pizzuto and to treat it accordingly. He felt that Mr. Pizzuto's seizure disorder was reasonably typical of complex partial seizure disorder. He went on to indicate that from what he knew of Mr. Pizzuto's history,

Õ

21730

Affidavit of Craig W. Beaver, Ph.D.

there is a family history of seizure disorder and Mr. Pizzuto had received multiple head injuries in the past.

I also reviewed an affidavit by Pam Pizzuto, Gerald Pizzuto's mother. She 14. indicated in her April 1987 affidavit that her son, Gerald, had suffered at least two significant brain injuries in his youth. The first one occurred when he was 2 1/2 years of age and fell down a flight of stairs and suffered a skull fracture and was hospitalized. She indicated also that around 1970 Gerald was involved in a Return to Petition serious bicycle accident in which he received Page 8 significant brain injury. She noted there was a significant change in his behavior after that event, consistent with a patient who suffered a brain injury. She also went on to indicate he had been severely physically abused by his stepfather and others during his upbringing. She indicated she is aware that Gerald Pizzuto has been diagnosed in the past as having a seizure disorder and that he has been on medication for the seizure disorder in the past. I also interviewed Pam Pizzuto on 8/2/96. She confirmed her statements in the affidavit. Further, she described in more detail Mr. Pizzuto's changes in behavior after his head injuries. She also described the severity of abuse he suffered from his stepfather.

- 15. During the course of interviewing with Gerald Pizzuto in January, February and March of 1996, he provided me with a list of his current medications being prescribed at the Maximum Security Facility at the Idaho Correctional Institute. Mr. Pizzuto indicated that one of the medications he is currently being prescribed is Depakote which he understands is for seizure control. In my working with seizure patients, Depakote is one of the more common anticonvulsant medications used to treat this disorder.
- 16. In my review of the medical records from the Idaho Department of Corrections, Medical Services, I note that there have been multiple occasions, dating back to 1990, in which Gerald Pizzuto has reported or has been observed having seizure like behavior. Those records also indicate Mr. Pizzuto has had neurological workup by Dr. Thomas Henson, neurologist, in April 1990. He diagnosed the patient as having a seizure disorder plus pseudo-seizure disorder. Additionally, I reviewed records from 1990 in which Mr. Pizzuto had gone to the Emergency Room at Saint Alphonsus Regional Medical Center, taken by correctional officers, for possible seizure activity. In those incidents, he had also been described as having seizure disorder. The Idaho Corrections medical records are also consistent with Mr. Pizzuto's indication that he has been on anti-convulsive medications during the course of his incarceration at that facility.
- 17. In my interview with Jerry Pizzuto, he indicates that he has had seizures since possibly adolescence if not early adulthood. He was somewhat uncertain as to the exact date of onset of his seizures. However, he suspects he was sometime after a bicycle accident around age 15 in which he reports receiving a significant head injury. Jerry Pizzuto indicates he has been told he had a head injury at age 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ after falling down a flight of stairs and that he also suffered a second head injury in adolescence secondary to a bicycle accident. Mr. Pizzuto further indicates that he has been on anti-seizure medications now for many years. He reports that if he does not take the medication, he has difficulty with seizure control.

18. Mr. Pizzuto further indicates that when he experiences seizures, he loses control and does not recall exactly what occurs. He understands that when he does have seizures, he can become very aggressive and violent towards others but, again, indicates that he has little recall of those events when he has the actual seizures.

19. Mr. Pizzuto indicates that he has a long history of multiple substance abuse beginning in adolescence. He indicates that his polysubstance abuse has been a lifelong problem for him

20. Jerry Pizzuto describes having a very chaotic, dysfunctional and violent family upbringing. He reports he had limited and unstable contact with his biological father. He describes being severely mentally, sexually and physically abused by his stepfather, Veryl A. Bartholomew. This involved multiple physical beatings, ongoing mental abuse and sexual abuse. The level of abuse far exceeds normal life experience and, again, was severe.

21. Neuropsychometric testing of Mr. Pizzuto did find evidence of significant neurocognitive deficits that would be consistent with a prior history of brain injury and/or seizure disorder. In particular, his neuropsychometric testing indicates that Jerry Pizzuto has difficulty with impulse control and sustained attention in activities. Additionally, neuropsychometric testing finds evidence that Jerry Pizzuto has difficulty with decision-making in more demanding or unfamiliar circumstances.

22. In my clinical experience, patients who have neurological limitations (i.e., cognitive impairment secondary to brain injury) and/or neurological disorders such as epilepsy, are more vulnerable to their environment. Specifically, these individuals, from my clinical experience, are more adversely affected by negative family and environmental conditions than other patients given their more limited resources. Therefore, the fact that Jerry Pizzuto had a very dysfunctional abusive upbringing would likely have a much larger impact upon his own behavior and development than an individual without such a neurological history. Thus affecting his ability to conform his behavior and conduct to community standards. Also, significantly disabling Mr. Pizzuto's ability to develop appropriate relationships with others.

23. The combination of Jerry Pizzuto having a seizure disorder, neurocognitive limitations that affect his impulse control and decision-making, combined with the neurotoxic affects of polysubstance abuse would have significantly impacted his abilities to make appropriate decisions and to control his behavior in an appropriate and community acceptable manner. 39 21762

Α.

Affidavit of Craig W. Beaver, Ph.D.

Finally, Mr. Pizzuto's problems with impulse control and high level problemsolving in stressful circumstances, combined with his emotional issues, make it difficult for him, in my opinion, to adequately anticipate the consequences of his activities.

- 24. On or about July 26, 1985, when the murders of Delbert and Bertha Hetndon occurred, Mr. Pizzuto indicated that he was not taking his anti-seizure medication and had been heavily involved in polysubstance abuse. This certainly would have affected his ability to make appropriate decisions and to effectively control his behavior in a highly charged and emotional circumstance.
- 25. Additional information and records could be beneficial in further evaluating these issues as they relate to Gerald Pizzuto. Specifically, obtaining the following information would be of benefit:
 - Medical records relating to the two prior head injuries that Mr. Pizzuto suffered in his youth.
 - B. Obtaining head MRI Scan of Gerald Pizzuto would assist in determining whether or not a structural lesion could be identified that would account for his seizure disorder and his neurocognitive deficits.
 - C. Obtaining sleep deprived EEG would be of benefit in further evaluating Mr. Pizzuto's seizure disorder.
 - D. Obtain and review records from Idaho Maximum Security Correctional Institute regarding Mr. Pizzuto's discipline record and behavior, during the course of his incarceration.
- 26. In my interactions with Mr. Pizzuto and in my review of records of prior evaluations, I note that he can present as very verbose with considerable "bravado." He demonstrates a strong tendency to overstate his accomplishments. This also includes his accomplishments that relate to how "tough or mean" Mr. Pizzuto is. In my interviewing of Pam Pizzuto and in reviewing Jerry Pizzuto's history, it is clear that this tendency towards exaggeration of accomplishments is of a longstanding nature. There does appear to be a specific psychological dynamic involved with this behavior. Specifically, beginning at a young age, Mr. Pizzuto was severely physically, mentally and sexually abused by his stepfather. Pam Pizzuto, his mother, reports that Jerry Pizzuto would frequently attempt to embellish and overstate his accomplishments in hopes that his stepfather would be accepting of him and not abuse him so severely. Despite multiple occasions of abuse, Jerry Pizzuto persisted in attempting to gain acceptance from his stepfather via his exaggerations and overstatements of his accomplishments. This appeared to become an ingrained characteristic for Mr. Pizzuto. Additionally, his mother reports that Jerry Pizzuto engaged in more and more fantasy play and activities, also presenting circumstances in which he was either of a stature that he could not be harmed by his stepfather or was protected by some type of animal that would help protect him. This further goes to the ingrained pattern that we now see with Mr. Pizzuto of him often being unreliable as a historian secondary to the amount of "bravado" in his presentation. Again, this appears to have been an attempt by Mr. Pizzuto to adapt to a highly abusive and stressful upbringing as a young child.

- 27. Mr. Pizzuto is influenced by the peer group he is interacting with. This influence can be quite significant, based upon review of Mr. Pizzuto's history and my psychological testing of him. Specifically, Mr. Pizzuto is very concerned about what impression he gives to others. As mentioned above, this can often lead him to greatly overstate his abilities, accomplishments, etc. It is very important for Mr. Pizzuto to appear tough and unafraid in situations, to those that are around him. Therefore, in a highly emotionally charged situation, Mr. Pizzuto would be easily influenced by others in the sense that he would not want to show any "weakness." He also then is very likely to be influenced by others in terms of going along with or engaging in acts with the group so that he is accepted by others and not viewed as "weak" or "afraid."
- 28. Additionally, in a peer group, Mr. Pizzuto has a strong need for attention and acceptance. His personality testing suggests he can be rather passive dependent. Consequently, all of these issues result in Mr. Pizzuto being easily influenced by his peers. Further, these issues, with his cognitive and emotional limitations, make it very unlikely Jerry Pizzuto would be a leader with a group of peers.
- 29. Mr. Pizzuto was described as an Antisocial Personality by Dr. Emery, based upon his January and April 1986 evaluations. However, as best I can determine, Dr. Emery had limited records, little, if any, awareness of Mr. Pizzuto's organic mental status, and had only conducted a brief examination. My more extensive evaluation of Jerry Pizzuto reveals a much more complex person with many other significant factors. While Mr. Pizzuto does have some antisocial traits, he also struggles with an organic mental syndrome, related to his epilepsy. He also shows evidence of both Histrionic and Passive Dependent features to his personality which were also heavily influenced by the savage abuse Jerry suffered at the hands of his stepfather.
- 30. There has been concern, in his original sentencing, that Mr. Pizzuto presented as a significant threat to others. I will agree in reviewing his history and records that he does, in fact, present a significant threat to others if he were again placed in an unstructured environment outside of the correctional system. However, in considering Mr. Pizzuto's age and in reviewing what I know at this point about his conduct while in the correctional facility, either in Michigan or Idaho, I do not believe he poses a high risk to others. Specifically, in reviewing the Michigan Correctional Institute's records, we note that in the beginning, when Mr. Pizzuto was quite young (i.e., 19) he had a few incidents in which he was written up for fights and/or being threatening with other inmates. However, in continued review of the Michigan records, we see that behavior drop off substantially during the course of his incarceration. In fact, he was ultimately released after 9 years of incarceration on a sentence of 20-40 years. He was described as having complied with their requests and having made good adjustment to the correctional system. Additionally, I am not aware at this time of any incidents in which Mr. Pizzuto has posed a significant threat to other inmates or correctional officers during the course of his stay at the Idaho Maximum Security Pacility. Therefore, I believe if Mr. Pizzuto were to continue within the structure of a correctional facility, I do not believe he would pose a high risk to others. I do not feel Jerry Pizzuto poses a significant risk to others within the prison population. If Mr. Pizzuto continues on medication, has the structure of the correctional system and remains abstiment from drugs or alcohol, I believe he can function safely and adjust appropriately to long-term incarceration.

- 1. I am a medical doctor trained and board certified in both Psychiatry and Neurology. I am on the faculty of the George Washington University School of Medicine where my position is Clinical Professor of Psychiatry and Behavioral Neuroscience. I have been engaged in the practice and teaching of Psychiatry and Neurology for more than thirty five years. Thave evaluated more than two hundred persons accused or convicted of murder and other crimes including rape, assault, arson and kidnapping. A copy of my CV is attached hereto

- I met with and administered a neuropsychiatric examination to Mr. Pizzuto on April 3, 2003. *
- 4. I requested that the following tests be performed:

An Electroencephalogram was done on 01/19/2009. A Whole Brain Perfusion PET Scan and a CT Scan was done on 01/20/09, demonstrating a reduced level of activity in the frontal temporal regions (or an increased level in the occipital) which suggests frontal lobe dysfunction. An MRI scan of the brain was done on 01/20/2009 revealing that his brain is smaller than usual, he has more atrophy than normal, there is white matter hyperintensity around his ventricles, and he has a cavum septum pellucidum (a congenital abnormality). A battery of blood tests including a metabolic profile, complete blood count, ANA screen, thyroid functions, ceruloplasmin, rheumatoid factor, liver and

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF IDAHO

GERALD ROSS PIZZUTO, JR.
Petitioner,
v.
STATE OF IDAHO,
Respondent.

CASE NO. CV 34748

AFFIDAVIT OF CRAIG W. BEAVER, PhD

STATE OF IDAHO)

County of Ada

I, Craig W. Beaver, being first duly sworn, deposes and states as follows:

1. Currently, I am licensed as a psychologist in the State of Idaho and previously had completed a neuropsychological examination of Gerald R. Pizzuto, Jr.

I am qualified under state law to conduct neuropsychological testing.

2. Currently, I hold a PhD in clinical psychology from Miami University of Ohio, an AP Approved Clinical Training Program. I also completed an internship at the Fort Miley VA-

Medical Center in Coordination with the UC San Francisco Medical School, which is also an AP Approved Clinical Training Program, with an emphasis in clinical neuropsychology. I then completed four years of additional supervised practice under Dr. Lloyd Cripe. In short, I have extensive formal training in the area of brain behavior relationships.

3. Presently, I hold a Diplomate in Clinical Neuropsychology by the American Board of Professional Psychological and the American Board for Clinical Neuropsychology. This reflects my additional training and expertise in the area of clinical neuropsychology. There are only a little over 300 boarded neuropsychologists practicing and recognized in the United States.

4. Please see attached curriculum vitae outlining my training and clinical and professional experiences working with patients who have neurological disorders that affect their function and behavior. Presently, in addition to private practice, I am the Director of Neuropsychological Services at Idaho Elks Rehabilitation Hospital in Boise, Idaho in which I oversee a Brain Injury Rehabilitation Program.

5. Previously, I had conducted an examination of Gerald Pizzuto, Jr. in 1996. At that time, I completed neuropsychometric testing of him. Additionally, I reviewed other neuropsychological testing completed on Mr. Pizzuto in the past. Neuropsychometric testing was used to evaluate Mr. Pizzuto's cognitive abilities, particularly as it refers to his ability to understand and process information, communicate, abstract information and learn from experience, as well as assessing ones logical reasoning and impulse control.

6. In addition to formal assessment of Gerald Pizzuto, Jr., I have also completed an extensive review of medical records related to his care and treatment. This included a number of neurological evaluations and workups relating to Gerald Pizzuto, Jr.

AFFIDAVIT OF CRAIG W. BEAVER, PhD - 2

7. Neuropsychological examination of Mr. Pizzuto, Jr. demonstrates significant neurocognitive deficits. More specifically, Mr. Pizzuto on formal neuropsychometric testing, evidences difficulties with language skills, memory, and higher-level reasoning and problem solving skills. Thus, he does show impairment on formal neuropsychometric testing of difficulties with mental abilities. These deficits are consistent with an individual who has an organic brain disorder.

Return to Petition Page 8

8. Review of medical records finds evidence that Gerald Pizzuto has a long history of seizure disorder, with evidence of abnormal EEG and a history of requiring anticonvulsive medications. This also is both evidenced and consistent with Gerald Pizzuto having an organic brain disorder that affects his mental capacities. Return to Petition Page 8

9. Mr. Pizzuto has continued to require pharmacological management of his seizure disorder since he was last examined by myself in 1996. He has continued to have neurological difficulties. Therefore, given that it has now been over eight years since his last comprehensive neuropsychological examination, I would strongly recommend that he undergo repeat neuropsychometric studies. Repeat neuropsychometric studies are needed to better determine Gerald Pizzuto's cognitive abilities. Often, patients that have persistent seizure disorders, for example, will decline over time in their overall mental abilities. Therefore, repeat neuropsychological testing to evaluate issues relating to his ability to understand and process information and abstract information, communicate, and learn from experience, engage in logical reasoning, and his abilities to control his impulses would be evaluated by repeat testing.

AFFIDAVIT OF CRAIG W. BEAVER, PhD - 3

10. Given his history of seizure disorder and positive findings on EEG examination, it is my opinion that Gerald Pizzuto would also benefit from further neurological study. This should include not only a comprehensive neurological examination, but also further neuroradiological studies (i.e. PET scan, Spec scan, and/or MRI) to further evaluate his neurological functioning and how it affects his behavior. Those technologies are readily available in the medical community adjacent to where Mr. Pizzuto currently is incarcerated.

11. The combination of having more current neuropsychometric testing on Mr. Pizzuto, combined with additional neurological studies would further elucidate his mental abilities, and the etiology of his limitations. These factors are particularly relevant with regard to issues of his culpability given the legal circumstance in which he finds himself.

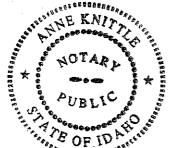

12. Mr. Pizzuto does have a history of intellectual limitations and poor adaptability. Within the context of the recent U.S. Supreme Court case, Atkins v. Virginia, current evaluation of Gerald Pizzuto is indicated to determine if he meets the criteria of mental adaptability.

Report – Adaptive Behavior

RE: Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr. 28 December 2009

1. My name is James R. Patton. I am over the age of eighteen, and have first hand knowledge of the facts and opinions presented in this report.

Professional Background

- 2. I have worked in the field of disabilities since 1974 and hold Master's and Doctoral degrees from the University of Virginia in the area of Special Education/Disabilities. I have taught in higher education since 1977 and have had faculty appointments at the University of Virginia, the University of Hawaii at Manoa, and the University of Texas at Austin. I have 34 years of experience working in the field of mental retardation. During my professional career, I have served as a special education teacher, consultant, and professor in the field of mental retardation/intellectual disability.
- 3. As a professional in the field of mental retardation, I have coauthored/co-edited two professional books specifically focused on the topic of mental retardation: Mental Retardation 7th Edition (Beirne-Smith, Patton, & Kim, 2006) and Mental Retardation in the 21st Century (Wehmeyer & Patton, 2000). The former book, which is currently being revised in an eighth edition, is used widely throughout the country in courses on mental retardation/intellectual disabilities. The other book, which was sponsored by the Arc (formerly known as the Association for Retarded Citizens) in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of this organization, represents a compilation of a range of issues in the field of mental retardation/intellectual disabilities.
- 4. I have written extensively on the topic of mental retardation and other disability-related topics in my career. I have authored, coauthored, or edited 59 books (including revisions) since my first book was published in 1979. I have also authored or coauthored 37 chapters in professional books, 53 articles in professional journals, and 3 computer-based programs. I have served as the editor or co-editor on 5 special series in professional journals and as the co-editor on a 15-book series on adult-related issues associated with disabilities. I have also coauthored two published standardized assessment instruments: Scholastic Abilities for Adults (Bryant, Patton, & Dunn, 1991) and the Transition Planning

Inventory (Clark & Patton, 1997). In addition, I was one of the co-developers of the Word Identification and Spelling Test (WIST) (Wilson & Felton, 2004). I am one of the authors of the Comprehensive Adaptive Behavior Scales that is currently being normed and will be published by PRO-ED (Austin, Texas).

- 5. I have served on boards and committees of national, state, and local organizations that serve and represent persons with mental retardation. For six years, I served on the national board of the Division on Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities of the Council for Exceptional Children, serving as president of the organization for one of these years. This is an international organization dedicated to issues related to persons with mental retardation. I also served for seven years on the Programs and Services Committee of the Arc of Texas. I have also served on the editorial boards of two international journals in the field of mental retardation, Education and Training in Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities.
- 6. I have taught courses that were specifically about the characteristics of individuals with mental retardation at a number of different universities in the U.S. (University of Virginia and University of Hawaii at Manoa) and internationally (Universidad Catolica de Santa María Arequipa, Perú). I have taught a number of other courses that have included content related to the topic of mental retardation.
- I am a member of the following organizations all of which have bearing on my credentials to comment on issues related to mental retardation: American Association on Intellectual and other Developmental Disabilities (AAIDD) formerly called the American Association on Mental Retardation (AAMR); American College of Forensic Examiners International (ACFEI); Council for Exceptional Children (CEC).
- 8. As James Ellis¹ has suggested, a need exists for trained professionals whose expertise is the field of mental retardation. "The expertise of skilled mental disability professionals is crucial to implementing Atkins' protections and achieving the goals of the criminal justice system in these cases." I have worked in the field of mental retardation for the last 34 years and over this time have gained the expertise to which Ellis refers. I offer the following points to substantiate my credentials. I have worked with hundreds of individuals who had mental retardation. As a result, I am very aware of the characteristics of this population from an in situ perspective. I have first-hand knowledge of how these characteristics manifest in the course of everyday situations.
- 9. In my capacity as a special education teacher/diagnostician in the Charlottesville Public Schools, I assessed and taught many students with mild mental retardation. Included in my duties were those of diagnostic assessment. I administered standardized and nonstandardized assessments, interpreted their results, presented these results to other professional staff, and served on the multidisciplinary team

(MDT) that made eligibility decisions for special education. Many of the MDT decisions involved the issue of whether a student had mental retardation. Although I am not licensed to administer tests of intelligence, I was trained and am able to administer a variety of assessment measures, including adaptive behavior measures and educational achievement measures.

- 10. During my doctoral program, I co-coordinated a continuing education program for adults with mental retardation called "Night College" in Charlottesville, Virginia. This program provided "life skills" classes for 60+ adults who lived in the city of Charlottesville and surrounding county (Albemarle County). The classes were offered one night per week and were located in Ruffner Hall on the campus of the University of Virginia. In addition to co-coordinating this program, I also co-taught classes in this program. This experience added to my knowledge and understanding of the characteristics and needs of individuals with mental retardation.
- 11. My interactions with adults who have mental retardation is further substantiated in two additional settings. I had regular interactions with adults with mental retardation who worked in a vocational training program in Honolulu, Hawaii. I was able to see how this group of individuals dealt with the demands of daily living. I had contact with this group in classroom and community-based settings over the course of three years. I am currently the faculty advisor for the "Best Buddies" chapter at the University of Texas at Austin. This program matches UT students with adults with mental retardation who live in the Austin community. I attend the scheduled events and interact with these adults on a regular basis.
- 12. As a professional with a doctoral degree in special education, I have remained very active in the area of mental retardation/intellectual disabilities through my writings, service, and research. As the coauthor of a widely used textbook on mental retardation in special education, I am very aware of literature on and issues associated with the definition and assessment of mental retardation. Serving on the editorial boards of two well-recognized professional journals associated with the area of mental retardation adds to my ongoing awareness of important topics in this field.
- 13. As the co-author of two published standardized assessment instruments, I am acutely aware of the concepts of test development and the technical features (norms, reliability, and validity) related to these types of instruments. This knowledge provides me with a keen insight into the various issues associated with assessment. The fact that I am currently working on the Comprehensive Adaptive Behavior Scales instrument provides a unique perspective of the issues related to the measurement of adaptive skills.

Activities Performed To Date

14. I was asked by Mr. Pizzuto's counsel to examine his adaptive functioning during the developmental period. This is a report of findings related to adaptive functioning. The current report is based on a review of the following documents that were provided to me by Mr. Pizzuto's counsel.

Affidavit of Ron Dias (former school counselor) Affidavit of Margaret Herzog (former principal) Affidavit of Paul Ircink (former teacher) Affidavit of William Matson (former school counselor) Affidavit of Gaye Momerak (former teacher) Affidavit of Elsie Pizzuto Rado (younger sister) Affidavit of Kismet Winslow (aunt) School records Military records

I was able to conduct face-to-face interviews with the following individuals: Elsie Pizzuto Rado (younger sister) [20 November 2009] (described events in Gerald Pizzuto, Jr.'s life from ages 10, 11 and 12). Gerald Pizzuto, Jr. [20 November 2009]

I conducted phone interviews with the following individuals who knew Mr. Pizzuto at various time prior to age 18.

Ruth Roath (aunt) [22 December 2009] (age 10)

Paul Ircink (former teacher) [23 December 2009] (ages 13-14) Monique Winslow Eska (cousin) [28 December 2009] (ages 12-13) Margaret Herzog (former principal) [29 December 2009] (age 13) Gaye Momerak (former teacher) [29 December 2009] (age 12)

Concept of Adaptive Behavior/Functioning

15. Adaptive behavior/functioning refers to a person's ability to deal with the everyday demands of life. The AAIDD² (2010) defines adaptive behavior as "the collection of conceptual, social, and practical skills that have been learned and performed by people in order to function in their everyday lives."³ The American Psychiatric Association (2000) describes adaptive functioning as "how effectively individuals cope with common life demands and how well they meet the standards of personal independence expected of someone in their particular age group, sociocultural background, and community setting."⁴

- 16. It is essential to point out that the AAIDD stresses that "within an individual, limitations coexist with strengths."⁵ What this means is that an individual does not have to show extreme deficits across all adaptive skill areas. It is important to note that, even with relative strengths, a person can still qualify as having deficits in adaptive behavior and meet this criterion of the definition.
- 17. Another aspect of adaptive behavior that warrants attention is the emphasis that the AAMR 2002 manual gives to the performance rather than acquisition of adaptive skills. "Thus it is expected that reasons for limitations in adaptive skills may include (a) not knowing how to perform the skill (acquisition deficit), (b) not knowing when to use learned skills (performance deficit), or (c) other motivational factors that can affect the expression of skills (performance deficit)."⁶
- 18. As supported in the professional definitions of mental retardation, a person ONLY has to show deficits in SOME of the many adaptive behavior areas, as indicated below.
 - a. AAMR (2002): significant limitation in ONE of the following three types of adaptive behavior: conceptual, social, or practical
 - b. American Psychiatric Association (2000) -- Criterion B: significant limitations in AT LEAST TWO of following eleven areas: communication, self-care, home living, social/interpersonal skills, use of community resources, self-direction, functional academic skills, work, leisure, health, and safety.
- 19. Deficits in adaptive functioning exist when a "consistency of information" obtained from a variety of sources and different settings indicates that "typical" adaptive functioning differs clearly and appreciably from the standards of personal independence expected of a person of the same age, sociocultural background, and community setting.
- 20. The determination of adaptive behavior must be accomplished by the collection of data from a variety of sources. Sources can include records, previous test results, interviews with key individuals who knew the person on whom adaptive information is needed, and formal testing. When obtaining information through interviews, the following conditions must be met to ensure valid results:
 - reliable, credible respondents are available
 - respondents had regular contact with the individual
 - respondents had contacts of reasonably long duration
 - respondents had an opportunity to observe behaviors associated with the specific skill areas of adaptive functioning
 - respondents were in close contact, as indicated above, with the individual prior to age 18, if retrospective assessment is used

- at least one of the respondents should be from the individual's cultural background
- 21. Significant limitations in adaptive functioning are defined differently, depending on the assessment technique employed. According to the AAIDD (2010), when a formal, standardized, norm-referenced instrument is used, "significant limitations in adaptive behavior are operationally defined as performance that is approximately two standard deviations below the mean."⁷
- 22. When clinical assessment techniques (informal data collected through collateral interviews) are utilized, "significant limitations" can be identified when nature of the adaptive deficits has a major impact on the person's functioning that clearly deviates from the standards of personal independence and social responsibility expected of the person's age and cultural group. Furthermore, "significance" is underscored when the information obtained from different sources corroborates these deficits (i.e., convergent validity). The determination that deficits exist/existed should be based on professional judgment that results from training and an extensive experiential background in working with individuals with mental retardation.

Adaptive Functioning: Findings From a Review of Documents and Individual Interviews

- 23. For the purposes of this report, various documents were reviewed and certain individuals were interviewed (as listed in paragraph 14) to obtain an assessment of Mr. Pizzuto's adaptive functioning.
- 24. General Functioning: A number of those persons who were interviewed expressed a concern that Mr. Pizzuto learned at a much slower rate than others of his age.
 - His sister, Elsie Pizzuto Rado, noted that he was born with limited capacity. Others (Kismet Winslow, Monique Winslow Eska) thought he was slow. Kismet observed that he and his sister, Renee, were mentally very slow and that "their slowness made them stand out among their siblings."
 - According to Ruth Roath, Mr. Pizzuto was late in developing and "did not learn the basics of living."
 - Mr. Pizzuto was found to be immature by numerous people (Monique Winslow Eska, Gaye Momerak, Ron Dias).
 - A number of individuals (Elsie Pizzuto Rado, Ruth Roath, Kismet Winslow) noted that he needed supports in his life in his early years, these were provided by his siblings.

- 25. Conceptual Adaptive Skills (includes areas such as language, reading, writing, money concepts, and self-direction):
 - Communication [expressive, receptive, and pragmatic language]
 - Expressive Language:
 - Elsie Pizzuto Rado indicated that Mr. Pizzuto had a difficult time expressing his feelings and possessed a vocabulary that was limited to his experiences.
 - Ruth Roath noted that Mr. Pizzuto used baby language and did not have much of a vocabulary.
 - Monique Winslow Eska remembered that he told nonsensical stories – parts of which made some sense but other parts that did not.
 - Kismet Winslow remembered that he could not talk very well taking a long time to get out his words - and preferred to point or gesture rather that voice his needs. She also noted that he had problems expressing himself when he was in stressful situations.
 - Receptive Language:
 - Elsie Pizzuto Rado remarked that you "had to talk down" to Mr. Pizzuto in order for him to understand what you were saying. She also indicated that he had trouble understanding humor at times.
 - Ruth Roath noted that you had to be very concrete when you spoke to him. She also thought that he had difficulty listening and was not able to follow directions.
 - Monique Winslow Eska stated that at times he had trouble understanding what was being said.
 - Pragmatic Language:

- Return to Petition Page 8
- Ruth Roath noted that Mr. Pizzuto could not conduct a conversation of any substance with other people. She also remembered that he would smile at inappropriate times.
- Monique Winslow Eska indicated that he couldn't carry on a conversation of any length and that he never started a conversation.
- School Performance [ability to meet the content and performance standards of school]
 - The school records for Mr. Pizzuto were incomplete. A review of the available school documents provided indicates that Mr. Pizzuto demonstrated a consistent pattern of academic difficulty when he was in school.

Return to Petition Page 8

- The affidavit of Elsie Pizzuto Rado, along with the interview 0 information provided by Ruth Roath, clearly indicate that Mr. Pizzuto struggled in school.
- Ron Dias, a high school counselor, when referring to Mr. Pizzuto's 0 school performance, remarked that he was "outgunned by his class peers."
- Mr. Pizzuto repeated a number of grade levels. The records clearly 0 indicate that he repeated the 6th grade. The records also indicate that Mr. Pizzuto was 11 years old when he began the fifth grade at Stead Elementary-the typical student in fifth grade is 10 years old, thus suggesting that he had repeated an earlier grade as well. Elsie Pizzuto Rado corroborated this fact - indicating that she and Mr. Pizzuto, who was a year older than she was, were in the same 3rd grade class.
- The final report card at St. Ann's School a school that served a large 0 number of students who were at risk - suggested that Mr. Pizzuto be retained in 6th grade. Paul Ircink (Mr. Pizzuto's 6th grade teacher at Hamblen Elementary) remarked that "his [Mr. Pizzuto's] physical maturity caused him to stand out from his peers."
- The grade reports that were reviewed show low levels of performance 0 - most of the grades he received were C's and D's (records from Stead Return to Elementary, St. Ann Primary, Sacajawea Junior High, Glover Junior High, Zoe Barnum High School). According to Margaret Herzog, St. Ann's School rarely failed students and a grade of "C" at St. Ann's indicated a student was "really in the danger zone."
- Mr. Pizzuto received a "D" in English when he attended Zoe Barnum High School - according to William Matson, a school counselor at this school, "this is a significant mark because it was my experience while at Zoe Barnum that the school rarely gave a D grade to any student."
- His overall grade equivalent of 4.2 on the Stanford Achievement Test (SAT) [10/67] is below not only the national norm (5.1) but also the median for his class (4.7). His score is notable because, at the time, he was a year older than his classmates and those at the fifth grade level nationally.
- It is important to recognize what Paul Ircink opined in his affidavit: 0 "Despite the fact that he was a couple of years older than the average 6th grade student, Jerry performed at the bottom of his class." He also remarked that "at 13 and 14 years of age Jerry was performing average and below average in a group of 11 and 12 year olds who were considered to be of lower intellectual ability."
- No school records indicate that Mr. Pizzuto was officially in special 0 education. However, Ruth Roath (his aunt) and Paul Ircink (a former teacher) both thought that Mr. Pizzuto should have been in this type of educational setting. It is important to recognize that Mr. Pizzuto attended elementary school prior to the enactment and full implementation of the Education of All Handicapped Children Act (enacted in 1975 and now referred to as the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act) that mandated a free, public education for all children who qualified for special education. Prior to this law, special education may not have been provided in some schools – as was the case in many of the schools (e.g., St. Ann and Hamblen) that Mr. Puzzuto attended. Furthermore, when special education was provided, services were typically limited in scope to those students with the most serious needs and few procedural safeguards were in place to ensure that appropriate identification and placement occurred. For example, Gaye Momerak stated she did not have the training to recognize students with special education needs.

- Elsie Pizzuto Rado noted that Mr. Pizzuto had great difficulty in completing his homework. Most of the time they were in the same class. Elsie would do her homework first and then do his. An Return to Petition example that she shared involved Mr. Pizzuto's inability to use a Page 9 dictionary to look up the meaning of words that were assigned either she or his other younger sister, Angie, would have to do the work.
- Reading/Writing/Math Skills [ability to comprehend written text, write various types of documents, and perform everyday math activities]
 - Reading was a major problem for Mr. Pizzuto. Paul Ircink taught reading to students and indicated that Mr. Pizzuto was in the "low" group. Mr. Ircink also stated that he used a variety of techniques to help Mr. Pizzuto with his reading challenges such as oral discussion of the topics read, pairing struggling readers with students who were better readers, and differentiating assignments.
 - According to William Matson, Mr. Pizzuto did not pass the Reading Equivalency Test when he attended Zoe Barnum High School.
 - Elsie Pizzuto Rado remarked that Mr. Pizzuto never learned the concept of money. When going to the store, one of the younger sisters would have to handle the money transactions.
- Self-Direction
 - According to Paul Ircink, Mr. Pizzuto did not volunteer in his class when opportunities arose.
 - Mr. Pizzuto was assigned chores at home e.g., taking out the garbage. According to Elsie Pizzuto Rado and Ruth Roath, he had trouble doing this chore – he could not tie the bag properly and had to be monitored by one of his younger sisters.
 - Elsie Pizzuto Rado believed that he would not have been able to identify his own strengths and weaknesses.
 - Ruth Roath noted that he did not have any drive or direction and always needed incentives.

- 26. Social Adaptive Skills (includes competence in the areas of social and leisure skills):
 - Social Skills
 - According to a number of individuals who knew Mr. Pizzuto (Paul Ircink, Monique Winslow Eska, Kismet Winslow), he was a quiet kid and kept to himself. Paul Ircink indicated that he did not bond with others. Monique remembered that he played by himself – always "outside" from others.
 - Mr. Pizzuto was somewhat of a loner and more of a follower he went along with what others wanted most of the time, according to Elsie Pizzuto Rado.
 - Kismet Winslow noted that he was a "baby" among his siblings even though he was older than most of them.
 - As a youth, Mr. Pizzuto did not have friends. His teachers indicated that he did not have friends (Paul Ircink) and was not able to interact with his peers (Gaye Momerak). According to Ruth Roath, he did not have friends nor did he know how to maintain friendships. Elsie Pizzuto Rado did indicate that he had one friend who lived across the street from him when they lived in Spokane.
 - Mr. Pizzuto could easily be taken advantage of, according to three of his relatives (Elsie Pizzuto Rado, Ruth Roath, and Monique Winslow Eska):

Return to Petition

- Elsie reported an incident when Mr. Pizzuto broke into a Page 9 church and he got caught – the enticement was a bag of candy
- His siblings could get Mr. Pizzuto into fights with others (Elsie)
- His sister, Angie, could trick him into doing her work (Elsie)
- Kids would talk him into letting them use his bike they would then say he could get it back if he gave them cookies – it would happen repeatedly (Ruth)
- He was considered a push over (Monique)
- Ruth Roath indicated that he was naïve he would not understand what was going on around him.
- Mr. Pizzuto was not a youngster with a behavior problem he did not get angry and did not fight in school. However, with his relatives, when he got angry, he would sometimes get physical (Ruth Roath).
- Elsie Pizzuto Rado mentioned that Mr. Pizzuto always thought he was stupid.

- Leisure Skills
 - Elsie Pizzuto Rado recalled an instance where Mr. Pizzuto was trying to play the game "battleship" on paper but, he could not learn how to plot the moves.
 - Elsie Pizzuto Rado also noted that he was interested in painting; however, he could not learn how to paint-by-numbers – something that other kids his age were able to do.
 - Elsie Pizzuto Rado also pointed out that he would play checkers but never had any strategy for winning she noted he was never "kinged."
 - Mr. Pizzuto was interested in being a cub scout however, as noted by Elsie Pizzuto Rado, he could not learn the cub scout oath.
 - Ruth Roath indicated that he took a long time to learn how to do some activities when kids were playing.
 - Monique Winslow Eska observed that he was not able to play group games appropriately – if he tried to play, he would play "rough" – not the way it was suppose to be played.
 - Mr. Pizzuto was not allowed to ride his bike beyond a restricted area and was not allowed to go to the pool – his other siblings were allowed to ride their bikes in a more extended area and were able to go to the pool (Monique Winslow Eska).
 - Kismet Winslow remarked that his "level of play was much lower than that of his age group" and that her children, who were younger than Mr. Pizzuto, were not able to relate to him – furthermore, he was not able to keep up with them.
- 27. Practical Adaptive Skills (includes areas such as self-care, home living, use of the community, health, safety, and work):
 - Self-Care [includes competence in areas such as eating, bathing, grooming]
 - According to Elsie Pizzuto Rado, Mr. Pizzuto would wear his clothes inside out. Ruth Roath noted that he wore his underwear backwards and did not know it.
 - He put his shoes on the wrong feet (Ruth Roath). Return to Petition Page 9
 - Mr. Pizzuto had problems with everyday hygiene. According to Elsie Pizzuto Rado, he would not bathe. Ruth Roath stated that he didn't look clean. Kismet Winslow noted that he had poor hygiene and needed help with grooming.
 - Ruth Roath observed that he didn't care about the way that he looked yet, his other siblings did.

Return to Petition Page 10

• Ruth Roath also indicated other atypical behaviors such as wetting his pants at school and eating dog biscuits. She also noted that he ate so fast that he would get sick.

Return to Petition Page 10

- Home Living
 - Ruth Roath noted that he was not allowed to cook or prepare meals.
 - Mr. Pizzuto had difficulty understanding how to clean, as evidenced when he and others were trying to wash a car. He took a hose and sprayed water inside the car (Ruth Roath).
 - According to Elsie Pizzuto Rado, when the family lived on a farm, the siblings were allowed to drive a tractor but Mr. Pizzuto was not allowed to do so.
 - Mr. Pizzuto was able to use tools, but someone had to be there with him (Elsie Pizzuto Rado).
- Health/Safety
 - Elsie Pizzuto Rado provided a number of examples when Mr. Pizzuto displayed risky behavior that threatened his safety.
 - He put a knife into an electrical socket.
 - He put a finger into a light socket.
 - He jumped out of a tree onto a structure.
 - He would not test food to determine if it was too hot to eat.
 - Both Elsie Pizzuto Rado and Ruth Roath noted that he would walk in the road without thinking thereby putting himself in danger.
- Work: [includes paid/nonpaid work experiences and experiences that are work-related]
 - When the family lived on a dairy farm, Elsie Pizzuto Rado recalled that he was not able to accurately throw the switches on the suction devices even though others could do this.
 - According to Elsie Pizzuto Rado, the siblings had a work group and would do odd-jobs in the neighborhood. However, specific directions always had to be given to Mr. Pizzuto and he had to be supervised with the tasks he was assigned.
 - Ruth Roath noted that he had a temporary paper route. However, problems arose. He had trouble getting up on time and could not manage the money that he was given for subscriptions he would spend it.

Summary of Mr. Pizzuto's Adaptive Functioning Based on Available Information

- 28. This section provides a discussion of the information/data that were available in regard to Mr. Pizzuto's levels of adaptive functioning.
- 29. School History: Mr. Pizzuto's school history and records provide a number of facts that contribute to an understanding of Mr. Pizzuto's levels of adaptive functioning.
 - According to a number of sources, he encountered major struggles related to the academic demands of school throughout his time in school.
 - He was retained from moving on to the next grade level on a number of occasions and the 9th grade was his highest completed grade level.
 - Mr. Pizzuto's poor school performance is reflected in the grades that he received and in the test scores that are in his records.
- 30. Informal Assessment of Adaptive Functioning: Qualitative data that were generated from the interviews, provided by affidavits of individuals who knew Mr. Pizzuto when he was growing up, or obtained from school records substantiate the fact that Mr. Pizzuto had significant problems across the key adaptive skill areas: conceptual (especially in the areas of communication and functional academics); social; and practical. The information that was obtained indicates that Mr. Pizzuto's adaptive functioning deviates from what is expected of individuals of a similar age and background in a number of key areas. Ultimately, Mr. Pizzuto's deficits seem to have had a major impact on everyday functioning during the developmental period.
- 31. Need for Support: The need for external support in one's life is a major characteristic of individuals with limited ability to function successfully with everyday activities. Mr. Pizzuto needed substantial support in school (e.g., alternative assignments, homework assistance from his sister) and with everyday life activities (self-care needs).

Professional Opinion

32. Based on a review of the materials provided to me and on the interviews I was able to conduct with key individuals in his life, it is my professional opinion that Mr. Pizzuto demonstrated "significant" deficits in adaptive functioning. The information provided and reviewed shows that Mr. Pizzuto displayed problems in or limited ability to perform typical adaptive behaviors across the major areas of adaptive functioning. While I was not asked to proffer an opinion on whether Mr. Pizzuto meets all of the criteria required for a diagnosis of mental retardation, it is my opinion that Mr. Pizzuto meets the adaptive deficit prong of mental retardation.

Respectfully submitted,

Gerald Ross Pizzuto, Jr.

AFFIDAVIT OF PAUL L. IRCINK

I, Paul L. Ircink, mindful of the penalty of perjury and being duly sworn under

- 1. I am over the age of 18 and competent to testify.
 - 2 PLJ.
- 2. I live at $3310 North Highway 395, Deer Park, Washington, 99006.

3. I have a B.A. in education from Gonzaga University.

developer.

- I was Jerry Pizzuto's 6th grade teacher (1969 1970 academic year) at Hamblen Elementary in Spokane, Washington.
- 6. The average 6th grade student was 11 and then 12 years of age during the academic year.
- Having taught and known hundreds of children in my career in education, I specifically remember Jerry Bartholomew [idenitified to me as "Jerry Pizzuto"] because his physical maturity caused him to stand out from his peers. Jerry had a thin growth of hair on his upper lip, the beginnings of a mustache Return to Petition Page 9
- There was an apparent age difference between Jerry and his classmates. Because Jerry appeared to be older I recall believing he must have been held back in school.
- 9. Hamblen Elementary did not departmentalize, meaning the sciences and so forth did not have their own departments and respective teachers. Sixth grade teachers were responsible for teaching their students the entire curriculum and thus, I taught all of the subjects to Jerry for which he received letter grades. I gave Jerry all of the letter grades for all of his classes.
- 10. Around the time Jerry was in attendance at Hamblen, the teacher to student ration was roughly 1:30.
- 11. Children with learning disabilities are undoubtedly at greater risk of going unnoticed with larger classes.
- 12. The Hamblen community was largely affluent. Jerry, however, lived in the section of the Hamblen school district limits that was of low socio-economic status.
- 13. Jerry arrived after the school year commenced, though still in the first out of four academic quarters. Jerry was a loner. He did not seem to have friends among his classmates. Concerned for Jerry, I suggested to him that he get involved in after-school sports. Jerry replied that he could not participate because he had to get home.

14. Though parents were invited to meet with the teacher when report cards were administered at the end of each quarter, I never met Jerry's parents.

Paul divided his class into two groups: one for average to higher learning students and one for lower learning students. Jerry was placed in the lower learning group.

- 16. I have reviewed Jerry's report card for the academic year during which I taught Jerry, a copy of which is attached hereto, initialed and dated by me this date. The report card reflects the likelihood that Jerry was probably at the lower part of the low group.
- 17. When Jerry attended Hamblen, no programs for special education or for special needs students existed. The only separation of the students in regard to special needs was the result of my division of the into the two groups. Unlike the other school district in which I taught, the school district in which Hamblen School was located did not receive moneys to fund a special education. Based on Jerry's academic performance, I would have referred Jerry to such a program had one been available at Hamblen during Jerry's attendance. It is my opinion based upon Jerry's academic performance that Jerry would have qualified for special education. This opinion is further supported by Jerry's age of 13 and 14 in the sixth grade. Despite the fact that he was a couple of years older than the average 6th grade student, Jerry performed at the bottom of his class. Return to Petition Page 9
- 18. Labels such as mentally retarded were not utilized at this time within the Hamblen school, nor were they used at any teaching institution at which I was employed. You were special ed or nothing, otherwise known as normal.

- 19. Jerry was graded in the following subjects: Reading, English, Spelling, Arithmetic, Social Studies, and Science. For each subject, Jerry received a letter grade for comparative achievement (A, B, C, D, or F,) and a numerical score for personal achievement (1, 2, or 3) (please refer to attached report card).
- 20. Comparative achievement was a way to grade performance against the students in the group to which you were assigned (i.e. the high learning group or the low learning group). Paul defined personal achievement as the extent to which a student put forth an effort to complete his or her school work.
- 21. Under each subject (e.g., Reading), spaces exist for the purpose of the teacher noting any strengths or weaknesses in particular subject areas. To have not received a mark means that the student was doing fine work, nothing remarkable of which to note. I would only mark a box in the cases of extremes. Thus, when Jerry received a minus sign, his respective performance was remarkably weak.
- 22. The comparative achievement scores that I gave Jerry were based on his performance compared to others in the low learning group, and not the entire class.
- 23. On the report card, Jerry's marks rose from a D in Spelling with a personal achievement score of 3 to a C in Spelling with a personal achievement score of 1. The latter of the two indicates that when performing at his personal best, or a scoring a 1, Jerry received no higher than a C. Translation: Jerry gave it his personal best and could only earn a grade of C. This highest mark for Jerry means that when compared to others in the low learning group, Jerry's performance in Spelling was average (see report card). Jerry's performance would have yielded an F, a failing grade, but for the fact that the group in which he was being compared was other low learning students.

PYJ

- 24. The report card reveals that at 13 and 14 years of age, Jerry was performing average and below average in a group of 11 and 12 years olds who were considered to be of lower intellectual ability.
- 25. During the 2nd quarter, Jerry received a minus sign in arithmetic. There was a minus in the subcategory computation. There was no minus sign in the subcategory reasoning because the bulk of 6th grade math was computation and I would have been unlikely to measure reasoning. The absence of a mark beside reasoning does not mean that Jerry had even average reasoning abilities. If Paul did mark the reasoning box on another child's report card, it would have been a plus sign to indicate that a child had gone beyond that which was assigned to the class.

AFFIDAVIT OF MARGARET HERZOG

State of Washington) : ss County of Spokane)

I, Margaret Herzog, a person over eighteen years of age and competent to testify, mindful of the penalty of perjury and being duly sworn under oath, declare and affirm as follows:

 I was the school principal at St. Ann's School in Spokane, Washington, a Catholic grammar school where Gerald Ross Pizzuto Jr. (hereinafter "Jerry") attended sixth grade during the academic year of 1968-69. I was a teacher for eight years before I became principal at St. Ann's in 1967. I was known as "Sister Margaret."

Affidavit of Margaret Herzog-1

- 2. St. Ann's was a Catholic grammar school wholly funded by student tuition and monies from the Spokane Catholic Diocese, receiving no monetary assistance from the state of Washington. The school was located in the poorest of the poor neighborhoods in Spokane and had a standard tuition amount of $50 per student per school year. I recall many families paying $1 per month for each of their children to attend St. Ann's.
- On July 15, 2003, I met with Rosanne Dapsauski, an investigator with the Capital Habeas Unit of the Federal Defenders of Eastern Washington and Idaho at my home in Spokane. At that meeting, Ms. Dapsauski provided Jerry's school photos and report cards during his time at St. Ann's.
- 4. I have reviewed Jerry's report card for the academic year during which he attended St. Ann's, and I have reviewed the photograph of Jerry from that same time period, copies of which are attached hereto, initialed and dated by me this date. I have no specific recollection of Jerry.
- 5. Mae Drury, who is now deceased, was Jerry's sixth grade teacher. I worked with Mrs. Drury during my tenure at St. Ann's. I fully respected Mrs. Drury as a teacher and I would never doubt any decision made by her. She was committed to helping students succeed, and it was her practice to help students in every way possible, including giving extra help to students during school hours and after school into the late afternoon.
 - St. Ann's School rarely failed a student; however, if a student was held back, the teacher felt that the student had not progressed sufficiently in their academic learning and needed to repeat the year. I can see that Jerry was retained by Mae Drury to repeat the sixth grade.

Affidavit of Margaret Herzog- 2

7. St. Ann's School had no special education programs. The school was severely

I, Gaye W. Momerak, a person over eighteen years of age and competent to testify, mindful of the penalty of perjury and being duly sworn under oath, declare and affirm as follows:

1. I currently reside in Reno, Nevada.

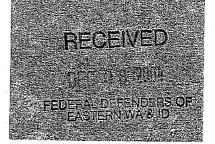

County of Washoe

2. I received a B.A. in education from San Jose State College in 1958.

I was Gerald Ross Pizzuto Jr's (hereinafter "Jerry") fifth grade teacher at Stead Elementary in Reno, NV during the academic year of 1967-68. This was my first year at

Affidavit of Gaye W. Momerak-1

Stead Elementary, I had been teaching since 1958. Stead Elementary was a school on a military base, until the base was closed and the housing was converted to low income housing that year. As a result, Stead Elementary had a huge influx of low-income students.

The academic year of 1967-68 was particularly challenging for me as a teacher. My class originally had 45-50 students. After an increase in staff, my class size was eventually reduced to 35-40 students. There were more behavior problems within the group of children at Stead than in groups I had formerly taught. The philosophy of the school principal, Ted Furchner, who had been at Stead Elementary while it was a military school, was to evaluate the overall performance of the school based solely on classroom decorum, not by the children's academic progress.

On April 9, 2004, I met with Amy Hurd, an investigator with the Capital Habeas Unit of the Federal Defenders of Eastern Washington and Idaho. Ms. Hurd showed me an aged photograph of a person approximately fourteen or fifteen years of age whom she identified as Jerry Pizzuto. I have reviewed the photograph of Jerry, a copy of which is attached hereto, initialed and dated by me this date. Ms. Hurd also provided a copy of Jerry's grades from the 1967-68 academic year. I have reviewed Jerry's report card, a copy of which is attached hereto, initialed and dated by me this date.

6. After reviewing the photograph, a fifth grade school portrait, I recalled specific memories of Jerry. I also remember that Jerry had a sister who was also in my class [Renee] but my memory of her is limited to her interaction with Jerry.

7. Jerry was admitted at Stead Elementary ten days after the academic year officially began in the Fall of 1967. At Stead, the student population changed frequently; it was common for children to come and go at different times during the academic year.

- Jerry had no overt behavior problems which caused me concern or to contact the counselor or school psychologist. I remember Jerry as being an immature student. I remember Jerry lacked the ability to interact with his peers. My recollection is that Jerry did not have any friends. I recall his relationship with his sister, Renee. Jerry and Renee always seemed to be very protective of each other when they were in my class. Other than the relationship with his sister, Jerry did not associate with other classmates.
- 10. It became obvious to me that Jerry had been held back in school at least once. Jerry was older than the average fifth grade student, since Jerry was ages eleven and twelve during the school year, whereas most other fifth graders would have been ages ten and eleven.
 11. In October of 1967, Jerry took the Standard Achievement Test. Jerry's score was a 4.2, indicating performance of someone at a fourth grade and two-month level. The national norm for this test was 5.1, indicating performance of someone at a fifth grade class at Stead was 4.7, indicating performance of someone at a fourth grade and seven-month level. At the time, I translated Jerry's score to mean that Jerry was performing a year behind where he should have been as a fifth grader. Given that Jerry was sixth grade age, he was even farther behind.
- 12. I have promoted students with low academic performance to the next grade level during my teaching career. For example, if a student was older and had already experienced being withheld from promotion to the next grade level, I would promote that student to the next grade in an attempt to prevent the child from being further isolated from his/her peers. Most of Jerry's grades ranged from C- to D-. The report card reflects the likelihood that Jerry had received failing grades (F's), but I promoted him to the next grade level because he was already a year older than his classmates. Return to Petition Page 9

- 13. School counseling was rare at Stead Elementary. Only children with overt behavior problems were given specific counseling attention; that is to say, Jerry would not have received assistance for a learning disability if he did not act out in class.
- 14. Stead Elementary provided very few services for special needs children. I do not recall any of my students being removed from the class to receive special education assistance.
- 15. I had no formal education or instruction about identifying special needs children or learning disabilities. As a teacher, I felt if a child was trying his/her hardest, I would pass him/her on to the next grade level. Most concerns I had toward specific students during my teaching days were triggered by the student's overt behavioral problems; therefore, a student with disabilities could have gone through my class at Stead without having their specific disabilities recognized.
- 16. During the academic year of 1967-68, my large class, coupled with the strict militarystyle approach of teaching classes required by our school principal, did not allow me to pay particularly close attention to students on an individual basis. As such, I would not have perceived Jerry as worthy of extra attention, regardless of his apparent performance deficit.
- 17. The main focus at Stead was to educate and to get the children into the next grade no matter what. The emphasis was not to look at the students and their home environment.

Affidavit of Gaye W. Momerak- 4

There was a "no nonsense" attitude about education - teachers just taught the class and did not become involved with the children's personal lives. In those days, teachers did not look at children in the same way teachers do now, in terms of looking for indications of abuse. Jerry could have been in an abusive home, but I would not have known. I sensed that something wasn't right with Jerry, there just wasn't anything I could do about it to help him.

AFFIDAVIT OF KISMET A. WINSLOW

STATE OF OREGON) : ss County of Curry)

I, Kismet A. Winslow, a person over eighteen years of age and competent to testify, mindful of the penalty of perjury and being duly sworn under oath, declare and affirm as follows:

 I am currently a resident of Gold Beach, Oregon and am the maternal aunt of Gerald Ross Pizzuto Jr. [hereinafter, "Jerry"].

Affidavit of Kismet A. Winslow

I have known Jerry since he was very young child, between the approximate ages of five (5) to nine (9) years of age. Most of my interaction with Jerry occurred while visiting his family while he was in the first through fourth grades.
 My husband and I would visit Jerry's family; the Pizzuto family did not come visit us.

Kill

- 4. Jerry was a thin and undersized child; he seemed physically immature for his age. Jerry walked with an odd gait, as he appeared to favor leaning to a particular side.
- 5. I remember Jerry experiencing narcolepsy as a child. Jerry shook frequently; he had tremors.
- 6. When visiting Jerry's family, I observed that Jerry and his sister Renee, both of whom were born prematurely, were mentally very slow. Their slowness made them stand out among their siblings. I think they were retarded.
- 7. Jerry could not talk very well; he would point or gesture rather than articulate his needs.
- 8. When experiencing any stress be it positive or negative or duress, Jerry would either become unable to speak or stutter in a high voice. He sometimes whimpered, making noises like little animals who were being abused.
- Under normal circumstances, Jerry spoke slowly, taking an unusually long time to get his words out.
- 10. Both Jerry's stepfather and his siblings teased him about his stuttering and overall inability to communicate appropriately.

Affidavit of Kismet A. Winslow

11. Out of all the Pizzuto children, Jerry was teased the most because he was mentally slow. He was prone to accidents which resulted in injury and that would exacerbate the teasing.

A.W

- 12. Jerry was a nice boy, though he was extraordinarily timid; many things terrified him. Jerry's fear of so many things now reminds me of several adults with mental retardation whom I have met; they shared the same vulnerability to terror. What scared Jerry and these adults would not scare those with all of their wits about them.
- 13. Despite being close to Jerry's age, in fact, two out of three were younger than he – my children would not play with him. Jerry's level of play was much lower than that of his age group. My children could not relate to Jerry, and he could not keep up with them. When the other children shunned him, Jerry would either sit alone or come crawl into my lap. Return to Petition Page 9
- 16. Jerry was the baby among his siblings despite his being the second oldest.
- 17. Jerry lagged behind his sisters, all of whom assisted him with his grooming and other daily activities such as eating, a task at which he was poor when left to his own devices.
- 18. I cannot recall Jerry ever being fully dressed. He would be without a shirt, a sock, a shoe, or some article of clothing. Return to Petition Page 10
- 19. Jerry had poor hygiene. I remember Jerry frequently having a dirty, runny nose that he consistently neglected. In fact, he did not even appear to be aware of the mucous that ran and caked down his face.

Affidavit of Kismet A. Winslow

- 20. When I visited the Pizzuto family, Jerry's sisters told me that Jerry ate bugs on more than one occasion. He was particularly fond of ants, they told me.
- 21. Jerry's sisters spent a significant amount of time helping Jerry get along in the world, helping him to hide his inadequacies.
