The Grand Jury charges that:

At all times relevant to this Indictment, unless otherwise indicated:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

1. DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV was a naturalized United States citizen residing in Cambridge, Massachusetts.
2. Tamerlan Tsarnaev was a Russian citizen residing in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

3. The 117th running of the Boston Marathon ("the Marathon") took place on April 15, 2013. The Marathon is an annual race that attracts thousands of runners from all over the United States and the world. It is normally held on Patriots' Day, a Massachusetts holiday that celebrates American patriotism and independence. Every year, friends and family members of the runners, and tens of thousands of others, line the race course to cheer on the runners and enjoy the race.

4. Many runners and their family members travel to the Boston, Massachusetts area from other states and countries and stay at local area hotels, eat at local area restaurants, and shop at local area businesses.

5. The final stretch of the Boston Marathon runs eastward along the center of Boylston Street in Boston from Hereford Street to the finish line, which is located between Exeter and Dartmouth Streets. Low metal barriers line both edges of the street and separate the spectators from the runners. Many businesses line the streets of the Marathon route. In the area near the finish line, businesses are located on both sides of Boylston Street, including restaurants, a department store, a hotel, and various retail stores.

6. On April 15, 2013, at approximately 2:49 p.m., while the Marathon was still underway, two improvised explosive devices ("IEDs") exploded on the north side of Boylston Street along the Marathon's final stretch. The first exploded in front of Marathon Sports, located at 671 Boylston Street, and the second exploded in front of the Forum restaurant, located at 755 Boylston Street. The IEDs were placed near the metal barriers where hundreds of spectators were watching runners approach the finish line. Each explosion killed at least one person, maimed, burned, and wounded scores of others, and damaged public and private property, including property owned by people and businesses in the locations where the explosions occurred.

7. The IEDs that exploded at the Marathon were constructed from pressure cookers, low explosive powder, shrapnel, adhesive, and other materials. They were concealed inside black backpacks.

8. Inspire magazine is an English language online publication of al-Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula. Volume One of Inspire magazine, which is dated summer 2010, contains detailed instructions for constructing IEDs using pressure cookers, explosive powder from fireworks, shrapnel, adhesive, and other materials. IEDs constructed in this manner are designed to shred flesh, shatter bone, and cause extreme pain and suffering, as well as death.

9. On April 18, 2013, at approximately 5:00 p.m., the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") published on its web site photographs of Tamerlan Tsarnaev and DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV, identifying them as the two individuals suspected of detonating IEDs at the Marathon. (It did not identify them by name because law enforcement had not yet learned their names). These photographs were widely disseminated on television and elsewhere.

10. On April 19, 2013, while DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV was hiding from police in a drydocked boat in a Watertown, Massachusetts backyard, he wrote a message on an inside wall and beams of the boat that said (among other things): "The U.S. Government is killing our innocent civilians;" "I can't stand to see such evil go unpunished;" "We Muslims are one body, you hurt one you hurt us all;" "Now I don't like killing innocent people it is forbidden in Islam but due to said [unintelligible] it is allowed;" and "Stop killing our innocent people and we will stop."

COUNT ONE
Conspiracy to Use A Weapon
Of Mass Destruction Resulting in Death
(18 U.S.C. § 2332a(a)(2))

11. The Grand Jury realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 10 and further charges that:

12. From at least in or about February 2013, up to and including on or about April 19, 2013, in the District of Massachusetts and elsewhere, the defendant, knowingly conspired with Tamerlan Tsarnaev to use a weapon of mass destruction, namely, a destructive device as defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 921, without lawful authority, against a person and property in the United States, and (1) such property was used in interstate and foreign commerce and in an activity that affects interstate and foreign commerce; (2) the mail and a facility of interstate and foreign commerce were used in furtherance of the offense; (3) a perpetrator traveled in and caused another to travel in interstate and foreign commerce in furtherance of the offense; and (4) the offense, and the results of the offense, affected interstate and foreign commerce.

DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV,

13. The conspiracy resulted in at least one person's death; specifically, it resulted in the deaths of Krystle Marie Campbell, Officer Sean Collier, Lingzi Lu, and Martin Richard.

OVERT ACTS

14. In furtherance of the conspiracy, and to effect its illegal object, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV, the defendant, and Tamerlan Tsarnaev committed the following overt acts, among others, in the District of Massachusetts and elsewhere:

15. At a time unknown to the Grand Jury, but before on or about April 15, 2013, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV downloaded to his computer a digital copy of a book entitled, "The Slicing Sword, Against the One Who Forms Allegiances With the Disbelievers and Takes Them as Supporters Instead of Allah, His Messenger and The Believers." The version that DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV downloaded had a foreword by Anwar Al-Awlaki, who was a well-known al-Qaeda propagandist. This publication directs Muslims not to give their allegiance to governments that invade Muslim lands.

16. At a time unknown to the Grand Jury, but before on or about April 15, 2013, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV downloaded to his computer a publication entitled "Defense of the Muslim Lands, the First Obligation After Imam," by Abdullah Azzam, who is also known as "the Father of Global Jihad." This publication advocates violence designed to terrorize the perceived enemies of Islam, among other things.

17. At a time unknown to the Grand Jury, but before on or about April 15, 2013, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV downloaded to his computer a digital copy of the publication, "Jihad and the Effects of Intention Upon It." The version he downloaded was published by an extremist web forum called At-Tibyan publications. The publication glorifies martyrdom in the service of violent jihad.

18. At a time unknown to the Grand Jury, but before on or about April 15, 2013, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV downloaded to his computer a copy of Volume One of Inspire magazine, which includes instructions on how to build IEDs using pressure cookers or sections of pipe, explosive powder from fireworks, and shrapnel, among other things.

19. On or about February 6, 2013, Tamerlan Tsarnaev traveled to Phantom Fireworks in Seabrook, New Hampshire, and purchased 48 mortars containing approximately eight pounds of low explosive powder.

20. On or about March 20, 2013, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV and Tamerlan Tsarnaev traveled to a firing range in Manchester, New Hampshire, where DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV rented two 9mm handguns, purchased 200 rounds of ammunition, and engaged in target practice with Tamerlan Tsarnaev for approximately one hour.

21. On or about April 5, 2013, Tamerlan Tsarnaev used the internet to order electronic components that could be adapted for use in making IEDs, and those components were delivered by the United States Postal Service to the Cambridge, Massachusetts, residence shared by DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV and Tamerlan Tsarnaev.

22. On or about April 14, 2013, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV opened a prepaid cell phone account under the name "Jahar Tsarni."

23. On April 15, 2013, at approximately 2:40 p.m., Tamerlan Tsarnaev walked to the front of Marathon Sports at 671 Boylston Street, where he placed a backpack concealing an IED constructed from a pressure cooker, low explosive powder, shrapnel, adhesive, electronic components, and other materials, among a dense crowd of Marathon spectators that included men, women, and children.

24. On April 15, 2013, at approximately 2:40 p.m., DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV walked to the front of the Forum restaurant at 755 Boylston Street, where he placed a backpack concealing an IED constructed from a pressure cooker, low explosive powder, shrapnel, adhesive, electronic components, and other materials, among a dense crowd of Marathon spectators that included men, women, and children.

25. On April 15, 2013, at approximately 2:48 p.m., DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV called Tamerlan Tsarnaev using his prepaid cell phone and spoke to him for several seconds.

26. On April 15, 2013, at approximately 2:49 p.m., seconds after DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV completed his phone call to Tamerlan Tsarnaev, Tamerlan Tsarnaev detonated the bomb he had placed in front of Marathon Sports, killing Krystle Marie Campbell and maiming and seriously injuring many others.

27. On April 15, 2013, at approximately 2:49 p.m., seconds after Tamerlan Tsarnaev detonated the bomb he had placed in front of Marathon Sports on Boylston Street, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV detonated the bomb he had placed in front of the Forum restaurant on Boylston Street, killing Lingzi Lu and Martin Richard, and maiming and seriously injuring many others.

28. On or before April 18, 2013, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV stored in his college dormitory room his computer and a backpack containing fireworks that had been emptied of low explosive powder.

29. On April 18, 2013, at approximately 8:45 p.m., a few hours after television stations and other media began disseminating a photograph of DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV that identified him as a suspect in the Marathon bombings, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV sent a text message to a college classmate and close friend that read, "If you want u can go to my room and take what you want."

30. On April 18, 2013, at approximately 10:00 p.m., DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV and Tamerlan Tsarnaev armed themselves with five IEDs, a Ruger P95 9mm semiautomatic handgun, ammunition for the Ruger, a machete, and a hunting knife, and drove in their Honda Civic to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology ("MIT") in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

31. On April 18, 2013, at approximately 10:25 p.m., in the vicinity of 32 Vassar Street in Cambridge, Massachusetts, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV and Tamerlan Tsarnaev murdered Sean Collier, an MIT Police Officer, by shooting him in the head at close range with a Ruger P95 9mm semiautomatic handgun, and attempted to steal his service weapon.

32. On April 18, 2013, at approximately 11:00 p.m., in the vicinity of 60 Brighton Avenue in Boston, Massachusetts, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV and Tamerlan Tsarnaev carjacked D.M.'s leased Mercedes ML350 by pointing a gun at D.M. and threatening to kill him. They indicated to D.M. that they intended to drive his vehicle to Manhattan.

33. After carjacking and kidnaping D.M., DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV and Tamerlan Tsarnaev forced him to drive to Watertown, Massachusetts, where they retrieved a portable GPS device and other items from their Honda Civic. Then they forced D.M. to drive to a gas station in order to fill the Mercedes's gas tank.

34. While DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV and Tamerlan Tsarnaev were searching for a gas station, they drove D.M. to a Bank of America branch in Watertown Square and forced D.M. to hand over his Automatic Teller Machine ("ATM") debit card and personal identification number ("PIN"). Then DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV used the ATM card and PIN to withdraw $800 from D.M.'s Bank of America account against D.M.'s will.

35. On April 19, 2013, at approximately 12:15 a.m., D.M. escaped from the Mercedes and called 911. DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV and Tamerlan Tsarnaev then drove to the vicinity of Laurel Street and Dexter Avenue in Watertown, Massachusetts, where officers of the Watertown Police Department located them and tried to apprehend them.

36. On April 19, 2013, at approximately 12:43 a.m., DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV and Tamerlan Tsarnaev began firing at the officers trying to apprehend them and used four IEDs against them, one of which was made from a pressure cooker, low explosive powder, shrapnel, and other materials.

37. On April 19, 2013, at approximately 12:50 a.m., after attempting to shoot, bomb, and kill or disable the law enforcement officers who were trying to apprehend them, Tamerlan Tsarnaev was tackled by three Watertown police officers -- Sergeant Jeffrey Pugliese, Sergeant John MacLellan, and Officer John Reynolds -- and struggled with them as they tried to handcuff him. DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV reentered the Mercedes and drove it directly at the three police officers.

38. When DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV drove the Mercedes at the three police officers, he barely missed Sergeant Jeffrey Pugliese, who was attempting to drag Tamerlan Tsarnaev to safety. Then DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV ran over Tamerlan Tsarnaev, seriously injuring him and contributing to his death.

39. In the course of making his escape in the Mercedes, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV also caused Richard Donohue, a Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority officer, to sustain serious bodily injury.

40. After escaping in the Mercedes, DZHOKHAR A. TSARNAEV abandoned the car on Spruce Street in Watertown, smashed both of his cell phones, and hid in a drydocked boat in a Watertown backyard until he was captured by police.
